HOW TO VOTE FOR KERN.

■ If you desire to vote for John W. Kern for United States senator, vote for Jacob Butcher, the democratic candidate for the legislature, whose name will be found on your county ballot. If elected, he will vote for Mr. Kern in the legislature. Mr. Kern's name will NOT APPEAR ON THE BALLOT.
 The existing laws provide that United States senators shall be elected by the legislature. If this body is democratic, it will elect Mr. Kern. You can cast a vote for him only by voting for the legislative candidate in your own county.
VOTE FOR BUTCHER.

John W. Kern is still canvassing the state and he is making a great campaign, clean, yet logical are his arguments and the voter must surely realize the interest he will have in his welfare if elected. Vote for John Kern, than whom Indiana has no nobler men. He has had sufficient experience. He has always been close to the laboring man, the business man, the farmer, the teacher, and knows what laws will help you.

IF JOHN W. KERN BECOMES UNITED STATES SENATOR, AND THAT IS THE HOPE OF THOUSANDS OF VOTERS IN INDIANA, HE MUST BE CHOSEN BY THE REPRESENTATIVES AND SENATORS OF INDIANA IN JOINT SESSION. IT IS THEREFORE MOST IMPORTANT THAT WE ELECT DEMOCRATS THIS YEAR TO ACCOMPLISH THIS BIG PURPOSE, AND THE MOST IMPORTANT TO ALL OF US THIS YEAR. FILL THE SENATE WITH MEN LIKE JOHN W. KERN, CLEAN AND ABLE, AND YOU WILL DO AWAY WITH MANY OF THE LOCAL QUESTIONS. VOTE THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET STRAIGHT THIS YEAR OF ALL YEARS.

And now some of the brethren are loudly asseverating that Mr. Roosevelt is not in the campaign here in Indiana in any sense of the word. But how long ago was it that we were jubilantly assured that his "progress" through the state would mean ten thousand votes for the party? Well, he came and made several speeches, in which he could not find time to mention President Taft, nor to say a word for the issue on which Senator Beveridge is making his appeal for votes; coarsely abused the federal judge at Indianapolis; ended up with the funny fiasco at the home town of his most famous adorer, and now—he is not in the campaign anyway!—Indianapolis News.

A democratic congress in 1895 abolished the rates of two and four dollars and fixed the lowest rate of pension at six dollars per month; an act of February 12, 1889, granted an increase in pensions from $72 per month to $100 to all persons who lost both hands in the service; in 1888 they increased the pension where deafness was the cause; June 7, 1888, they passed a law granting arrears to widows from date of death of the husband, affecting 200,000 widows; act of March 19, 1886, democratic congress, increased widows' pensions from $8.00 to $12.00 per month, affecting about 80,000 widows; 1879, granted arrears of pensions from date of discharge, benefitting more than 225,000 pensioners, though the republicans had control of congress for ten years following the war, this was the first law of the kind and so we might go on through dozens of splendid bills due to democrats. The old soldier need have no fear as to legislation in their behalf if they support democrats for congress, especially that splendid citizen and friend of theirs, John A. M. Adair, who has proven his faithfulness to them during the past four years on every occasion.

In his speech at Newcastle Senator Beveridge very generously advised the people to vote for Congressman Barnard, who presided over the meeting addressed by the senator. The situation was of course somewhat embarrassing; but was it wise for Senator Beveridge, who is asking support largely because he voted against the Payne bill, to urge the people to cast their votes for Mr. Barnard, who voted for it? The senator admitted that he and the representative differed on some subjects, but insisted that they "both were working for the common good of the people." Most men in public life believe that they are doing just that. The question is as to their views of what is "for the common good of the people." If, as Senator Beveridge believes, a vote against the Payne bill was a vote "for the common good of the people," a vote for that bill could not be. One or the other of these men made a serious mistake on a vital subject. How can the senator ask those who believe the Payne bill to be bad to vote for both him and Mr. Barnard? It looks as though the effort were one to elect a republican just because he is a republican, and without any regard to his public record. And yet we are told that this year the appeal is to men, not as members of this or that party, but to men as citizens without regard to party, told that the great issues for which the insurgents stand wholly transcend party.—Indianapolis News.

