HE IS COMING

TO INDIANA

"It is particularly important all moneys received or expended for campaign purposes should be publicly accounted for not only after election but before election as well."—Mr. Roosevelt in Kansas, 1910.

In view of which it is recalled that on October 1, 1904, the New York World asked Mr. Roosevelt the following questions which he has failed, up to the present time, to answer:

1. How much has the Beef Trust contributed to Mr. Cortelyou?
2. How much has the Paper Trust contributed to Mr. Cortelyou?
3. How much has the Coal Trust contributed to Mr. Cortelyou?
4. How much has the Sugar Trust contributed to Mr. Cortelyou?
5. How much has the Oil Trust contributed to Mr. Cortelyou?
6. How much has the Tobacco Trust contributed to Mr. Cortelyou?
7. How much has the Steel Trust contributed to Mr. Cortelyou?
8. How much has the Insurance Trust contributed to Mr. Cortelyou?
9. How much have the national banks contributed to Mr. Cortelyou? 10. How much have the six great railroad trusts contributed to Mr. Cortelyou?

Mr. Cortelyou was then chairman of the republican national committee and had been chosen for that place at Mr. Roosevelt's personal request. It is the same Cortelyou who, as secretary of the treasury in Roosevelt's cabinet in 1907 turned the United States treasury over to J. Pierpont Morgan to "save the country."

Hon. John W. Kern will speak at the court room in this city on Saturday evening. Mr. Kern is having great receptions everywhere and he is talking straight from the shoulder. Senator Beveridge is spending the most of his time answering the charges being made by the democratic nominee for senator, but his answers are so evasive that they fail to answer.

Republican papers are clouding the air with the declaration that Uncle Joe Cannon will not be a candidate for re-election as a speaker of the house. Cannon answers with the declaration that he will stand for speaker again. If he is not chosen, then, of course, the standpat majority will select a man just as regular as Cannon, but not as unpopular, and have him their candidate. With a republican majority he would become speaker and with a democratic house he would simply get a complimentary vote.—Columbia City Post.

PLEASANT VALLEY NEWS.

We are having some nice weather now—just the right kind for corn cutting.

Roy Hook returned home Wednesday, September 28th, after a two weeks' visit with his brother and family. Furman lives near Clayton, Mich. He says Michigan is a fine country. We wonder if it beats Indiana.

The picnic which was to have been held at Monroe September 24th, was postponed on account of rain.

The funeral of Mrs. Sharsberg was held at Salem church Tuesday, September 27th. She died suddenly.

Mrs. Emma Hook was visiting with her friend, Mrs. Ada Stodgill, on September 25th.

Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at Pleasant Valley church.

Miss Osa Durbin is working at the home of Tom Bess.

Mrs. Susan Martz is on the sick list.

Everybody seems to be real busy blading cane this week.

Mrs. Emma Hook and daughter, Rosa, were visiting at the home of Mr. Quigley on last Sunday. They report a good time.

There will be preaching at the Pleasant Valley church on October 9th.

MISSIONARY MEETING

At Home of Mrs. W. H. Lee a Pleasant One—Ladies Visit in Hoagland.

A Happy Thought.

I think the people make their names nice or ugly just by what they are themselves. * * * Live so that you beautify your name, even if it wasn't beautiful to begin with, making it stand in people's thoughts for something so lovely and pleasant that they never think of it by itself.—L. M. Montgomery.

CLUB CALENDAR FOR WEEK.

Thursday. Florhul de Purin—Florine Edwards. C. W. B. M.—Mrs. A. D. Artman. Baptist Aid—Mrs. John Moser. Friday. Thimble Club—Mrs. Dan Vail. Christian Aid—Mrs. C. J. Weaver. Saturday. Loyal Heart Club—Irene Eady.

A very delightful day was that of Wednesday for a large number of the members of the aid societies of the Concord and Antioch Lutheran churches, who were entertained at the home of their pastor by his wife, Mrs. A. K. Mumma, at her home in Hoagland. The Concord ladies drove to Hoagland, where they spent the entire day, the pastor's wife serving a sumptuous dinner at noon, two large tables being spread in the dining room. In the afternoon the ladies of the Antioch Lutheran church assembled, and the regular business and social period was held. Those from this city attending were Mrs. John Christen, Mrs. Mary Houk and Mrs. Reuben Lord and daughter, Naomi; those from Monmouth were Mesdames E. S. Christen, R. K. Fleming, Dwight Wilder, Charles Johnson, Charles S. S. and John Magley, Oscar and Al Fritzinger, L. N. Grandstaff, C. D. Kunkel, Reuben Baxter, Clark, John Evans, W. A. Fonner, Louis and Sam Houk.

Mrs. R. M. Donaldson and niece, Miss Adda Donaldson, of Warsaw, and a niece, Mrs. C. A. Burnett, of Chanute, Kansas, are guests of their sister and aunt, Mrs. Daniel Sprang.

Fred Jaebker was in attendance Wednesday at the wedding of Miss Mayme Lahmeyer to Mr. Henry Hartman, which was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the German Lutheran church five miles south of Fort Wayne, by the Revs. Franke and Stock. After the church ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents near Fort Wayne, a large number of guests attending.

The rain of Wednesday did not dampen the true missionary spirit of the Presbyterian missionary ladies who sallied forth in brave numbers to the home of Mrs. W. H. Lee, where a very profitable meeting was held. A very good missionary paper was given by Mrs. Dr. Beavers, and the round table discussion was conducted by Miss Laura Alban. Following this there was a social period with music by Miss Florence Sprunger, the hostess serving refreshments, and the afternoon was a most delightful one in all respects.

At a regular meeting of the Shakespeare club Wednesday afternoon at the home of J. W. Tyndall, the Bay View Reading course on China was taken up, the next ten weeks to be devoted to China. The paper, "Early Days in Chinese History," was given by the hostess. Mrs. Boyers will be hostess next Wednesday.

The dance given Wednesday evening by the C. B. L. of I. at their hall was a success, and a large attendance was present until a late hour. Excellent music was furnished by Barney Wertzberger and John Wemhoff, who gave complete satisfaction.

The Loyal Heart club of the Christian church will meet at the home of Miss Irene Eady of South Tenth street Saturday afternoon and all members are requested to be present.

Mrs. Dr. Templeton of Geneva is the guest of Mrs. Dr. Mangold.

FOR SALE—House and lot on South Sixth street. Inquire of Daniel Sprang. 230430
