

We Were A Little Short

---on Hospital slippers for a week but we got in a big lot today and we've got all sizes again.

We sell so many of these soft comfortable shoes that it's hard to keep them in stock. If you've had trouble getting foot comfort you ought to try a pair next time.

Charlie Voglewede

The Shoe Seller

WEATHER FORECAST

Fair tonight and Wednesday; not much change in temperature.

Mrs. J. L. Edge is much better. P. R. Chapman of Poe was a business caller here yesterday.

Oscar Fritzinger of Monmouth was a business visitor here yesterday.

Rev. A. M. Cummins of Winona Lake is visiting with friends here.

Jacob Omler of north of the city was a business visitor here yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Q. Neptune were the guests of friends at Rome City Sunday.

Miss Martha Worthman of Magley went to Fort Wayne yesterday afternoon.

Miss Goldie Biggs went to Fort Wayne yesterday afternoon for a visit with friends.

Harry Romer and Arthur Golder of St. Henry's, Ohio, who have been the guests of friends in the city for several days, have returned home.

Henry Krick was a business caller at Willshire yesterday.

John Lachot made a business trip to Geneva this morning.

Homer Knodle of Bluffton was a business visitor here yesterday.

Charles Fritzinger of Monmouth was a business visitor here today.

George Wemhoff and Martin Smith spent Sunday with friends at Indianapolis.

Lew Hughes returned from a several days' visit with relatives at Marion.

Grandfather Samuel Kunkel of Monmouth visited with relatives yesterday afternoon.

Fren Henschen left yesterday for Willshire, where he made a short visit with relatives.

Bob Watson and Henry Hanly of Fort Wayne were the guests of friends in the city.

James Artman, who is working at Bluffton, came home yesterday for a short stay on business.

C. I. Golder of Huntington has returned to his home after being a business caller in the city.

W. H. Mygrant of Auburn, formerly of this city, was attending to business matters in the city yesterday.

Earl Steele returned to Fort Wayne after spending Sunday with his father, James Steele, west of the city.

Grover Huffman of Swayzee was in the city looking after some business affairs and also calling on friends.

Miss Selma Schaffner of Willshire, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Henschen, has returned home.

Mrs. Jennie McConnehey and sons returned last evening on the 4 o'clock car to Fort Wayne after spending Sunday here.

The Misses Bertha and LaVon Dodane returned yesterday afternoon on the 4 o'clock car to Fort Wayne after a visit with Miss Rose Colchin over Sunday.

Mrs. Aaron DeVinney and Miss Grace Coffelt returned home from Bluffton last evening where they spent several days the guests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sudduth. Mr. Sudduth and family will start in a few days for an extended visit with his mother in Lincoln, Neb.

J. S. COVERDALE, M.D. & G. COVERDALE, M.D.
Drs. J. S. Coverdale and Son
Special attention given to diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose, and Throat
Office 118 1/2 2nd Street
Decatur, Indiana

J. S. Bowers, Pres. F. M. Schirmeyer, Vice Pres.

LOANS

The Bowers Realty Company calls your attention to its loan department.

The Company has five per cent money to loan on sensible and advantageous terms.

Our loans have certain features that will appeal to you.

See us about farms, city properties and abstracts.

The Bowers Realty Co.
French Quinn, Secty.

A. P. Beatty was a business caller at Fort Wayne today.

Mrs. Floyd Smith is spending today in Fort Wayne.

B. Everett was a business visitor at Fort Wayne today.

Joe Berling made a business trip to Columbia this morning.

Sam Acker of Geneva was a business caller in the city today.

George Kelley of Geneva was a business caller in the city today.

John H. Schug left this morning for Columbia City on his regular trip.

Miss Ruby Artman has returned from a visit in various Ohio cities.

Trustee David Steele of Preble was a business caller in the city yesterday.

Bert Green has returned from Arkansas, where he has been employed as drug clerk.

Mildren and Edward Tierney of Fort Wayne are visiting with Mrs. George C. Steele.

Mrs. Anna Bailer and daughters, Dorothy and Neva, went to Fort Wayne this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Niblick of Quincy, Ill., and Miss Helen Niblick spent the day in Fort Wayne.

F. M. Armantrout of Geneva passed through the city this morning on his way to Fort Wayne on legal business.

The Misses Anna Clark and Bertha Kinney and Celesta Wemhoff will spend Sunday with friends at Rome City.

Albert Bonner left this morning for Whittier Lake, where he will accept work in one of the shops at that place.

Dallas Butler was looking after some business at Fort Wayne today. He went from there to Albion on a similar mission.

Mrs. E. W. Johnson of Monroe arrived in the city this morning for a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Crist Weldy.

Miss Agnes Weber has returned to Fort Wayne, where she visited with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Weber, Sr., and other relatives.

Miss Lillie Teeple, who was the guest of her mother in the city over Sunday, left yesterday for Marion, where she will resume her school work.

Mrs. Charles Locke and son, Miller, left today for Fort Wayne, where they will make their future home. Their household goods were shipped Monday evening.

T. P. Gottschalk of Berne transferred here this morning on his way to Fort Wayne, where he will meet his sister, Mrs. E. K. Shalley, who has been visiting there.

Mrs. E. A. Straub and babe returned to Fort Wayne this morning after a visit with R. D. Leimenstoll and family at Peterson and with Milton Hoffman and family at Preble.

Father Flaherty, accompanied by a number of the boys of St. Joseph's school, left this morning for Kokomo, where they met a base ball team from the Catholic school at that place.

