This week's meeting of the Shakespeare club was held with Mrs. R. K. Allison, the hostess having an interesting paper on "The Rise of Manchus," continuing the study of China.

Mrs. Florence DeVilbiss and daughter, Mrs. Fanny Cole; Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bell and daughter, Pansy, were guests at tea at the C. D. Kunkel home at Monmouth Thursday evening.

Pearl, Elmer and Pliny Lyon, Doris DeVoss, Gertrude and Mildred Yager enjoyed a marshmallow toast Thursday evening at the Lyon home.

Miss Irene Garard entertained Miss Mary Colchin at dinner.

Twenty were in attendance at the meeting of the Baptist Aid society at the home of Mrs. Henry Winnes Thursday afternoon, the meeting being an unusually good one. The collection amounted to $3.65. The ladies have arranged for a chicken supper to be given two weeks from yesterday, Thursday, November 3, beginning at 5 o'clock at the home of the pastor, the Rev. Ehle, on Monroe street. In the evening the ladies will hold their dollar social, giving their experience in earning the dollar, which each pledged herself to do in a given time.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brodbeck and family and Harvey Shell and sister, Clara, made a trip to Dull, Ohio, where they called on Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Shell and were royally entertained. After a bounteous dinner they passed the afternoon in a social way, with plenty of music for the children.

Martin Schlickman, Miss Huldah Loser of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ashbacher and son and Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson of Bluffton spent a very enjoyable day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wagoner. They arrived about 11 o'clock and spent a short while in chatting and then came dinner—and you all know how well pleased city people are when they can seat themselves comfortably at some farmer's well-filled table. The afternoon was spent in taking a look about the Wagoner home and farm.

Miss Inez Coverdale entertained the girls of the Flohr de Parin club at her home Thursday evening, the girls bringing their sewing, which occupied their time, together with games, singing and other music, before the serving of a lunch by the hostess. Miss Flora Fledderjohann will be hostess next week.

The Thimble club with other guests including Mrs. E. B. Parker of Hartford City, Mrs. Otto Haubold of Chicago, Mrs. Balch of Terre Haute, Miss Gertrude Moses and Mrs. W. L. Lehe of this city, enjoyed a pleasant afternoon over their needlework Thursday with Miss Midge Smith as hostess.

REMARKABLE TOUR

ances of this fact, although they are hardly needed. These assurances are the result of Governor Marshall's first speech in which he told the people that he would take the trouble to put the question to the legislative candidates in Marion county, and advised the people of every other county to do the same.

The democratic candidates in Marion county responded promptly, pledging themselves, if elected, to vote for Mr. Kern. As he travels throughout the state in his speaking tour, Mr. Kern is receiving the pledges of all the democratic legislative candidates that they will support him for the United States senate in the event of their election.

OBITUARY.

Dora Hunt was born in Ireland, October 24, 1838, and departed this life September 27, 1910, aged 71 years, 11 months and 30 days. When but a child she moved with her parents to Scotland, where she grew to womanhood. At the age of twenty-one she came to Canada, where she was united in marriage to John Shosenburg August 6, 1861. To this union were born six children: Sarah, Maggie and George, who preceded her in death; John, residing at Akron, Ohio; William, at Jamestown, N. Y., and George who is left at home with the bereaved husband and father to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother. She was a member of the M. E. church, lived a devoted Christian life and was loved by all who knew her. Her place will be missed in the community where she lived as well as by her dear ones that mourn her loss. Call not back the dear departed. Anchored safe where storms are o'er. On the border land we left them. Soon to meet and part no more.

When we leave this world of changes,
When we leave this world of care,
We shall find our missing loved ones,
In our Father's mansion fair.

The remains were taken to Kent, Ohio, her former home, September 29th, and the funeral was held Friday at 2 o'clock from the residence of her niece, Mrs. Charles Ackworth, Rev. William Washington, officiating. Beautiful selections were sung by Misses Julia Sawyer and Lura Newbury. Many floral designs covered the casket as the remains were carried to their last resting place in Kent's beautiful city of the dead, Standing Rock cemetery, her three sons, two grandsons and a nephew serving as pall bearers.

Shipment of gold fish just received—ten cents apiece—Baughman five and ten cent store.

AN OPEN LETTER.

To the Voters of Adams County:—

I regret very much that I have not been able to see you personally during the campaign. I began my work early, fully expecting to visit and speak in practically every township in the district, but a six weeks siege of typhoid fever has made it impossible for me to do so.

I trust however, my illness has not endangered my chances for re-election, but that my friends have done for me, even more than I could have done for myself. I have striven hard during the past four years to render valuable service to the people of this district, and I believe the fight I have made against the trusts, special interests, Wall Street plunderers, and also against extravagance in public expenditures has met the approval of men of all parties. I know I am better qualified now to render excellent service than ever before, and if re-elected my highest ambition will be to so act and to so do, that no one will have cause to regret it.

Thanking you for the splendid vote given me two years ago, and for what I feel sure you will do on November 8th, I beg to remain,

Very Truly Yours

J. A. M. ADAIR.

MR. DIDOT IS GRATEFUL.

I take the first opportunity of expressing my sincere thanks to my many customers, having just finished the largest month of clock and watch repairing I ever experienced in forty years in the jewelry business. I fully appreciate the extremely pleasant business relations which have existed between us. I credit all of my success to the liberal patronage the people have extended me, especially those from Monroe and the section east of there, and the people north of Decatur. I want to thank each and every one. Remember me when you want work done in the future or wish anything in the jewelry line. My experience makes my work easy. I have the goods.
DIDOT,
