

This Sale

A lot of Ladies Tan
Oxfords small sizes

---- 98c ----

Charlie Voglewede The Shoe Seller

WEATHER FORECAST

Unsettled weather with local thunder showers tonight or Friday.

William Hirscheny of Berne has been a business transacter in the city for several days past.

H. M. Daniels left today for Portland, where business of importance required his attention.

Mrs. W. A. Lower and niece, Miss Hazel France, spent the afternoon with relatives at Monmouth.

COME TO THE Ice Cream Air Dome

Cor. 3d & Madison sts.

ICE CREAM
SOFT DRINKS
and
FRESH AIR

YOUR MONEY

Through those many little leaks that could be stopped with a checking account.

Start a checking account with us today—have us keep your funds safe from careless spending, theft, fire loss, etc.

The checking account costs you nothing and is a convenience and real business need of today.

THE OLD
Adams County Bank

J. S. COVERDALE, M.D.E. G. COVERDALE, M.
Drs. J. S. Coverdale and Son
Special attention given to diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose, and Throat
Office 118½ 2nd Street
Decatur, Indiana

J. S. Bowers, Pres. F. M. Schirmeyer, Vice Pres.

LOANS

The Bowers Realty Company calls your attention to its loan department.

The Company has five per cent money to loan on sensible and advantageous terms.

Our loans have certain features that will appeal to you.

See us about farms, city properties and abstracts.

The Bowers Realty Co.
French Quinn, Secy.

Mrs. Frank Gass is spending the day in Fort Wayne.

H. H. Bremerkamp was among the Fort Wayne visitors today.

Miss Ethel Barkley was clerking at the Everett & Hite bazaar today.

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Parrish were among the Fort Wayne visitors today.

Miss Anna Smith and niece, Paschaline Smith, spent the afternoon in Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tonnellier and son, Dick, are among the Fort Wayne visitors today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Neptune have gone to Rome City for a several weeks' vacation.

John Colchin was among the many who attended to business matters at Fort Wayne today.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Meyers and children left today for Rome City, for a several weeks' outing.

Mrs. Mary Durkens of Fort Wayne is home for a visit with her son-in-law, J. W. Bosse, and family.

William Colchin made a business trip to Fort Wayne this morning, returning home on an afternoon car.

Mrs. Ansel Bremerkamp went to Fort Wayne this morning for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Helen Blomson.

Jerry Coffee and son, Raymond, were at Fort Wayne today, where the former was looking after some business matters.

Seymour Worden, one of Decatur's best known citizens, left today for Pleasant Mills, where he will make a short visit with friends.

Mrs. C. C. Haughton is spending a few days visiting with relatives at Geneva, Linn Grove and Bluffton, returning home Saturday.

Mrs. Fred Schaffer and Miss Anna Winnie were among those who attended the picnic given by the Methodist Sunday school at Robinson park, Fort Wayne, today.

The Misses Ode and Letta Fullenkamp, Amelia Weber, Louise Brake and Mary Geis of Brookville, will leave Sunday for Rome City for a two weeks' outing.

Mrs. David Lamon and Miss Esther Bowers and Master Vie Thompson left this morning for Rome City, where they will join a house party at the Bowers cottage at that place.

Mrs. Samuel Lehman and daughters, Naomi and Neva, were among the Robinson park visitors today. They will remain in Fort Wayne until Saturday, the guests of Mrs. Quinn.

Miss Clara Peters of Fort Wayne was in attendance at the German Reformed picnic at Maple Grove Park yesterday afternoon and visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peters.

A trolley pole at the interurban gravel pit caught fire Wednesday and it was necessary to turn off the power while putting out the fire, thus occasioning a slight loss of time in the runs. The damage was very little. Some straw around the pole caught fire, this in turn spreading to the pole.

Prof. E. E. Rice returned last night from Chicago, where he took a summer course in Chicago University. He has completed his course and will be at home for the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. Emil Bridge and two children of Marion changed cars here this morning on their way to Petoskey, Mich., where they will enjoy the summer vacation with friends.

Miss Bertha Bieberle of Preble, who has been sick for the past three weeks, is reported better, and her many friends are correspondingly happy.

Mrs. J. W. Bosse, who has been at St. Joseph hospital, Fort Wayne, for some time, but who has recovered sufficiently to be removed to the home of a sister, Mrs. Egan, in that city, is gradually improving and will probably be able to return home in two weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Q. Neptune went to Rome City today to join other members of the Decatur party. Mrs. Neptune and babe had gone last Sunday with the others, but was obliged to return with the babe, who did not find the lake to its liking.

Miss Rose Tonnellier, who has been at Rome City for a two weeks' outing, became sick while there and was taken to the sanitarium, where she now is. She is not yet able to come home and will probably remain until next week.

Quite a great many Decatur people watched the unique electrical display in the southeast last night. The lightning, which was fiery red, flashed in almost continuous waves and gave the appearance of reflection of light in the heavens from a great conflagration. The lightning was accompanied without thunder.

