WRIST ON BUZZ SAW

ARTERY WAS SEVERED

And Jagged Wound Inflicted--Other Notes About the Sick.

Charles Rash, a young man of Bobo, who, with a Mr. Ainsworth, operates a buzz-saw, met with a very bad accident Tuesday afternoon by catching his right wrist on the saw and cutting a jagged wound therein, severing the artery and lacerating the wrist, laying it open about two inches. The accident happened on the D. B. Erwin farm east of the city, while the men were sawing wood for Charles Wolfe, the tenant. Rash's hand was struck in some way by a pole, which sent the wrist over onto the jagged saw, which ate into the man's quivering flesh in an instant. Dr. D. D. Clark was hurriedly summoned from this city, going with Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Murray and Frank Gass in the Murray automobile. While the wound was a very painful one, and Mr. Rash suffered much loss of blood, he will get along all right unless blood poison sets in, which is not anticipated.

Wasteful Excess.
To gild refined gold, to paint the lily, To throw perfume on the violet, To smooth the ice or add another hue Unto the rainbow or add taper light To seek the beauteous eye of heaven to garnish
Is wasteful and ridiculous excess.
--Shakespeare.

John Kiracofe, stenographer for the Smith & Bell office, this city, is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. I. Kiracofe, near Wren, Ohio, today attending the wedding of his sister, Miss Anise Kiracofe, to Mr. M. C. Cully, a prominent young man of near Willshire, Ohio, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Cully. The wedding was solemnized at high noon at the Kiracofe home, the ceremony being read by the Rev. Roberts, pastor of the United Brethren church at Wren. There were about twenty-five guests at the wedding, including the members of the families of both bride and groom, with a number of other relatives and intimate friends. The groom has leased his father's farm near Willshire, Ohio, where the newly married couple will make their home. Both are excellent young people and highly deserving of every good wish bestowed upon them.

A large number of the friends of Ruby O. Wynn gave him a surprise party Tuesday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Wynn, east of the city, where the evening was enlivened with games of all kinds, music, and everything that contributed to a time of unsurpassed pleasure. Those present were Enoch Fairchild, Floyd Shoaf, Ruby Harvey, Iva Harvey, Claude Harvey, Perry Smith, Bertha Smith, Harry Smith, Lillie Teeple, Calvin Yost, Otis Yost, Nova Yost, Laura Springer, Velma Springer, Virgil Springer, Ida, Della and Hubert Erhsam, Ace and Bertha Smith, Anna Passwater, Perle Hawkins, Rolla, Tom, Walter and Merle Coppock, Roy Shoaf, Lynn Strickler, Kenneth Hawkins.

Among the many lodge movements to further success in the city at present some seems to be more progressive than the Yeomen, and they are working hard to bring the local membership right up to the front. On next Monday evening they will take in a class of fifteen members, making a total for this month of thirty. S. E. Brown is the leader of the movement, he having secured twenty-five of the thirty, while Mrs. Florence Bain secured the remaining five. On last Monday evening a record-breaking crowd was present, when the degree work was given, and those in charge of affairs are more than pleased with the progress, which they are enjoying.

The Historical club spent a very profitable evening in the study of Grover Cleveland's second administration at the home of Mrs. Arthur Fisher, Mrs. M. Burns having a very interesting paper, the study being also taken up by the members who spoke on sub-topics.

The Baptist Ladies' Aid society will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. J. Yager on Mercer avenue, and a good attendance is the desire.
