The Des Moines Daily News, a strongly progressive paper, bitterly assails Colonel Roosevelt in an editorial for what is termed his treachery in indorsing the tariff bill, President Taft and Ballinger in the New York convention. The editorial in part is as follows:

"Let's cut out the red fire and the leather lungs and go back to the patient, dogged fighting of real insurgents. Listen to that T. R.-built New York platform. It says:

"We enthusiastically indorse Taft. Each month since his inauguration has confirmed the nation in his high estimate, of his greatness of character, etc.

"Rot. It may have confirmed Roosevelt's high estimate of Taft, but it hasn't confirmed the nation's. Look at the record of those eighteen months.

"Taft ran a fake republican convention in Wisconsin to beat LaFollette.

"Taft tried the patronage club on Bristow.

"Taft excommunicated Cummins.

"Taft fired Pinchot.

"Taft put Lurton on the supreme bench.

"Taft stood for Morgan's Wicker-sham railroad bill and tried to club Cummins into voting for it.

"Taft fought Poindexter at home.

"Taft bargained with Cannon and Aldrich; helped their friends and hamstrung their foes, though the foes were good party men.

"If that record confirms any estimate of Taft that was held in 1908, then Roosevelt knew he gold-bricked the nation when he handed it the judicial temperament package."

The editorial also says that insurgency fared extremely well and along well conducted lines while Roosevelt was in Africa. It says there is no room in the insurgent camp for Roosevelt. LaFollette and Cummins, and intimates matters would have been much more pleasant all around if Roosevelt had remained in Africa.

We will all rejoice in the good news that Congressman Adair is convalescing, and his physician has promised that by next Tuesday he will be able to join the multitudes of Jay county citizens who upon that day will be privileged to hear Governor Marshall speak upon the political issues of the campaign. He will doubtless rapidly recover from this time on. His campaign for re-election has by no means lagged and in a very short time he will be able to take up the affairs of his campaign where he left off, and there is no question but that his majority will be a handsome tribute to a deserving public man.

Hon. John W. Kern will be in Decatur Saturday evening and will speak on the issues of the hour at the court room. Any inquisitive ones who may desire to inquire about the "mysterious eight" are welcome.

Jump in and help yourself to the gravy. By way of suggestion, however, we might add that it will not be necessary to ask him how old the average soldier will have to be before they receive more money in their envelope, providing Senator Beveridge works as hard for them during the next twelve years as he has in the last twelve years. It will not be necessary to ask him where he stands on all the schedules in the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, he will tell you. It will not be necessary to ask him as to where he stands when it comes to voting money out of the national treasury and handing it over to the great ship building interests, and which is known in congress and the world over as the ship subsidy. Senator Beveridge stands for this graft. Ask John Kern anything you want to, and we assure you now, no offense will be taken.

Has any one ever heard Senator Beveridge say a word against government extravagance. Has he ever voted against even one of the monstrous appropriation bills passed through congress since he has been senator? Of course not. He has not had time to think about such small things. When he entered the senate nearly twelve years ago the government was spending $500,000,000 a year. It is now spending twice that sum, or eleven hundred million dollars. And every dollar of this enormous expenditure is taken from the pockets of the people by taxation. Even Standpatter Aldrich declares that the government is spending three hundred million dollars more than is necessary each year, but Beveridge has been so busy posing as the professional "friend of the people" that he has had no room in his thoughts for little things of this class.

The tariff and the high cost of living. By way of suggestion, however, we might add that it will not be necessary to ask him how old the average soldier will have to be before they receive more money in their envelope, providing Senator Beveridge works as hard for them during the next twelve years as he has in the last twelve years. It will not be necessary to ask him where he stands on all the schedules in the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, he will tell you. It will not be necessary to ask him as to where he stands when it comes to voting money out of the national treasury and handing it over to the great ship building interests, and which is known in congress and the world over as the ship subsidy. Senator Beveridge stands for this graft. Ask John Kern anything you want to, and we assure you now, no offense will be taken.

Mrs. Nancy Bright, G. H. Bright and wife, H. M. Beery and wife and daughter, Beulah, returned today from Elgin, Ill., where they attended the marriage of J. Floyd Bright to Miss Hulda Audrey Rumpf of Streator, Ill. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few friends and relatives by the Rev. Charles Gage of the Methodist church at the home of Mr. Willis Landis, 316 N. Worth avenue, Mrs. Landis being a sister of the groom. Mr. Bright will be remembered by many as the youngest son of the late Joshua Bright of Kirkland township, he having left here about two years ago for Elgin, where he holds a good position with Landers & Collins Co., a large shoe firm. Miss Rumpf is a beautiful young lady who makes friends wherever she goes. She visited her sister, Mrs. Sikes, of Preble on various occasions and her friends here are many. May happiness and prosperity be theirs is the wish of all.