Charles Barnhart, proprietor of a racket store at Attica, was here on night, the guest of relatives. Mr. Barnhart came from Bluffton where he bought some goods, and left this morning for Swayzee, where he will assist his father, Joshua Barnhart, in opening a new racket store at that place. It was the intention to open next Saturday, but this will be necessarily postponed on account of delay in the stock shipment. Mr. Joshua Barnhart and daughter, Emily, are now at Swayzee, where they moved their household goods, but Mrs. Barnhart is here with her mother, the aged Mrs. John Barnett, who is very sick.

Ed Coffee left this noon on a business trip to Portland.

Dr. Grandstaff of Preble was a business caller here today.

Mrs. P. B. Thomas has issued invitations for a party for tomorrow afternoon.

Dr. Vizard of Pleasant Mills was attending to some business matters in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Schaffer and daughter, Gretchen, are spending the day in Fort Wayne.

Prof. Paul Withaus left today for his home at Berne after a few days' stay here on business.

Trustee David Steele of Preble township was attending to some business in the city yesterday.

Mrs. James Stultz was at Monroe today, where she spent a short time with her daughter, Mrs. Glen Gandy.

Thomas Fisher left today for Rome City, where he will remain for several days looking after his cottage there.

F. V. Mills is taking a day's vacation from the grocery and is enjoying the picnic at Robinson park, Fort Wayne.

Dr. and Mrs. Connell and children and Miss Genevieve Berling came home today from Rome City after a several weeks' outing.

Miss Lilah Lachot and Miss Jessie Cook of Paragould, Ark., left this noon for Monroe, where they spent the afternoon with Miss Ada Foreman.

The Concord Lutheran Aid society will meet with Mrs. J. C. Evans next Wednesday, August 3rd, instead of with Mrs. F. A. Peoples as at first planned.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kuebler and daughter, Marcella, returned home this afternoon from Rome City where they had been enjoying a two weeks' vacation.

Miss Lucile Hale, stenographer for the Fort Wayne & Springfield railway company, is at St. Mary's, Ohio, where she is going over some books for John Koenig, one of the members of the company.

The Misses Bertha Kinney and Margaret Clark will leave Sunday on a two weeks' vacation at several places in Ohio. From here they will go to Lima and Delphos, where they will remain for a few days.

Glen, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Fisher, whose hand was badly crushed by being caught in a hay pulley July 4th, is recovering, and it is now thought that he will have the full and unimpaired use of the hand and finger.

A trolley pole at the interurban gravel pit caught fire Wednesday and it was necessary to turn off the power while putting out the fire, thus occasioning a slight loss of time in the runs. The damage was very little. Some straw around the pole caught fire, this in turn spreading to the pole.

The Misses Bertha Kinney and Margaret Clark will leave Sunday on a two weeks' vacation at several places in Ohio. From here they will go to Lima and Delphos, where they will remain for a few days.

Miss Clara Peters of Fort Wayne was in attendance at the German Reformed picnic at Maple Grove Park yesterday afternoon and visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peters.

Avery happy birthday celebration will be that of George Garard, whose fifty-fifth natal anniversary falls today. He will be the guest of honor at a family dinner party to be given this evening by his daughter, Mrs. Mont Fee, the guests being the members of both the Garard and Fee families.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Wertzberger and son of Chicago visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Wertzberger. Dennis returned this morning to Chicago, but Mrs. Wertzberger and son will remain for a week's visit.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Q. Neptune went to Rome City today to join other members of the Decatur party. Mrs. Neptune and babe had gone last Sunday with the others, but was obliged to return with the babe, who did not find the lake to its liking.

Miss Rose Tonnellier, who has been at Rome City for a two weeks' outing, became sick while there and was taken to the sanitarium, where she now is. She is not yet able to come home and will probably remain until next week.

Quite a great many Decatur people watched the unique electrical display in the southeast last night. The lightning, which was fiery red, flashed in almost continuous waves and gave the appearance of reflection of light in the heavens from a great conflagration. The lightning was accompanied without thunder.

Charles Barnhart, proprietor of a racket store at Attica, was here on night, the guest of relatives. Mr. Barnhart came from Bluffton where he bought some goods, and left this morning for Swayzee, where he will assist his father, Joshua Barnhart, in opening a new racket store at that place.

It was the intention to open next Saturday, but this will be necessarily postponed on account of delay in the stock shipment. Mr. Joshua Barnhart and daughter, Emily, are now at Swayzee, where they moved their household goods, but Mrs. Barnhart is here with her mother, the aged Mrs. John Barnett, who is very sick.

Prof. Paul Withaus left today for his home at Berne after a few days' stay here on business.

Trustee David Steele of Preble township was attending to some business in the city yesterday.

Mrs. James Stultz was at Monroe today, where she spent a short time with her daughter, Mrs. Glen Gandy.

Thomas Fisher left today for Rome City, where he will remain for several days looking after his cottage there.

F. V. Mills is taking a day's vacation from the grocery and is enjoying the picnic at Robinson park, Fort Wayne.

Dr. and Mrs. Connell and children and Miss Genevieve Berling came home today from Rome City after a several weeks' outing.

