AT LINN GROVE

gies by Leander Dunbar, who in all probability is the only manufacturer of such vehicles in Adams county. When we called on him we found he had a number of surreys and buggies under construction and orders enough ahead to keep him busy for many months to come. Among the other things we mention and the one that pleases the people the most is the mammoth elevator along the B. G. & C., equipped for handling all kinds of grain and we doubt if there is any better in Adams county. Taking a retrospective view of Linn Grove we rejoice with them that they are now substantially and forever on the map as they are hustlers and "forward march" is the slogan of the boosters.

The Rebekah lodge of Geneva entertained the Rebekahs from Portland and Bluffton Wednesday evening, to the number of fifty. A delicious supper was served, after which the Bluffton lodge exemplified the work in a splendid manner, much to the edification of all present. After the work a several hours' social session was held. Just at the close of the evening's pleasures, Mrs. Mort McAfee, the conductress of the Bluffton degree staff, suffered an attack of heart trouble, and for some time it was feared she could not be revived. Dr. Graham was called and at 1 o'clock she was placed aboard the special B. G. & C. car and taken home. Word today is that she is better.

The concert given by Major R. H. and J. C. Hendershot, assisted by the Geneva Merchants' band Wednesday evening at the Colliseum was poorly attended on account of the inclement weather.

BUYS ADAMS COUNTY FLOUR.

Joseph Shady today shipped to his son, George W. Shady, of McMillen, Mich., a quantity of good old Adams county flour. When one considers that flour in that part of Michigan is $7.50 a barrel over the $4.50 which can buy it here, one may know that there is something to gain in buying flour here. The saving on the four barrels alone, above the freight in this case, is $8.00. This is not the first year that Mr. Shady has bought his flour here, as he has been partial to this product for some time. Mr. George W. Shady, who has been here for a few days, having accompanied the remains of his son, Bruce, here for burial, left this afternoon for Chicago, where he will attend to business matters relating to his son's death, and will return to his home at McMillen the first of the week. His son, Bruce, was killed in a railway accident in Chicago last Saturday.

ENROUTE TO COLORADO.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dull of Wren, Ohio, formerly telegraph operator for the Clover Leaf railroad in this city, passed through this city this morning on their way to Denver, Colo., where they will reside, going there for the benefit of Mrs. Dull's health. They will stop off at Varparaiso for a short visit with Mrs. Dull's sister, Mrs. D. J. Erwin. Mr. Dull has secured a position with a railway in Colorado.
