THE SOCIAL NOTES

key, Henry and Louis Yake, Ralph Shady, Martin Gahman.

The sauer-kraut dinner and supper given by the Dorcas Daughters in the Niblick building south of this office was well patronized and everybody was loud in the praise of the excellent German dinner served. The ladies used the new gas burner through the courtesy of Mr. Andrews, who demonstrated the same there, and were delighted with the success of it. They took the corn bread and cooked the other things for the dinner on it, and it proved to be just all that could be desired.

The Presbyterian ladies have changed the day of their meeting this month from Tuesday to Friday of this week, when Mrs. J. C. Patterson will be hostess. The study will begin at 2:30 o'clock, and as there are unusually important business matters to come before the society at this meeting, all members are especially urged to come. Mrs. Schrock will have charge of the study which will be on "Religious Development," and Miss Laura Alban will conduct the round table talks on "Mormon Fields."

A party of about thirty of his friends took possession of the Loyal Woods home Saturday evening and were waiting to greet him upon his return from his work at the Page Blackburn drug store. The surprise was a most complete one, nevertheless the victim recovered in time to thoroughly enjoy the good time, with contests, games and music, etc., as features of a delightful entertainment.

A company of relatives were enjoyably entertained Sunday at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hurst, which is one of the most hospitable homes in the city. The company included Mr. and Mrs. Albert Katterheinrich and son, Hubert, of South Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fisher, Mrs. Sarah Fisher, Will Hurst and family, Jesse Hurst and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart and son, Meredith, and Mr. and Mrs. George Steele motored to the home of Mr. Steele's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Steele west of the city Sunday afternoon. They were accompanied to the city in the evening by Miss Cora Steele who will visit at the home of her brother in this city.

The Aid society of the German Reformed church will be entertained tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Oscar Fritzinger at Monmouth. All those desiring to go should be at the parsonage by 1 o'clock, where they will be met with hacks.

The Lucky Twelve of the German Reformed church are arranging to give a noodle dinner November 5th in the Niblick building, where they gave their chicken dinner a short time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. David Gates and daughter, Lilly, motored from Wren, Ohio, and spent Sunday as guests of John Everett and family.

Mrs. Andrew Moyer entertained Sunday at dinner, guests being Mrs. Fred Snyder, of Fort Wayne, Mrs. Pat Wilhelm and daughter, Reba.

Superintendent E. E. Rice is at home from Valparaiso, where he attended the annual meeting of the Superintendent's club of North and Central Indiana, held last Friday. There was a large attendance, some good addresses and papers, plenty to eat, and a good time. The club will meet next year at Crawfordsville.

REIGN OF TRUSTS

And How it Has Increased the Cost of Living in This Country.

FIGURES ARE GIVEN
That Should Awaken Every Citizen of This Section to Real Facts.

DEMOCRATIC NEWS BUREAU,
325 Pythian Building.
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 24—(Special to Daily Democrat)—The republican party has been in complete control of every department of the government since 1896—president, senate and house of representatives. They have given the people of the United States a government, not of the people, but of the trusts—beef trust, flour trust, clothing trust, sugar trust, and the "daddy of them all," the tariff trust.

Out of this reign of trusts has come the high cost of living. A few campaign jokers have tried to pervert this phrase into the "cost of high living." But the American people were not in a mood for such jokes, and the attempt was quickly abandoned.

Facts, such as are shown in the following tables, are too close to the American pocketbook. The people know that the cost of living has doubled—and that there has been no sympathetic effect upon their wages. In 1896 a provision bill for two weeks ran about $8.28. The same bill today costs $15.60. Voters can judge from the items whether indulging in these things they are guilty of "high living."

1896.
Two pounds salt pork ..... $1.10
Five pounds pork chops ..... .50
Five pounds pork ribs ..... .30
Four pounds smoked shoulder ..... .30
Two pounds sausage ..... .15
Five pounds lard ..... .35
Five pounds corned beef ..... .25
Four pounds butter ..... .40
Two dozen eggs ..... .20
One pound cheese ..... .13
One barrel flour ..... .35
Four pounds chicken ..... .40
Twenty-one pounds sugar ..... 1.00
Two pounds steak ..... .20
Five pounds roast beef ..... .50

Total ..... $8.28
This same bill costs double in 1910.

