It must be apparent by this time to the politicians of Indiana, especially the democratic politicians, that Governor Marshall is a safe man to follow. He was unknown in political circles in 1908 when he went into the campaign and fought his way to victory. The politicians were not willing to concede even after that victory that he was a real leader and at the state convention they attempted to over-ride a suggestion he made on the matter of choosing a senator. They had it all framed up to defeat the governor, but the delegates refused to be delivered and in a close struggle in which the voice of many of them was silenced the governor won, and the convention nominated a candidate for senator. The older leaders of the party in the state pronounced the action of the convention a mistake, but Marshall heeded them not. In the campaign he made a hard fight and stood squarely on the democratic platform. It is but the truth to say that he was the big drawing card on the democratic side throughout the campaign and his speeches were telling and effective. The party emerged from the battle with one of the most sweeping victories it has ever achieved, being complete in every respect and beyond all expectations. If there are any leading democrats in the state at this time who still feel disposed to distrust Governor Marshall as the leader of his party, it is time for them to bury their prejudices and give credit where credit is due. Governor Marshall is not the kind of a man who seeks to be a boss or a dictator of his party, but he is one who believes there is wisdom in leaders of a party meeting together and counseling together. After years of unbroken republican victories in the state Tom Marshall has redeemed the state, captured the legislature and all but sent a solid delegation to congress. This is indeed a great achievement for a man to accomplish in two short years. —Columbia City Post.

NOTICE.

When a cold becomes settled in the system, it will take several days' treatment to cure it, and the best remedy to use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will cure quicker than any other, and also leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. Sold by all dealers.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

Brown & Summers, the real estate dealers of Monroe, have dissolved partnership, and I won't stand good for any of Brown's debts. Brown said the reason that he wanted to dissolve partnership, was that he was going to Hooker, Oklahoma, to run a hotel and did not intend to work real estate here any more.

J. J. SUMMERS.

The old, old story, told times without number, and repeated over and over again for the last 36 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health—There is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quickly as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by all dealers.

SOCIETY DOINGS

Yeomen Give a Surprise for Mrs. James Bain on Birth Anniversary.

A FAREWELL PARTY

Given For Schlickman Family Tonight at the Chris-Vogt Home.

One of Margaret Sangster's ten resolutions for the year:

No 8—I will do something for somebody whenever I am discouraged or blue.

Wednesday, November 9th friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. J. F.
Bowers gathered at their home with well filled baskets to surprise them, and they surely did. Those present were J. F. Bowers and wife, E. Hinton and wife, G. C. McClure and family, Mrs. Frank Hinton, William Hart and wife, L. Bailey and wife, Rufus Ramsay and family, Ed Erickson and wife, G. W. Reed and family, J. S.
Watkins and family of Dixon, Ohio; Messrs. Dul Guey, Ora Sheets, Frances Mosel, Harry Hinton, Ora Hinton, Vernon Erickson and Wilson Hart; Misses Ethel and Iva Funk, Leota Hinton, Phoebe Hart, Irene McClure, Lota Bailey and Etta Hawk. Mr. and Mrs.
Bowers intended to move to Dixon, Ohio, in the near future, where he will commence his work as blacksmith. Mr. and Mrs. Bowers thank these neighbors and friends for the lunch they had prepared and kindness shown to ward them, and invite them all back again.

The Modern Yeomen gave Mrs.
James Bain a birthday surprise that was a most pleasant event and wholly a surprise in all ways. The announcement had been made that all members should meet at the hall for practice and Mrs. Bain responded to the call with no thought of the conspiracy of the others. Upon arriving there she found all things ready for a jolly good time in her honor, and games and contests were in order and refreshments were served.

A jolly marshmallow toast at the VanCamp home on First street, with Miss Edwin VanCamp hostess, was the good fortune of the seniors of the high school. A number of other things filled the entertainment calendar to the top notch—among them being a laughing contest. Earl Colter was unanimously voted the best laugh-er and accordingly honored. A stump speech by Earl was also one of the original and entertaining things of the evening.

One of the most delightful events of the season was the farewell party given at the home of Miss Josephine Shuhmaker, who will Sunday afternoon leave for Brooklyn, N. Y., to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs.
H. J. Brown. The evening was spent in playing very amusing games. A luncheon was served by Miss Josephine and the many guests departed at a late hour wishing her a delightful trip.

