A PIONEER DEAD

Mrs. Wilhelmina Hilgemann
For Fifty-three Years a Resident

OF ADAMS COUNTY

Died This Morning at One O'clock—Resided Near Honduras.

In the death of Mrs. Wilhelmina Hilgemann of near Honduras, which occurred this morning at 1 o'clock, Adams county lost one of its oldest residents, Mrs. Hilgemann having resided here since 1857. Mrs. Hilgemann was eighty-seven years of age at death, had been ailing for more than a year with a complication of diseases incident to old age, and she had been bedfast five weeks. She was born in Germany February 9, 1823, her maiden name being Lammert. In 1846 she came to America, living near Cincinnati, Ohio, where she was married in 1847 to William Hilge. To them were born five children—Henry Hilge, of Kirkland township; Mrs. Dan Linn of this city, Mrs. Louis Genthner of Fort Wayne, and two who are now dead. In 1857 Mr. and Mrs. Hilge came to Adams county, living on a farm near Magley. Mr. Hilge died soon after their arrival here, and the same year Mrs. Hilge was married to Henry Hilgemann, moving to a farm near Honduras, where they lived until death. Mr. Hilgemann passed away a year ago last March 7th. To the last union was born one child, Mrs. J. D. Hoffman, of St. Mary's township. The funeral will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, standard time, at the Zion Christian Union church, the Rev. Vitz and Rev. Hesser officiating.

Having been appointed receiver for the Coppock Motor Car Company, all creditors will at once file an itemized bill of their claims with the undersigned. A. D. SUTTLES, Receiver.

THE SOCIAL NOTES

uted to the attractiveness of the scene and the amusement and refreshment of the large numbers in attendance at the social given by the Concord Ladies' Aid society. The proceeds from the social amounted to about thirty-nine dollars, for which the ladies are congratulating themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Voglewede, residing southwest of the city, entertained at their country home today in honor of Mrs. Anthony Holthouse of Jonesboro, Ark., and the day was one of much pleasure for those in attendance. Among those from this city were Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Terveer and son, Bernard, and Mrs. R. J. Holthouse and son, Arthur.

NEWS OF HONROE

Willis VanCamp commenced his duties at the Monroe Hay, Grain & Milling company's plant on Monday morning, and quite a large grist has already been ground out since his arrival.

Orvil Osterman, O. P. Andrews, A. S. Keller, E. W. Johnson and Chester Johnson were members of a party that went to Geneva this afternoon to attend the chautauqua, which is being held at that place this week. They drove over in the large touring car of O. Osterman.

A pleasant surprise was sprung on Miss Bessie Mason, the efficient bookkeeper at the Monroe State bank, on last Thursday night, when twenty of her intimate friends proceeded to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Z. O. Lewellen to remind her that she had passed another milestone of her life. They took Miss Bessie a "joy ride" on one of the tile mill wagons and paraded through our principal streets, the vehicle being pulled by the merry crowd of young people. After arriving at the home from whence they started the remainder of the evening was spent in a social way. Refreshments were served and all had an enjoyable time.

Remember the Junior League ice cream social Saturday night.

"NATION'S DESTINY"

Large Audience Listened
With Great Interest More Than Two Hours.

Geneva, Ind., July 21—(Special to Daily Democrat)—The Geneva chautauqua on Wednesday was well patronized, and the entertainments given were well received. At 3 o'clock p. m. the Elizabeth Weedman Concert company gave a performance far above the average. The readings of Miss McCormick were good, especially Riley's "Old Sweetheart of Mine." The pantomime "America," as given by her was far above the average and the singing of Miss Weedman, the soloist, was excellent. Miss Post, the cello player, was good, while the pianist, Miss Bogart, was a very graceful and efficient player. At 7 o'clock the Geneva Merchants' band gave a concert of thirty minutes, followed by a concert by the Elizabeth Weedman Concert company, in which Miss Weedman again rendered a solo that was again well received, concluding with a pantomime by Miss McCormick, "Lead, Kindly Light." At 8 o'clock Superintendent Horton, in a few well chosen remarks, introduced to the vast audience Lieutenant Richard Pearson Hobson. As he appeared on the stage our minds reverted to the morning of June 3, 1898, when Lieutenant Hobson, in company with six brave men, left their commander's flag ship and were put on board the Merrimac to perform a feat that to think about, was almost impossible. But they did it, as history only tells. And we also thought of the thirty-three days that he was confined in a Spanish prison and exchanged for Spanish prisoners held by our soldiers and permitted to return to his superior commander, W. T. Sampson (now deceased) and reported in detail his er, and await the letter that will probably be here in a few days.

Letter Came Too Late.

A letter from Miss Martha Armstrong of Carmichael, Pa., written to her fiancé, Leyton Potter, just before she heard of his suicide, arrived today and was delivered to Coroner J. C. Grandstaff. The letter breathed hope and courage to her lover, who she knew was discouraged on account of financial resources, but came just too late. The letter was written with words of cheer, telling him to hope for the best, that all would come right, and the wedding must come off in August as planned. She stated that if he had not money enough for the present, that she had some money, and that she was able to work and help him. Had the letter come but a day or two sooner, its cheering influence may have averted the sad occurrence.