ANOTHER REPUBLICAN IS DISGUSTED.

Geneva, Ind., Oct. 25, 1910.
 Editor Decatur Democrat:
 Please allow me space in your paper to say: Since I have been a voter, for ten years or more, I have as a rule, voted the republican ticket, but since reading the Decatur Daily Times and the Berne Witness for the past month, including the false, malicious and slanderous editorials against Jacob Butcher, candidate on the democratic ticket for representative, a man whom I have known all my life, and know him to be a straight, honest and upright man, of moral habits, a member in good standing in the U. B. church for more than twenty years, I must bid adieu to the once grand old party and will henceforth cast my lot with the democratic party. I know a number of other good republicans who have become disgusted with the rotten vituperation published in the Times and Witness who will do likewise.
 F. S. ARMANTROUT.

 Presbyterian Missionary—Mrs. J. C. Patterson.

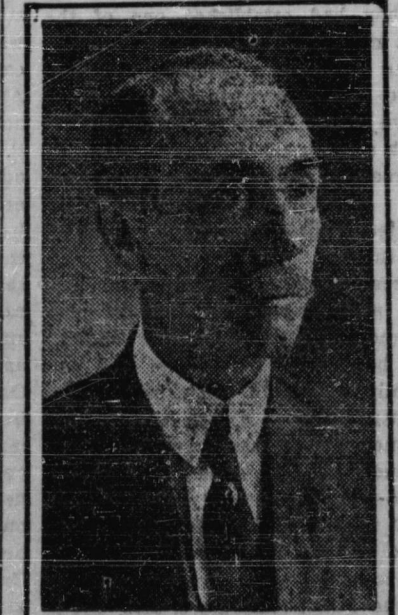

Twenty-five ladies of the German Reformed Aid met at the parsonage Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, where they were met by hacks and conveyed to the home of Mrs. Oscar Fritzinger near Monmouth, where they were entertained, Mrs. Fritzinger being hostess Tuesday in honor of the day which was her twenty-sixth wedding anniversary. The ladies' collection amounted to $6, and after the business hour, a jolly good social time was in evidence, with the playing of such good old games as "hot potato, etc., and a two-course luncheon was served, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. Della Reppert and Mrs. Bertha Heuer. The hospitable Fritzinger home is the place to have a good time.

Mrs. J. C. Sutton will be hostess to the ladies of the Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon. At this time plans will be discussed for the ready-to-wear sale or bazaar to be held in a week or two in the Niblick building, and it is desired that the society be well represented at this meeting to consider the matter.

Miss Anna Winans will give a box social at the Peltz school, Dist. No. 7, St. Mary's township, Friday, November 4th. A nice gift will be given to the prettiest girl present. Come and bring your girl and see that she gets it. Don't forget the time and the place—one mile west and one mile south of Pleasant Mills.

The initiation and reception given by the Pythian Sisters at the Pythian home Monday night proved delightful and thoroughly enjoyed by the 150 present. Thirty-six of the Pythian sisters of Fort Wayne, including the

WITH THE CANDIDATES

MILTON B. HOTTEL,
 For Appellate Judge, Southern District

Milton B. Hottel has never held public office. Since 1885 he has devoted himself to the practice of law at Salem, Ind. He has the support of the bench and bar in his county as well as in surrounding counties where his practice has taken him. He was called to serve his party as a candidate four years ago but was defeated. He is confident of the success of the entire state ticket.

W. H. O'BRIEN, for Auditor of State.

W. H. O'Brien is one of the big business men of Lawrenceburg. He was elected mayor of the city five times and his largest majority came with his last election. You can judge for yourself whether he was a good mayor and whether he is the kind of a man who would make a good auditor of state. For years he has published the Lawrenceburg Register. He is president of the People's State bank.

The Fashion Bows to Brown

Lifts its hat to grey and salutes blue. These are "the" colors.

Many stores show a thimblefull of Browns just enough to tease you.

We've done Browns up brown. Got the widest assembly in town of "suit" brownies.

Same way with Gray and Blue. The newest things, that's our way.

Have you been Autumn suited yet? No time like now. No place like here. Overcoats too, all sizes and all prices.
