The young lady clerks of the True & Runyon store enjoyed a water melon picnic last evening at the home of Miss Rose Colchin, the luscious, juicy melons being the treat of their employer, Mr. Runyon. After the feast there was music to enliven the hours, followed by a moonlight drive. The party included Rose Colchin, Daisy Ballerger, Frances Butler, Zelma Steele, Celia Kinney and Della Fraughtiger.

A very happy birthday party was given Friday afternoon from 2:30 to 5:30 o'clock by Miss Mary Erwin at her home on North Second street.
Pink and white comprised the color keynote of the decorations, which were of crepe paper streamers and sweet peas, arranged tastily in the house, while nasturtiums and plants beautified the porches. "Vacation Days" was the name of an amusing little contest, carried out in pink and white also. Booklets were given each guest, which they were to illustrate with pictures from magazines, telling a vacation story. Prizes for the best and second were awarded to Rosa Green and Dorothy Dugan. Music also contributed to the pleasure and a tempting luncheon, carrying out the color scheme, was served by the T. T. girls. Guests were Dorothy Dugan, Hazel France, Vivian Dutcher, Lucile White, Lulu Gerger, Rosa Green, Lillian Rice, Winifred Sowers, Gladys Graham, Flora Peters, Mabel Moses, Hazel Love, Erna Schindler, Effie Miller, Mary Falk, Gladys Mc-Millen of Pleasant Mills and Lucy Barnes of Huntington.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs.
C. J. Lutz will be the scene of a delightful dinner party given by them this evening, this being one of the last pre-nuptial affairs given for Miss Nellie J. Schrock, whose wedding to Dr. Orren Smith of Indianapolis will take place Monday. The tables will be laid in the two dining rooms of the Lutz home, with covers for eighteen.
Garden flowers of which July has a great profusion, will be used in the floral decorations, further enhancing the beauty of the already lovely

J. Schrock, the following: Dr. Orren Smith, Miss Marguerite Smith, Dr.
Summer Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank

COURT HOUSE NEWS

John Kratner and Mary Deener Refused License to Marry.

WE'RE DISAPPOINTED
The Indiana Law is Strictly Enforced by the Clerk in This County.

There was considerable disappointment around the clerk's office for a time this afternoon. John Kratner and Mary Deener appeared there and asked for the credentials which would enable them later to be married. They failed to answer the questions required and in addition they failed to measure up to the metal requirements as specified by the laws of the state, so Clerk Haefling refused to grant the license. The matter was later referred to Judge Merryman and after considerable investigation he upheld the clerk in his contention. They were refused license and as a matter of fact were greatly disappointed.

About the only thing noticeable around the clerk's office these days is the occasional filing of a new case for the September term of court and outside of that there is not much doing.
The office force is getting things in shape for the next term, making new dockets and otherwise getting ready for a lot of business, which is accumulating.

RETURN WITH BODY

but who, upon finding that the body had not been sent, came directly here.
The grandmother had been fully expecting its arrival there, and it is said made all preparations for the burial.
A message was sent to her this afternoon asking her final consent to the shipment of the body to Carmichael, and if the message comes in time this afternoon, the remains, accompanied by Miss Armstrong and her aunt, will leave over the Erie at 4 o'clock for her home, where the body will be buried.

WANTED—The person who picked up
