Decatur merchants should awaken to the fact that a new year starts Sunday and to increase your business over last year you should begin a campaign of advertising that will get results. There is only one way. Contract for space in the Daily Democrat. It's a sure thing and the returns will make you happy.

The Washington Herald is of the opinion that there are other presidential possibilities than Woodrow Wilson and Judson Harmon, among them Governor Marshall. It says that "he is a broad-minded, progressive leader, of genuine ability, who has already taken rank with the great Hoosier governors of the past." The Herald is especially impressed with his handling of the senatorship question.

The first democratic legislature in Indiana since 1892 will, at least inaugurate one splendid reform and that is the reduction of the force of clerks and doorkeepers in the house and senate for the session which convenes one week from today. A committee appointed for the purpose has recommended that the doorkeepers of the house be reduced to a dozen, instead of the little army heretofore used; there will be only enough clerks to do the work, the crowd heretofore used in the engrossing room will be cut down and similar reductions of expenses will be made in the senate. They will also reduce the number of bills printed, a saving of no mean amount, and the buying of stationery in each house will be done by a man who will give his entire attention to that work. Without any question the expenses of conducting the legislature will be reduced several thousand dollars. If they use the same care throughout the session that they are in getting started, they will make a record that will mean much in the future.

Of all the days in the year, Christmas seems to be the one most appreciated, hearts are made the more glad, ties seem more true, trouble seems all to vanish, the seemingly forsaken are given a hearty welcome. But the greatest gift of all is the "home-coming" of those who have been gone for many months. But few are not all found in the "home-coming." Some one in the community has made a struggle worthy of consideration and hearts go together to still buoy him or her on to the unknown future. Communities every year go together, either by surprise or gift, to make some special one happy. This act is appreciated by all, even the donor realizes the greatest blessing in it. This spirit led the author to write, "Not what we give, but what we share. For the gift without the giver is bare."
—Lowell.

This spirit was manifested Sunday when a number of the members of the Camden Church at Pennville, Ind., and some of the Pleasant Dale people gathered at the home of their elder, Daniel M. Byerly, east of Curryville, while he was at the church and completely surprised "he" and "family," after which all sat down to the table, well supplied with the fruits of the earth. But they felt the surprise more keenly when he found under his plate a purse containing over a half hundred dollars. Elder Byerly has been doing a grand and noble work for the Church of the Brethren, although at a little sacrifice. He, a little over two years ago, started to build up the Camden church, a little south of Pennville, Ind., of about five discouraged members, and today the church has a membership of fifty-nine consecrated and influential workers, with a bright outlook for the future. He is gone nearly all of the time filling appointments at various places, such as Pleasant Dale, Camden, Portland, Landisville, etc. Besides this he is a member of a number of committees, and the one he seems to take the most interest in is the "home mission" work. Elder Byerly, all his life, has been an influential worker, his desire being not to gain earthly goods, but to try and lift man to a higher elevated plain, to guide, direct, and lead his sheep beyond the dangers of sin. Those present were Samuel L. Driver and family, Peter Fulk and family, Gust Yancy, Misses Nora and Lizzie Norris of Camden, Rev. David Hummer and family, John Taylor and family, J. Miller and family and Mr. Pentecost. All departed, wishing Elder Byerly and family many more such happy events.

Forty of the neighbors and friends of Mrs. James T. Moses gave her a surprise call at her home east of the city in celebration of her birthday anniversary, the event being also a farewell party, as the Moses family leaves next month for their new home north of the city. There was music and other things to pass a delightful social evening, during which also, an oyster supper was served. Among the guests from this city were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moses and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Frisinger. The very best wishes of all for many happy returns of the day were extended to the celebrant.

A surprise that was a surprise in every sense of the word was that given last evening for Miss Lydia Miller in honor of her birthday anniversary, the affair being planned by her father, Martin Miller. The fact that her birthday was last Friday and the party several days afterward, tended to make the surprise more complete. Miss Lydia was sitting at the piano, playing, her mind wholly oblivious to other things, when about twenty of her friends burst upon her. Music and games and singing passed a pleasant evening. Miss Lydia was presented with a handsome pedestal with the best wishes of her friends.

The Menu-ate club and a number of guests, including the Misses Frances Dugan, Bessie Boyers, Helen Niblick, Leota Bailey, Marie Allison, Fanny Frisinger, Sylvia Eaton and Mrs. Arthur Ford, found Wednesday afternoon's hours delightful ones as they busied themselves with their needlework at the home of Mrs. J. O. Sellemeyer. This was one of the most delightful meetings of the season, a time when friends who have been away at school or are separated during this time by the call of other duties, were happily reunited. Miss Frances Merriam will entertain the club at the next weekly meeting.

The entertainment accorded the girls of her circle, by Miss Neva Brandyberry last evening in compliment to Miss Winifred Sowers, who will soon leave the city for Sharon, Pa., and for Miss Margaret Todd of Bluffton, was a delightful one, there being a round of music, singing, games and refreshments to delight them. Miss Winifred Burke will entertain the girls Friday evening. On Saturday evening there will be a rabbit supper at the home of Miss Reba Quinn, the evening closing with a watch party at the home of Naomi Dugan. The circle will also attend the party to be given this evening by Miss Margaret Mills in honor of Pearl Baumgartner.

