"Everybody grows rich from handling food except the man who raises it," says the New York World. With one amendment this is all right. Everybody grows rich from handling food except the man who raises it and the man who eats it.

The talk about protecting the American laboring man from the cheap labor of Europe is insufferable rot. The cheap labor of Europe is imported into this country and is given the places of Americans in the mills and mines of the nation. The American laboring man is driven into open competition with the cheap labor of Europe by its being brought here for the express purpose of getting his job. Then it is voted in bunches, like it was at Gary in 1908, to keep a party in power that raises the tariff so that the manufacturer who employs them is enabled to keep out European-made goods and force the American laborer he drove from a job by the cheap imported labor to pay more for his necessities of life. Will some standpat paper tell us where the American laboring man gets and protection under this system?—Indianapolis Sun, Insurgent Republican.

Senator LaFollette in his magazine calls upon all insurgents to stand together. The appeal is directed to Democrats as well as Republicans. This is surprising for the idea has been given out that insurgency stands for the only and original brand of republicanism. But LaFollette's appeal to democrats indicates that insurgency isn't republicanism, a fact that has been suspected for some time. We take it then that insurgency is a creature of politics which has, as its chief aim and purpose, the control of a political party. LaFollette gives one to understand that the determination is to rule or ruin. It is difficult to understand why republican support is sought for a movement that makes the appeal also to democrats. This sort of politics looks more like an attack on the republican party than a movement in behalf of republican policies.—Huntington Morning Times, Rep.

STILL AFTER THEM

Indianapolis Sun Contends That the Republican State Officers Illegally Elected.

SHOULD SURRENDER

State Chairman Jackson Says They Should Resign at Once.

DEMOCRATIC NEWS BUREAU.
325 Pythian Building.
Indianapolis, Ind., July 27.—The Indianapolis Sun, which is a republican newspaper, owned and edited by Rudolph G. Leeds, charges that every republican elected on the state ticket two years ago and now occupying office in the state house was elected dishonestly, through illegal and corrupt practices. Now, will these gentlemen, who profess to be honest officials, rest under this charge, coming as it does, from their own party? Or will the Sun go a step further, and demand that these officers surrender their offices to the democrats who were defeated on the face of the returns? This is the statement of U. S. Jackson, democratic state chairman, based upon the admission of republicans that their state candidates, elected two years ago, were elected illegally. This charge was made by democrats at the time, but with the machinery in republican hands there was no possibility of making it stick. Evidence was gathered to show that 2,000 of the 2,700 foreigners who voted the republican ticket in Lake county two years ago were voted illegally. Records of the immigration bureau show that they had not been in the United States to exceed six months when they voted. The law requires a year's residence. The 2,000 votes which are now admitted by republicans to have been illegal and corrupt, defeated the democratic ticket with the exception of governor and lieutenant governor and superintendent of public instruction. If they had not been cast the entire democratic ticket would have been elected. The republicans won by not to exceed 1,099, which was the plurality of David A. Myers, for judge of the appellate court, first district. "The democrats charged fraud and illegal practices at the time," said Mr. Jackson, "and now the republicans admit it. Is it not up to them to resign and surrender each office to the democrats who were thus illegally defeated? I call upon them to do so if they are honest, conscientious men."

The Sun is a rampant Beveridge supporter, and is understood to be very close to the senator, so close in fact that the inference is being drawn that if Beveridge did not know and approve of the Sun's charges before they were made, he was at least not averse to their being published. The Sun says: "The corrupt practices in Lake county in the last campaign are still fresh in the minds of the people. It was proven that nearly 3,000 foreigners were illegally voted in Lake county, men who had not been in this country long enough to be naturalized. The tremendous republican majority which that county gave and which saved the republican state ticket, was illegal, corrupt and rotten to the core and it is the shame of the republican party in this state that it ever defended the voting of a herd of foreigners less than six months away from Castle Garden, men who could not read or write or understand the English language."

A PICNIC PARTY

Given by Sunday School Classes at Maple Grove Park Today.

HOW ABOUT TODAY?
We shall reap such joys in the by-and-by,
But what have we sown today?
We shall build large mansions towering so high,
But what have we built today?
'Tis sweet in idle dreams to bask,
But here and now, do we do our task?
Yes, this is the thing our soul must ask,
"What have we done today?"