The Bobo M. E. Sunday school will give its picnic July 30th in the Teeple grove, a mile east and a half mile north of Bobo. A good time is being arranged by the committee in charge.

Fred Elchenberger and son, Edward, of Berne changed cars here this morning on their way to Chicago, where the former will attend the furniture dealers' convention, which is in session there this week.

The first load of new wheat sold in the city was bought Monday at the City Mills by C. Tresselt & Son. It was grown by J. J. Brown, of Whitley county, and the price paid was $1 a bushel. The grain this year is of good quality, but the yield is light, about fifteen bushels to the acre.—Fort Wayne Sentinel.

Several people living in the north part of the city are complaining about some of their neighbors allowing their chickens to run at large, destroying gardens and lawns. They seem to have withstood it as long as they wish and if caution is not taken from this notice something more severe will be tried.

Sister Antonia, who was in the city last week, visiting with relatives, left yesterday for Muncie, where she will make a visit with her sister, Delores, who also returned to her home yesterday. From there she will go to Jonesboro, Ark., where she will spend a short time with her mother, Mrs. Anthony Holthouse, and will then proceed to Little Rock, Ark., where she is stationed.

Attorney Shafer Peterson, who has just been released from a several weeks' quarantine on account of his granddaughter's having the scarlet fever at his home, returns to the office with his arms, hands and face, including even the top of his head, burned as brown as a berry, as much so as if he had gone on a vacation to the lakes. He says he worked in the garden during the time he was confined at home, and the greater part of the time he worked without a hat.

B. W. Huston was a business visitor at Fort Wayne today.

John Smith was a business visitor in Fort Wayne this morning.

Ed Lewton of Monmouth was a business visitor here this morning.

James Watts of Monmouth was in the city this morning on business.

W. M. Braun of Pleasant Mills was among the many attending to business matters in the city during the day.

John Loshe, who resides on the Studabaker farm, two and one-half miles southeast of the city, was busy threshing today.

Clerk Haeffling and family are at Robinson park today enjoying a day of recreation and pleasure at this pleasant resort.

The Modern Woodmen will have degree work tomorrow evening, a number of candidates being in line for the work.

The Ladies' Aid society of the German Reformed church will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Ernest Schlickman on North Fourth street.

Mrs. Jacob Meyers and daughter, Naomi, left today noon for their home at Trinidad, Colo., after five weeks' stay here with relatives. Mrs. Meyers was called here five weeks ago by the sudden death of her mother, Mrs. Alfred Elzey.

Mrs. Sherman Essex returned to her home at Monroe this morning after an over night stay here with friends on her return home from Bloomington, where she had been the guest of her sister, who is very sick.

S. E. Hite and daughter, Pauline, went to Fort Wayne this afternoon. Miss Pauline will remain for a visit with her grandmother, but Mr. Hite will return this afternoon and this evening he and his wife will leave for Chicago for a visit.

Ross Wolfe, a prominent farmer of near this city, was in town this morning buying an ample supply of meat for the threshers which were working at his farm today. The threshing season is on in full swing at present and the crops are said to be unusually bounteous.

Mrs. Charlotte Lautzenhiser of North Manchester, who has been visiting with her brother, Daniel Kitson, for several weeks, returned home today. She was accompanied as far as Huntington by her niece, Miss Mamie Kitson, who will spend several days there.

ATTENTION PUBLIC

Having recently purchased the Oak Roller Mill and also put it in a first class condition, we wish to announce that we will open the same Wednesday, July 20th and will pay the highest cash price for all kind of grain and especially for milling wheat.

"Blue-Ribbon"

will be our brand of flour which will be of high quality and made to suit all also have high grade kiln-dried bolted meal and all other mill feeds. We will also deliver goods to all parts of the city when ordered. We invite one and all to give us a call.

OAK ROLLER MILLS

GILLIG & SONS.

Miss Nora Del Smith spent the afternoon in Fort Wayne.

O. V. Graham of Monroe was calling on friends in the city today.

John McKain of Linn Grove was business visitor in the city today.

Mrs. Al Burd and son, Joe, went to Geneva and Bryant this afternoon.

Jacob C. Miller and little daughter, Esther, went to Fort Wayne today noon.

S. O. Bowser of near Monroe was a business trip to Fort Wayne this noon.

Lose & Thomas received an inquiry from Danville, Illinois, wanting prices on the White Stag in wholesale lots. This denotes the popularity and high favor in which the White Stag is assuming in the smoking world.

S. O. Bowser of near Monroe made a business trip to Fort Wayne today noon.

Albert Sellemeyer, who was the guest of friends at Warren, returned home today.

Enjoy yourself by smoking a

GEARY-O

10c CIGAR

Geary Brothers.

Our July Clearance Sale!!

We are making room for our fall stock which we are now purchasing, but we must have more room, as our fall stock will be large, necessitating cleaning up many lines complete. This has lead to the inauguration of

OUR SPECIAL DAY THUR, JULY 21

ODD AND END SALE

This includes all the short ends and remnants in Dress Goods, Silks, Lawns, Swisses, Bastistes, Gingham, as well as many other lines all of which are good but which cannot be enumerated in this space. We want you to come in and see them because we know that you will find something pleasing, and that too, with the prices cut to a ridiculous figure. SPECIAL SALE ON LACE CURTAINS.

Wash Skirts and Suits

Wash Skirts, $1.25 and $1 values 98c

Suits, $5.00 and $4.50 values $3.50

TRUE AND RUNYON