The following program will be rendered Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Jubilee social to be given at the M. E. church by the ladies of the Mite society:
Piano Solo—Miss Vera Hower.
Duet—Mrs. P. B. Thomas and Mrs. Lee Walters.
Pipe Organ Voluntary—Miss Frances Merriam.
Solo—Mrs. J. Q. Neptune.
Piano Solo—Mrs. Otto Haubold.
Duet—Mrs. J. O. Sellemeyer and Mrs. B. J. Rice.
A delightful time is anticipated and a cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

The annual business session of the St. Vincent de Paul society was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joe Knapke, when officers as follows were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. James K. Niblick; secretary, Mrs. A. Kohne; treasurer, Mrs. J. B. Melbers. Reports for the year were read, showing that the society is in a flourishing condition. At the close of the business period, the hostess served tempting refreshments.

A party from Pleasant Mills, representing the congregation of the Baptist church there, drove to this city this morning with baskets well laden with dinner, and gave their pastor, the Rev. Ehle and wife a surprise visit, a sumptuous dinner being spread at noon from the baskets. The remainder of the day was spent in a happy social way.

A jolly sleighing party, comprising twelve couples from this city, drove to the home of Miss Emma Conrad at Magley last evening, where they spent the evening in a delightful way. There were games of all kinds, and the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Miss Jessie Simison of Berne was the guest of honor at a delightful holiday party given Wednesday evening by Miss Lillah Lachot at her home on West Monroe street. The pretty Christmas decorations of red and green bells and streamers, together with holly, used in a number of pretty ways, still adorned the home, making it a very attractive setting for the festive throng. A shadow profile contest was one of the amusements, the profile of each guest being drawn on a paper from a shadow profile cast against it. These were then hung to form a picture gallery and much fun was derived from guessing "who was who." Another interesting contest required the names of birds for answers to questions in rebus form. Piano selections by Miss Ruby Miller and vocal solos by Dewey Lachot were received with much pleasure. A tempting luncheon, in two courses, was served. The guests were members of the Entre Nous club with a number of gentlemen friends, and included besides the honored guest, the Misses Goldie Gay, Pearl Purdy, Matilda Sellemeyer, Ruby Miller, Electa Glancey, Mrs. H. S. Lachot; Messrs. Carl Moses, Tony Hackman, Ed Kleinhenz, Fred Fullenkamp, Frank Bremerkamp, Louis Rice, Herbert Ehinger and H. S. Lachot.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elzey delightfully entertained a company of friends at perdo Wednesday evening in compliment to Mrs. Josephine Rodd of Toledo, Ohio. First honors were won by B. J. Terveer and Miss Anna Volmer, while the booby prizes were accorded Mrs. Bremerkamp and Alph Volmer. The party included besides the guest of honor Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bremerkamp, Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Melbers, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Terveer, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hower, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murray and son, Harold; Misses Anna Volmer and Mayme Terveer and Mr. Alph Volmer.

Mrs. Charles Hawkins entertained at dinner for Mrs. F. H. Merica and children of Bluffton. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Coppock and family, Mrs. Emma Zerkel and Mr. and Mrs. Orley Ritter and son, Leon.

Miss Matilda Sellemeyer will entertain at her home south of the city at dinner tomorrow for Miss Lillah Lachot and her guest, Miss Jessie Simison, of Berne.

TWAIN

Edition

Now for the first time you get a complete set of all Mark Twain's writings at just exactly one-half the price they have ever been sold before. This is a new edition, just as complete as the old one, which still sells, by the way, at $50.00. This new edition is only $25.00—for the 25 volumes.

It had been Mark Twain's ambition to have his books in every American home, and he made a great personal sacrifice to bring about this remarkable opportunity—for the first time in the history of publishing, copyrighted books are sold at the price of non-copyrighted books—the chance will not come again.

But for Mark Twain's action this would have been impossible. Never before has a copyrighted library set of a standard author's works been issued at such a low figure.

His Complete Works— 25 Beautiful Volumes

Brander Matthews says: "Mark Twain will be included in that group of writers headed by Moliere and Cervantes. With the exception of Count Tolstol, Twain was the greatest of recent modern writers, and will be handed down to posterity through the trio of his works 'Huckleberry Finn,' 'Tom Sawyer,' and 'Pudd'nhead Wilson.' Twain is a greater stylist than Stevenson or Thoreau, and his 'Man that Corrupted Hadleyburg' is one of the finest works in English literature." Mark Twain himself wrote a preface to this edition. Brander Matthews has written the biographical criticism of Mark Twain and his work. There are portraits of the author at periods when the different books were in process of writing.

There are beautiful pictures by such artists as Frost, Newell, Smedley, Thulstrup, Clinedinst, Kemble, and Oppen. The binding is in rich red rep silk book cloth, with title labels stamped in gold. The books are printed on white antique wove paper, especially made for this edition. Each volume is of generous size and bulk, 5 7/8 inches.
