

THE FAIR

Invites all fair minded people to call at the FAIR STORE first door north of Schafer's hardware store, to examine the fair prices on their goods. We will deal fair with you, whether you be man, woman or child. Just give us a fair chance and see how fair we will use you. THE FAIR has just received a large line of dishes and at fair prices, also ladies hand bags, jewelry of every description, that are fair to look at and still fairer to possess. Hundreds of other things that THE FAIR might mention that can be found at THE FAIR. If you want to be fair to THE FAIR just come to THE FAIR and see how fair they will use you.

RECEIVES INJURIES.

Louis Weis Fell From Ladder While at Work in Lumber Yard.

Louis Weis, an employee of the Kirsch & Sellemyer Lumber company, met with an accident while engaged in work there about 11 o'clock Wednesday noon, and as a result will be compelled to lay off from duty for some time. He was filling a bill of lumber in the yards, and went up a ladder to a landing, a distance of about twelve feet. When he started down the ladder slipped from his footing, and each went in opposite directions, causing Mr. Weis to fall with his weight on his arm, receiving severe injuries. One of the bones was broken, and the leaders were torn, making a very sore arm. He will be detained from his work some time.

HOME FROM INDIANAPOLIS.

Herbert Lachot Takes Pharmaceutical Examination.

Herbert Lachot, who early in the week went to Indianapolis, where he took the pharmaceutical examination, has returned to the city and feels in good spirits as to the examination which he took. It will probably be a couple of weeks before Mr. Lachot will receive information regarding his test, and his friends are hoping that he was successful in it.
