Tired Feet?

Did you ever observe that when your feet are tired, you are "tired all over"? In cases of this kind, if you apply Hoover's X-Ray Healing Oil and rub it vigorously, you will be surprised at the promptness with which you will feel all the restlessness and chippiness which comes with relief from weariness.

It is excellent for many other summer distresses, such as colic, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, etc., and for rheumatism, tonsillitis, cuts, burns, sprains, bruises, and the many aches and pains which come to us uninvited and unexpected.

Everywhere in this great remedy praised, but no where more strongly than at Ossian, Ind., where it is manufactured. It is a case where a prophet is honored in his own country.

SWEEP THE STATE

(Continued from page 2.) support could be given, it is believed, is the opinion, which is growing in strength each day, that Beveridge is not sincere and was not when he voted against the tariff bill. This might account for the support of certain republicans but it would not bring the endorsement of the voters. The charge made against Beveridge by Charles Sefrit in his rock-ribbed republican organ, the Washington Herald, has spread over the state and is the one big topic of conversation. Sefrit openly charged that Beveridge would have voted for the tariff bill if his vote had been necessary for its passage. This charge was made in the editorial columns of the Herald and was directed to those republicans who are "regular" and object to Beveridge's "assault" on the tariff. Another startling republican admission has been added to the campaign by the Indianapolis Sun, which is moving heaven and earth to re-elect Beveridge. The Sun admits that the foreign vote cast in the last state election, and which defeated the democratic state ticket, was "illegal, corrupt and rotten to the core. The corrupt practices in Lake county in the last campaign," says the Sun, "are still fresh in the minds of the people. It was proven that 3,000 foreigners were illegally voted in Lake county, men who had not been in this country long enough to be naturalized. The tremendous republican majority which that county gave and which saved the republican state ticket, was illegal, corrupt and rotten to the core, and it is to the shame of the republican party in this state that it ever defended the herd of foreigners, less than six months away from Castle Garden; men who could not read or write or understand the English language. It is even a matter of court record that so ignorant were they that they thought Taft was something good to eat, for after they had been illegally voted they were taken to an eating place and when asked what they wanted said over and over again 'Taft,' 'Taft,' 'Taft.'"
