ARE MAKING PLANS

will hold his meeting in the Second district at Vincennes August 6th. The meeting in the Third will be held at New Albany, August 8th, called by Chairman Mark Storen. The Fourth district meeting will be held at North Vernon, August 12th. Francis M. Griffith is chairman. Chairman Peter Foley will call the Fifth district meeting for August 16th at Terre Haute. In the Sixth district, Chairman John Osborn "beat the committee to it." He has already called and held one of the meetings and has obtained good results. Announcement of the dates in the Seventh and Eighth districts was deferred. The Ninth district meeting is also a matter of history. W. E. Longley, chairman of that district, presided over such a meeting recently at Lebanon. The Tenth district meeting will be held at Gary, August 20th, and will be called by Chairman Charles Murphy. The Eleventh district will announce a date later and the Twelfth district has already held a meeting at Fort Wayne, where the chairman, E. G. Hoffman, entertained his guests at a banquet. Chairman Peter Krueger will hold the Thirteenth district meeting at Plymouth, August 19th.

HE LIKED IT.

Bobo, Ind., July 27, 1910.

Mr. John Didot, Decatur, Ind.:

Dear Sir:—I feel that I owe you a letter of recommendation for the work that you did on our Cuckoo clock that you recently cleaned for us. After four weeks of trial it has proven satisfactory and I am convinced that the work was thorough and done by one who understands his business in his line.

We are perfectly satisfied and recommend him to any one in need of clock or watch repair or cleaning.

Yours,
D. A. J. BROWN,
Pastor Bobo Circuit.