The six girls of the Flohrul de Purin club took their needlework with them to the home of their hostess, Miss Flora Flederjohann, last evening, where they talked, sewed, played games, had luncheon and altogether spent a delightful evening. Miss Hulda Loser will entertain next Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bright of Route No. 2 entertained a few friends Thursday evening in honor of Miss Margaret Beery, who returned Friday with her niece, Miss Dorothy Shaffer, to Danville, Ill., after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Beery, and family.

The members of the "Lucky Twelve" section of the German Reformed Aid society and their friends were entertained last evening by Mrs. L. B. Brokaw, games, music, and a luncheon contributing to the entertainment.

The Entire Nous club which was to have been entertained last evening by Miss Pearl Purdy, postponed their meeting until next Thursday on account of the entertainment at the operahouse last evening.

Mrs. J. H. Daniels and daughter, Nellie, and Mrs. William Cross were entertained by Mrs. W. C. McKinney Friday afternoon.

The week-end party which Miss Margaret Todd intended to give last week, will be given this week and a party of Decatur girls will arrive today. A series of social events are planned.

The Decatur guests are Misses Naomi Dugan, Reba Quinn, Lillian Rice, Neva Brandyberry, Florence Meyers and Winifred Sowers.—Bluffton News.

Miss Winifred Ellingham was the guest of the Misses Leah and Veda Hensley over night.

The farewell social tonight by the Lucky Twelve section of the German Reformed church at the Chris-Vogt home for Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Schlickman and family before they go to their new home at Denver, Colo., will be largely attended. Everybody is invited. There will be songs by the Sunday school classes of which the Schlickmen children are members, songs by the Christian Endeavor society, by the Ladies' Aid, by the congregation and a number of instrumental selections, besides many other features of amusement.

A number of little girls of Zion's Lutheran church met Friday afternoon at the home of Ida Gunset and organized a society to be known as "The Little Quilters." The girls have banded themselves together with the avowed purpose of earning money to be used in the church work and will begin making comforts, a very praiseworthy effort. The society includes Misses Martha Heckman, Marie Boese, Luella Bultemeier, Esther Heckman and Ida Gunset, and these willing little workers, who will meet once a week, will no doubt be very successful.

BIG FOUR WRECK

Occurred Near Muncie at an Early Hour This Morning—Was Lucky One.

NO ONE WAS KILLED

Cars Went Into Ditch and One Rolled Over—Several Slightly Hurt.

(United Press Service.)

Muncie, Ind., Nov. 12—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Fast Passenger train No. 43, on the Big Four, westbound, was partly wrecked at a point three miles west of here near midnight, when the next to the last coach of the fast line, hit a broken rail. Several persons were injured, but none seriously. The fact that no one was killed or even badly hurt is regarded as almost miraculous and at least most remarkable. When the two last coaches left the rails, the rear one, containing thirteen persons, rolled over into the ditch, while the car just in front of it was thrown crosswise of the tracks. A panic ensued among the passengers. All were finally extricated and found to be unharmed except for scratches and bruises.

MARK 1/2 Price

TWAIN A New Edition

Now for the first time you get a complete set of all Mark Twain's writings at just exactly one-half the price they have ever been sold before. This is a new edition, just as complete as the old one, which still sells, by the way, at $50.00. This new edition is only $25.00—for the 25 volumes.

It had been Mark Twain's ambition to have his books in every American home, and he made a great personal sacrifice to bring about this remarkable opportunity—for the first time in the history of publishing, copyrighted books are sold at the price of non-copyrighted books—the chance will not come again.

But for Mark Twain's action this would have been impossible. Never before has a copyrighted library set of a standard author's works been issued at such a low figure.

His Complete Works— 25 Beautiful Volumes

Brander Matthews says: "Mark Twain will be included in that group of writers headed by Moliere and Cervantes. With the exception of Count Tolstol, Twain was the greatest of recent modern writers, and will be handed down to posterity through the trio of his works 'Huckleberry Finn,' 'Tom Sawyer,' and 'Pudd'nhead Wilson.' Twain is a greater stylist than Stevenson or Thoreau, and his 'Man that Corrupted Hadleyburg' is one of the finest works in English literature." Mark Twain himself wrote a preface to this edition. Brander Matthews has written the biographical criticism of Mark Twain and his work. There are portraits of the author at periods when the different books were in process of writing.

There are beautiful pictures by such artists as Frost, Newell, Smedley, Thulstrup, Clineinst, Kemble, and Opper. The binding is in rich red rep silk book cloth, with title labels stamped in gold. The books are printed on white antique wove paper, especially made for this edition. Each volume is of generous size and bulk, 5x7 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches.
