The campaign is over and tomorrow we vote. Indications are that a large vote will be cast and we just wish to state that there is absolutely no reason why any person, legally entitled to vote, should lose it because of not understanding how to vote. If you wish to vote dry make a cross in the square containing the word "yes." If you want to vote wet make the cross in the square containing the word "no."

Miss Emma Runyon entertained a party of ladies at the home of her father, Daniel Runyon, near Linn Grove, in honor of Misses Allie and Lena Swisher of Delphos, Ohio. The afternoon was spent in knitting a comfort. The ladies spent a very enjoyable afternoon, not thinking of the happy surprise that was pending, but as the ball of yarn diminished a tiny piece of paper fell from the ball and was unfolded and read by one of the guests, Miss Electa Meshberger, disclosing the following secret, in verse: I am only a ball of yarn.
And you have rolled me round and round,
Over this big comfort of yours,
Until I am almost gone.
And now that I am almost worn to a little ball,
I will try and tell you all
Of the approaching marriage of Miss Cora May Runyon to
Mr. William Clinton Pannell.
Which will occur next September.

Miss Cora is the youngest daughter of David Runyon, a prominent farmer. She is an active member of the Christian church and a graduate of the Linn Grove high school. She is one of the most popular young ladies in her social circle and is greatly admired for her vivacity and charm, and is receiving the best wishes of a large circle of friends. Mr. Pannell is an electrician, holding a position of trust with the M. B. & E. Traction company, and has made his home with the Runyon family since May, 1910. He is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Pannell of Blountville, Tenn. His boyhood days were spent on his father's farm, but since growing to manhood he has spent the greater part of his time in Indiana and traveling through the west. He is a young man of sterling qualities and during his stay in Bluffton and Warren, Ind., he has by his cordial manner and pleasing personalities, won many friends who are wishing him a long and happy life with the young lady of his choice.

Mrs. Polly Gaunt entertained a number of her friends in a very charming manner Wednesday at her home, six and one-half miles east of the city. Those present were Mrs. Elzey Jackson, Mrs. Amanda Hudson, Mrs. Simon Traster, Mrs. Floyd Myers, Mrs. Wilbur Alexander and son, Orlan; Mrs. Aldine Johnson and granddaughter, Ilo; Mrs. George Wood, Miss Pearl Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. Ola Gaunt and son, Roland; Mr. Jesse Traster, J. S. Swygart and Roy Gaunt. Dinner was served at the noon hour, consisting of all the good things of the season, and during the afternoon ice cream was served, which all enjoyed. All returned to their home declaring Mrs. Gaunt a fine entertainer.

Mrs. Adaline Johnson entertained a number of her lady friends at her beautiful country home, seven miles southeast of the city in a very charming manner last Thursday. Those present were Mrs. Simon Traster, Mrs. Polly Gaunt, Miss Pearl Cowan, Mrs. Amanda Hudson, Mrs. Floyd Myers, Mrs. George Wood, Mrs. Wilbur Alexander and son, Orlan, and Miss Ilo Johnson. At the noon hour a sumptuous dinner was served which all greatly enjoyed. The afternoon was spent in social chat and phonograph music was enjoyed. At a late hour all returned to their homes, voting Mrs. Johnson a royal entertainer.

Miss Agnes Meibers entertained at tea Sunday evening for Miss Marie Lilac of Hesse Cassel, who was her guest over Sunday. The party included, besides this guest and hostess, the Misses Naomi Meibers, Esther and Tim Corbett and Bob Meibers.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Concord Lutheran church of north of Monmouth will hold their regular monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Charles Magley of Root township.

Miss Lydia Miller entertained Sunday evening, the guests being Ode and