The O. L. Vance home on North Second street was thrown open Tuesday afternoon to fifty ladies who were invited by Mrs. Vance and her sister, Miss Della Sellemeyer, to greet Mrs. George Masters of Wauseon, Ohio. The Vance home, tastily decorated with flowers, was a most cool and inviting place in which to spend a warm afternoon, and the guests forgot there was such a thing as heat, in the delight of the charming hospitality of the hostesses. Garden flowers—nasturtiums and sweet peas—standing everywhere in great bowls, artistically arranged, made the air fragrant and the scene beautiful to behold, as did the feathery asparagus sprays twined about the chandeliers and archways and every available place suited to the greens. In an interesting and unique musical contest, in which questions in rebus form were answered with musical terms, first honors were borne off by Mrs. Will Lehne. Another contest, equally interesting, was a centennial contest, pertaining to great people of a century ago, in which the prize was awarded Mrs. J. W. Tyndall. A very rare treat were the musical numbers and readings given by several very talented members of the party. There were delightful piano numbers by Frances Merryman and Mrs. Otto Haubold, very good readings by Miss Fay Smith in her accomplished and perfect way, and vocal solos by Miss Edna Colbert, a rare vocalist of Warren who charmed all with her singing. Luncheon, in two courses, was served at 6 o'clock, the hostesses being assisted in the serving by the Misses Frances Merryman, Edna Hoffman and Esther Sellemeyer. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. George Masters, Wauseon, Ohio; the Misses Anna Young, Flora Swartz, Mesdames Robert Harding and M. V. B. Archbold, Fort Wayne; Mrs. Hunter Meyers, Montpelier; Mrs. Otto Haubold, Mrs. Napp, Mrs. Frank Christen, Chicago; Mrs. Miles Pillars, Jonesboro, Ark.; the Misses Edna Colbert and Amy Wares, Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Aurand of near the Beery church entertained Mrs. J. T. Baker, Mrs. C. W. Andrews and Chris Beery and family at dinner yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Martin entertained at midnight lunch, guests being Fred and Gertrude Beery and Floyd Buckmaster.

The members of the Sunday school classes of the Christian church taught by Mrs. E. H. Shoemaker and Miss Dessie Beery, went to Maple Grove park on the 10 o'clock car where they enjoyed a picnic. The classes include the following: Glennis Mangold, Vivian Burke, Julia Gillig, Ruth Daniels, Dorothy and Thelma Williams, Bertha Schultz, Marie Hays, Grace and Florence Lichtensteiger, Elmer Derwechter, Harold Magley, James and Paul Dawson, Ralph Ramey, Harry Barnett, Fred King, Bertram and Harold Smith, Dan Teeple and George Scheimann.

AT THE HALE HOME

A Bluffton Picnic Party Spends Several Hours With S. W. Hale.

VIA NEW CORYDON

The B. G. and C. Will Build Line That Way and the Work Begins Soon.

Geneva, Ind., July 27.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—One of the social events of the season was the picnic on the S. W. Hale lawn on Line street Tuesday afternoon. On the arrival of the 1:30 car from Bluffton the following named persons, with well-filled baskets, repaired to the Hale home and asked permission to enjoy the shaded environments of his beautiful and well kept lawn, and be permitted to enjoy a picnic supper. Mr. Hale immediately acquiesced. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. G. F. McFarren, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Barcus, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Markley, Mrs. Goodyear and daughter, Mrs. VanEmmons, Mrs. W. S. Smith and two sons, Mrs. Clara Deam and granddaughter, Mrs. Hattie Hedges, Mrs. Springstead, Mrs. Sprick and Mr. J. P. Sale of Bluffton, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Barcus of Logansport and Mr. James Leeper of Elwood. These with Mr. Hale and sons and daughters and their families made it a very delightful affair. They all returned to Bluffton on the 7:50 car, and were evidently satisfied with their few hours spent in Geneva.

Mr. Isaac Landig of Arcadia, Indiana, was here several days visiting with his sister, Mrs. Sarah Imboden.

The surveying of the line of the B. G. & C. is now completed and the stakes driven, and work will soon begin on the extension of the line from Geneva to New Corydon. The line will be built by the way of New Corydon, and the promoters expect to push it to an early completion.

Mrs. S. S. Acker and children have returned from a visit to her sister and father in Kentucky. Miss Doris remained but will be home, however, for school in September.

Quite a number from Geneva had anticipated a trip to Celina Wednesday in order to see and hear Ollie James, congressman from Kentucky, but owing to sickness Mr. James could not fill his engagement and the Geneva party abandoned their trip.

Samuel Kuntz has accepted a position as chief engineer with the Thatcher dry line and began work Monday.

A. G. Briggs, vice president, and other promoters of the B. G. & C., are going over their proposed routes today from Geneva to Celina putting on the finishing touches before work begins.

CUT YOUR WEEDS.

By order of the supervisor from the third district of Union township all persons are at once requested to cut all weeds and remove what brush that may have collected along their premises; also everyone along the pike is notified of the same order. Any one failing to take warning by the 20th of August, the above work will be ordered done at the expense of the owner.

17543 WM. THIEME, Supervisor.

Mrs. Otto Reppert returned from a visit with relatives at Cincinnati. She was accompanied here by Mrs. Lind, who will spend two weeks with friends.