Two pounds pork ..... $1.40
Five pounds pork chops ..... 1.25
Five pounds pork ribs ..... .75
Four pounds smoked shoulder ..... .54
Two pounds sausage ..... .35
Five pounds lard ..... .85
Five pounds corned beef ..... .63
Four pounds butter ..... 1.20
Two dozen eggs ..... .50
One pound cheese ..... .25
One barrel flour ..... 5.65
Four pounds chicken ..... .72
Twenty-one pounds sugar ..... 1.16
Two pounds steak ..... .35
Five pounds roast beef ..... 1.00

Total ..... $15.60

These tables have been carefully prepared and are reliable. Your table bill has doubled; have your wages doubled? You pay 100 per cent more for your clothing, blankets and household goods; has your salary kept pace? Your rent is higher and your fuel is higher; how much higher is your weekly wage check?

What is responsible?

In order that there may be no charge of unfairness, the reply comes from the lips of the leader of the republican insurgents, Senator Robert M. LaFollette. This is what he says: "This bill (Payne-Aldrich tariff) increases the cost of living in every home in the land."

Senator Clapp, another of the republican insurgents, agrees.

He says: "This new tariff law has cost, and is costing the American people millions on millions of dollars in increased cost of living. And if the Payne-Aldrich bill had been beaten, those millions would have been saved by the people."

After fourteen years of control, the republican party admits that it perpetrated this final outrage upon the American people—and it wants another chance! And this on top of the promise made in the last campaign that the tariff should be revised downward.

Misses Lettie and Marie Kintz and Mrs. A. W. Garard drove to Willshire, O., yesterday, where the Misses Kintz were guests at the Snellen home and Mrs. Garard visited with her sister, Mrs. Charles Geisler. Miss Lettie and Mrs. Garard returned last evening but Miss Marie remained for a longer visit.

DIED AT HIS SHOP

Coroner Grandstaff. The general opinion is that an attack of heart trouble caused the young man to fall as he started down the steps, as there was nothing about the fall which would have caused death.

ABOUT THE SICK.

Mrs. Charles Melbers was called to Louisville, Ky., Saturday night by the illness of her brother-in-law, Theodore Droppleman. Mr. Droppleman is a very sick man, and his condition for the past few days has not been so good, he being unable to sit up, as he had been a few days prior. Mrs. Joe Tonner, who had accompanied her mother, Mrs. Margaret Melbers, there, was called home by the illness of her daughter, Rose.

M. and Mrs. L. W. Coppock and two children left today for Attica. Mrs. Coppock goes to take the treatment at the sanitarium again, and her little daughter, Louise, who has been suffering from infantile paralysis and is still unable to use her lower limbs, will also be given the treatment in the hopes of a more speedy recovery.

Mrs. Magdalena Bremerkamp who has been very low for some time was much worse this morning and her children and grandchildren were summoned to her beside as death was feared momentarily. She later improved but it was feared that she could not survive the day. Mrs. Bremerkamp makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. E. X. Ehinger.

Henry Bowman of Monmouth, by mistake, took a tablespoonful of salt-peter Sunday morning instead of salts and for a while was in a rather serious condition, the services of Dr. C. S. Clark of this city being called. He is improved today to such an extent that he is able to go to work.

ANDREW ZESER BABE DEAD.

The little son born last Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Zeser in the south part of the city, died Sunday morning and the funeral was held this afternoon from the home. Only a few weeks ago the little daughter, Margaret, died and the home is again grief-stricken.

BOX SOCIAL.

The box social which was to have taken place on last Friday evening at the fourth district school house in Root township, and which was postponed on account of the bad weather, will be held on Tuesday evening of this week, rain or shine. All are invited to attend.
