Entered at the postoffice at Decatur, Indiana, as second-class mail matter.

Every base ball fan in Decatur should boost for the Boston "Red Sox." The owner of the team is now behind the Decatur Motor Car company.

Even the National Guards are to get in the Mexican scrap, and the boys are preparing for a little journey to the border. Let's hope it will be even less bloodless than was the late Spanish-American scrimmage.

The closing of the deal at Boston, by which John I. Taylor, a millionaire business man, newspaper owner and base ball franchise dealer, becomes interested in the Decatur Motor Car company, assures the future success of that company. There has never been any doubt about the correctness of the car. It's the best on earth. Now with plenty of money the cars will be marketed and that means a great industry for Decatur. Mr. Brackett deserves praise. He has made good again, and the bringing of that gentleman here by the Decatur Commercial club was an investment worth the time and money spent. He is the kind that does things, big things, and things that count. As the head of the Ward Fence company, he has proven his worth, and in financing the automobile company, he has made good again.

SALEM AND CALVARY.

Salem.
Sunday school at 9:30, prompt, to which all the children and the parents are invited. Our school has been growing and we believe we have just such a school you would be proud to attend. Come with us and we will do you good. Preaching at 10:30 by the pastor. Let us look to God for a gracious waiting upon him, and that we all may be blessed on the Sabbath.

Calvary.
Sunday school at 9:30. We urge all the parents to make a special effort to get your children ready and bring them to the Sabbath school, where they are educated in spiritual things. Come. In the evening the pastor will preach on a theme that will interest all and this will be the opening of revival of God's work at Calvary. Shall we not expect a great meeting at Calvary? I do not come to preach anything but the old, old story of Jesus and his love. I must have the co-operation of God's dear children. Does this mean you? Remember, "The fight is on," and God has promised. Services every night during the week. Yours For Christ. REV. E. R. ROOP, Minister.

CLUB CALENDAR FOR WEEK.

Tuesday, March 14th.
Evangelical Y. P. A.—Mrs. Eugene Runyon.

In spite of the measles epidemic that rages in many families of the church, there was a large attendance at the meeting of the Baptist Ladies' Aid society at the home of Mrs. S. E. Shamp, Thursday afternoon. After the business meeting, a very good little program was given by the children, there being a piano solo by Pauline Hite and recitations by Mary Van Hart, Helen Crumley and Hester Betz. Plans for the organization of a junior aid society, comprising several of the young girls, were also discussed. Refreshments in two courses were served by the hostess. Those present, all of whom report a delightful time, were Mesdames Van Hart, John Everett, S. E. Hite, Barbara Winnes, J. Yager, John Chronister, Harriet Coverdale, David Stoler, George Glass, Hovey Harper, Hugh Crumley, Fortney, Simon, Brandyberry, Henry Betz, Ned Bobo, Frank Davis, Ed France of Pleasant Mills, Miss Myrtle Chronister and several children.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church held a meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Martin Peery, who was assisted in entertaining by her daughter, Mrs. Charles Colter. Mrs. Emma Daniels, vice president, presided, and a very interesting program was given under the leadership of Mrs. Fred Mills, Porto Rico being discussed. A gift worthy of special mention, for which the society will be credited, was the gift of $100 by Mrs. Emma Daniels to the Boylan home for girls. With prior gifts, the total sum given by Mrs. Daniels is $110 for the library at this home, which has been named the Daniels library. Arrangements, including the appointment of committees for the details of the tub sale to be conducted two days after Easter, were also given attention. Delicious refreshments made their appearance during the social period.

A pleasant and profitable meeting of the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society was that held at the home of Mrs. M. A. Frisinger Thursday afternoon. The attendance was very good and a pleasant social hour, in addition to the business meeting, was spent, during which refreshments were provided. Among the things planned was the giving of a dinner in the church parlors Thursday, March 16th. This dinner, which includes the following menu, will be served for a quarter and everybody is invited:

Chicken With Noodles
Gravy Mashed Potatoes
Escalloped Corn
Cold Slaw Pickles
Bread Butter Jellies
Fruit Salad Pie
Coffee

The operas of Reginald DeKoven were studied by the Enterpeans at the home of Mrs. J. W. Tyndall instead of with Mrs. Harry Starr on account of the illness of the latter, the program being outlined by Miss Bess Schrock and Mrs. Fred Fruchte. The fact that one of DeKoven's operas, "The Beauty Spot," will be produced in Fort Wayne next Saturday, and that many of the club are planning to attend, added interest to the study.

Just two hundred and seven enjoyed the hospitality of the Fred Hoffman home Thursday evening at one of the most delightful socials ever given by the Evangelical Ladies' Aid society. The Hoffman home was ablaze with light, happiness and good cheer and a very fine order of entertainment was provided. The program was opened with the congregational singing of that grand American song, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," which was followed by the Lord's prayer. Piano duets by the Misses Zelda Smith and Crystal Kern, Edna and Hope Hoffman and a piano solo by Miss Jean Lutz, with two songs by the ladies' quartet, including Mesdames E. B. Kern, L. E. Opliger and Eugene Runyon and Miss Lilah Lachot, were highly appreciated. A novel feature of the entertainment following this, were two contests—one a physiology contest and the other a Jack Frost contest, after which came the "Elusive Candle" game. Very tempting refreshments were provided during the course of the evening.

The Orient club passed Thursday afternoon in a pleasant way with their embroidery work at the home of Mrs. H. S. Lachot. Besides sewing there was a unique "dry goods" contest, names of materials for dress appropriate to the wives of men of various occupations being suggested. Mrs. D. B. Erwin won the prize in this. A delicious luncheon was one of the entertainment features. Guests were Mrs. J. F. Lachot and daughter, Miss Lilah. Mrs. John Stewart will be hostess at the next meeting, next Thursday afternoon.

The Evangelical Young People's Alliance will hold their regular monthly business and social meeting next Tuesday evening with Mrs. Eugene Runyon.

The Yeomen are preparing to initiate a class of twelve or more on next Monday evening and will combine a pleasant social time with the initiatory work.

The United Brethren Aid society held an enthusiastic meeting with Mrs. Thomas Fisher Thursday afternoon, the hostess having charge of the devotional service. Reports from some work done by the society showed an addition of $9.40 to the treasury. Tempting refreshments were served at the close of the session.

Sam Hite's Appeal To The Farmers

Bring me your eggs and get what they are worth. The combination is resorting to all kinds of tricks to put me out of business, and the n you will get about 10c a dozen for your eggs. Call on me personally and I will put you next to what they are doing. If you will only stand by me in this great battle it will mean many dollars to you in the future. "U nited we stand, divided we fall." Hoping to see you personally, I remain,
Yours respectfully,

SAM HITE
