HOW TO VOTE FOR KERN.

If you desire to vote for John W. Kern for United States senator, vote for Jacob Butcher, the democratic candidate for the legislature, whose name will be found on your county ballot. If elected, he will vote for Mr. Kern in the legislature. Mr. Kern's name will NOT APPEAR ON THE BALLOT.

The existing laws provide that United States senators shall be elected by the legislature. If this body is democratic, it will elect Mr. Kern. You can cast a vote for him only by voting for the legislative candidate in your own county.

VOTE FOR BUTCHER.

THE OLD

SOLDIER'S VOTE

Realizing that the old soldier of Indiana as well as of every other state in the Union has tired of waiting for the republicans to enact pension laws that will in some small portion repay them in their old age for the days spent in battling for their country and nights spent in beds of dampness, when their bodies were infected with germs of disease that have shortened their lives and racked them with pain and suffering for the many years since the Civil war closed, the republican spellbinders have this year, in a frantic effort to save themselves and their party from the defeat that will come as sure as November 8th, have been arguing the pension question and arguing it falsely. A favorite question of theirs is: "What can you old soldiers expect from sons of Confederate soldiers?" The inference that southern representatives have voted against pension legislation is as false as it is contemptible. During the last ten years over 20,000 pension bills have been passed by congress and not a single democratic member, either from the north or south, ever voted against these bills. Two years ago, when the widows' pension bill was passed, every democratic member, from both north and south of the Mason and Dixon line, voted for it. Does the democrats favor pension laws that will help the veteran or his widow?

Another statement that republican speakers are making is that every line of pension legislation on our statute books was placed there by the republicans. This is another one that Roosevelt would use a "shorter and uglier" phrase to deny. The list of pension bills passed by democratic congresses is a long one, and they are good laws that have always been satisfactory. Before the election we expect to call the attention of the soldiers and their friends to some of these. With reference to the dollar-a-day pension law we wish to say that unless the congress now being elected is overwhelmingly republican, which does not seem likely at this time, that law will be passed, for the democrats have always favored it, do so now, and if the republicans had been half as sincere, it would now be a law. No man who is honest can say that our congressman, John A. M. Adair, with his splendid record, has not voted with the soldier, and done all in his power in his behalf. He is entitled to your support.

School men of the state are pleased to learn that Charles Greathouse, democratic candidate for superintendent of public instruction, has announced that when he is elected he will retain Elmer Bunnell and Huffman as his assistants in the office. These men have proven their ability under Robert J. Ale, whose administration of the office is recognized as the most efficient the state has had in the past thirty-five years and as Mr. Greathouse intends to conduct the office along the lines laid down by Mr. Ale.

Bonnell and Huffman will be well fitted to assist him. No branch of the activities of the state official family is more fundamentally important than that which has charge of the schools, the training grounds for the state's future citizens, and it is of primal importance that Greathouse be elected in order that he may have the assistance of men trained by the greatest school man in the state in carrying out his policies. Mr. Ale will retire from the office the first of December to take up his studies at the head of the University of Maine.—Columbia City Post.

If any democrat happens to say that Roosevelt "called United States Judge A. B. Anderson, a "damned jack-ass and a crook," the republican press will probably call it mud-slinging. Still it has been used from coast to coast, and Teddy the great has not even denied it. In fact he refuses to deny it. Fine language for an ex-president to be using.

John W. Kern, the able lawyer and the man whom more people of Indiana would like to see wearing the senatorial toga than any other citizen of this great state, will fully appreciate every vote cast for a man who will vote for him and will prove it by giving all his time to accomplishing those things which will be to your greatest interest.

WHEN SUCH ABLE, CONSCIENTIOUS, CHRISTIAN MEN AS GOVERNOR MARSHALL AND WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN ADVISE YOU TO VOTE FOR MEN WHO WILL SUPPORT JOHN W. KERN FOR THE SENATE, YOU MAY FEEL SAFE IN DOING SO. HIS ELECTION TO THE SENATE AT THIS TIME MEANS MUCH FOR EVERY CITIZEN OF INDIANA. DON'T ALLOW YOURSELF TO BE MISLED. VOTE FOR JACOB BUTCHER FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

John W. Kern will be the next United States senator from Indiana. Jacob Butcher will vote for him. We believe those two facts as firmly as we believe anything, but we want such a majority for Mr. Butcher that there will be no doubt in the minds of any man, as to the endorsement of Mr. Kern. Get to work. Organize. Roll in a vote that will do this. You democrats have been fighting this battle for half a century. Don't let any slippery politician fool you either by his words or those of some one he sends to you, to do otherwise. Our time is at hand.

Jacob Butcher, a pioneer of the county, a veteran of the Civil war, a respected citizen here long before most of us voters were born, is the democratic nominee for representative, and we know of no man in this great county who has a better right to ask the suffrage of the voters of the county and get it. He is a jovial

WITH THE CANDIDATES

ANDREW A. ADAMS, for Appellate Judge, Northern District.

Andrew A. Adams of Columbia City served as a member of the Indiana legislature in 1891 and has since not been a candidate for any office. He is a life-long friend and former neighbor of Governor Marshall. He is one of the original "Marshall men." For several years he has been a trustee of Purdue University, and is now vice president of the board.

CHARLES E. COX, For Supreme Judge, Third District.

Judge Charles E. Cox of Indianapolis is no stranger to the Supreme Court. Years ago he was associated with Judge W. E. Niblick of that court, later becoming librarian and general assistant to the Supreme Court. He has held positions of honor and trust in Indianapolis and has acquitted himself with credit to himself and honor to his party. He was born on a farm in Hamilton county.

kind-hearted, splendid man, whom everybody likes and who has the necessary ability to represent us in the law-making halls as we should be. He has practiced law for many years and knows good laws from bad ones. He should be elected by an overwhelming majority.

Democratic headquarters will be open from this time on until after the election. You are invited to call at any time, to talk over the situation, to meet your friends and to hear the addresses that will be made from time to time by the various workers. Dan Erwin, the county chairman, has a box of cigars on hand all the time and will be glad to greet you with one in each hand. COME UP TONIGHT AND GET A CIGAR.

True Rest.

Rest is not quitting
The busy career;
Rest is the fitting
Of self to one's sphere.

'Tis loving and serving
The highest and best;
'Tis onward, unswerving,
And this is true rest.

—Goethe.

Miss Martha Bultemeier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bultemeier, of Root township, was one of the beautiful and happy brides of October, her wedding to Mr. Adolph Schammerloh, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schammerloh, of Union township, taking place Sunday afternoon at the St. John's Lutheran church near Bingen. The ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock by the pastor, the Rev. H. C. Jaus, in the presence of a large concourse of friends. Very lovely always, the bride was even more so on her wedding day. She wore a creamy