Miss Lilah Lachot and Miss Jessie Cook of Paragould, Ark., left this noon for Monroe, where they spent the afternoon with Miss Ada Foreman.

The Concord Lutheran Aid society will meet with Mrs. J. C. Evans next Wednesday, August 3rd, instead of with Mrs. F. A. Peoples as at first planned.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kuebler and daughter, Marcella, returned home this afternoon from Rome City where they had been enjoying a two weeks' vacation.

Miss Lucile Hale, stenographer for the Fort Wayne & Springfield railway company, is at St. Mary's, Ohio, where she is going over some books for John Koenig, one of the members of the company.

The Misses Bertha Kinney and Margaret Clark will leave Sunday on a two weeks' vacation at several places in Ohio. From here they will go to Lima and Delphos, where they will remain for a few days.

Miss Clara Peters of Fort Wayne was in attendance at the German Reformed picnic at Maple Grove Park yesterday afternoon and visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peters.

Avery happy birthday celebration will be that of George Garard, whose fifty-fifth natal anniversary falls today. He will be the guest of honor at a family dinner party to be given this evening by his daughter, Mrs. Mont Fee, the guests being the members of both the Garard and Fee families.

Dr. and Mrs. Dennis Wertzberger and son of Chicago visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Wertzberger. Dennis returned this morning to Chicago, but Mrs. Wertzberger and son will remain for a week's visit.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Q. Neptune went to Rome City today to join other members of the Decatur party. Mrs. Neptune and babe had gone last Sunday with the others, but was obliged to return with the babe, who did not find the lake to its liking.

Miss Rose Tonnellier, who has been at Rome City for a two weeks' outing, became sick while there and was taken to the sanitarium, where she now is. She is not yet able to come home and will probably remain until next week.

Quite a great many Decatur people watched the unique electrical display in the southeast last night. The lightning, which was fiery red, flashed in almost continuous waves and gave the appearance of reflection of light in the heavens from a great conflagration. The lightning was accompanied without thunder.

Charles Barnhart, proprietor of a racket store at Attica, was here on night, the guest of relatives. Mr. Barnhart came from Bluffton where he bought some goods, and left this morning for Swayzee, where he will assist his father, Joshua Barnhart, in opening a new racket store at that place.

It was the intention to open next Saturday, but this will be necessarily postponed on account of delay in the stock shipment. Mr. Joshua Barnhart and daughter, Emily, are now at Swayzee, where they moved their household goods, but Mrs. Barnhart is here with her mother, the aged Mrs. John Barnett, who is very sick.

Prof. Paul Withaus left today for his home at Berne after a few days' stay here on business.

Trustee David Steele of Preble township was attending to some business in the city yesterday.

Mrs. James Stultz was at Monroe today, where she spent a short time with her daughter, Mrs. Glen Gandy.

Thomas Fisher left today for Rome City, where he will remain for several days looking after his cottage there.

F. V. Mills is taking a day's vacation from the grocery and is enjoying the picnic at Robinson park, Fort Wayne.

Dr. and Mrs. Connell and children and Miss Genevieve Berling came home today from Rome City after a several weeks' outing.

Miss Lilah Lachot and Miss Jessie Cook of Paragould, Ark., left this noon for Monroe, where they spent the afternoon with Miss Ada Foreman.

The Concord Lutheran Aid society will meet with Mrs. J. C. Evans next Wednesday, August 3rd, instead of with Mrs. F. A. Peoples as at first planned.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kuebler and daughter, Marcella, returned home this afternoon from Rome City where they had been enjoying a two weeks' vacation.

Miss Lucile Hale, stenographer for the Fort Wayne & Springfield railway company, is at St. Mary's, Ohio, where she is going over some books for John Koenig, one of the members of the company.

The Misses Bertha Kinney and Margaret Clark will leave Sunday on a two weeks' vacation at several places in Ohio. From here they will go to Lima and Delphos, where they will remain for a few days.

Miss Clara Peters of Fort Wayne was in attendance at the German Reformed picnic at Maple Grove Park yesterday afternoon and visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peters.

Avery happy birthday celebration will be that of George Garard, whose fifty-fifth natal anniversary falls today. He will be the guest of honor at a family dinner party to be given this evening by his daughter, Mrs. Mont Fee, the guests being the members of both the Garard and Fee families.

Dr. and Mrs. Dennis Wertzberger and son of Chicago visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Wertzberger. Dennis returned this morning to Chicago, but Mrs. Wertzberger and son will remain for a week's visit.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Q. Neptune went to Rome City today to join other members of the Decatur party. Mrs. Neptune and babe had gone last Sunday with the others, but was obliged to return with the babe, who did not find the lake to its liking.

Miss Rose Tonnellier, who has been at Rome City for a two weeks' outing, became sick while there and was taken to the sanitarium, where she now is. She is not yet able to come home and will probably remain until next week.

Quite a great many Decatur people watched the unique electrical display in the southeast last night. The lightning, which was fiery red, flashed in almost continuous waves and gave the appearance of reflection of light in the heavens from a great conflagration. The lightning was accompanied without thunder.