A JASPER GIRL WINS

forced to take her seat. Clara Gilbert was the third to fall, missing 'illum.' So it went down the long line, none of the words missed being in common use. Several times the pronouncer faltered on a decision and once Miss Alexander, referee and author of the spelling book, which was used, misspelled a word in explaining how the child to whom it had been given had missed it.

"Pronouncer Dunn called 'line-ment.' The child did not understand and Mr. Dunn defined the word as a medicine. Then the child spelled it 'l-i-n-m-e-n-t,' and Mr. Dunn declared that the word was misspelled. Miss Alexander immediately took a hand, declaring that the child had misunderstood and that the definition was not correct. During the melee some one asked Miss Alexander to spell the word correctly and she unhesitatingly spelled 'l-i-n-a-m-e-n-t' amid uproarious laughter.

"Such little used words as 'succulent,' 'eligible,' 'impostor,' 'analogues,' 'beseech,' 'chrysalids,' 'mademoiselle,' 'jaunty,' 'blotches,' 'peered,' 'buoyant,' 'courtier,' 'perchance,' 'equilaterals,' 'assiduously,' 'aliquot,' 'geld,' 'trape-zoid,' 'feigning,' and 'crypt' were those on which the school children made their errors.

"Children from the same county were not allowed to sit together in the line. In the long list of words was a written test of fifty words in which but one child failed to spell correctly.
Eulila Martin made a grade of 98 per cent in this contest, misspelling 'mademoiselle.' The remainder of the children, probably twenty-five of them, spelled each of the fifty words correctly and received grades of 100 per cent. Miss Martin spelled the word on which she was sent to her seat, 'mademoiselle.'

"All words which were given to the children Thursday to spell will be recorded and a bulletin containing them issued to teachers of the seventh and eighth grades next year for use in the schools of the state.

"Vivian Lewis of Argos, representing the Thirteenth district, was the only winner in the district contests who failed to appear for Thursday's test. No reason was given for her absence.

Miss Salb was congratulated by friends and relatives who had attended the 'match' to cheer her on. After she had received the gold medal the little girl said:

"They tried to beat me in several ways, some of which I didn't like, but I knew I could win if I could stand up long enough, and I did. I am very glad to be considered to be the best speller in the state, but as I previously had won all such contests that I had been in I was practically sure that I would win today. I have never specialized in spelling. I have attended a parochial school since I started to school. I am glad I have pleased father and mother so much."

ABOUT THE SICK.

The measles epidemic has struck the Nelson May home in Union township about right, five of the children being sick at the same time with the measles.

Theodore Dappleman was reported as being very low Thursday, according to the latest word received from Jeffersonville by his relatives.

Attorney L. C. DeVoss, who has been quite sick with heart trouble and asthma, is somewhat better.

Mrs. Christena May, the pioneer lady of Union township, who has been helpless since October 8th, from an attack of paralysis, shows no improvement, in fact, it is thought if there is any change it is that she is growing gradually weaker.

WILL ELECT OFFICERS.

The Star of Bethlehem will hold its regular election of officers this evening at the hall, and a full attendance is requested by the past commander.

CANCER

REMOVED By a New,
Quick, Sure Method. No
X-Ray, No knife, No blood
No Burning Plaster.

Six years ago I got a sore on my face. Two years ago my family doctor cut it out. It soon returned. Last fall the specialist of the Columbia Cancerterium applied one of his medicines and in just 24 minutes he lifted out the cancer without pain. I hope this will bring other sufferers to this wonderful cure.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 23rd day of November, 1910, ROBERT McNAGNY, Notary Public. My commission expires November 17th, 1914.

Two years ago I noticed a sore in the corner of my left eye. It would get sore and better and sore. It continued to grow until this fall. I went to the Columbia Cancerterium and the doctor applied some medicine and just 30 minutes later lifted out the cancer without pain or burning. I am well now.

Eight years ago I noticed a small sore close to my right eye. It kept spreading and pain-ing me. I went to the cancerterium and the doctor removed it in 20 minutes, no pain, no knife, and no blood.

At last your grocer can offer the Flavor
you like!

ASK him to show you the different Blends of Golden Sun Coffee so that you may select the Blend which has been prepared for your taste—from picking to packing, from plant to pot.

He will show you five blends at different prices. The lowest priced blend may be the coffee you'll like best.

Good coffee to you means the flavor that delights your palate and tickles your nostrils.
Price doesn't determine that—the blend's the thing.

Forget price prejudice and—Choose YOURS from our Five Distinct Blends of

Golden Sun Coffee

Karex — Navarre — Briardale — Vienna — Mocha & Java

Do you like a keen, tangy, sparkling coffee? Choose Karex. A piquant, high-flavored coffee? Choose Navarre.
A soft, mellow, velvety coffee? Then order Briardale. A rich, savory, aromatic coffee? That is Vienna. Or do you prefer the distinct brew produced only by the most expert blending of real Mocha & Java? Then select Golden Sun Mocha & Java.

Each always uniform in goodness—in air-tight packages, pure, clean, and containing the luscious oil which is the "life," flavor, aroma of the coffee berry. Most of this goodness escapes from coffee handled in bulk.

Beware of the stale, pulpy, dusty coffee kept in open bins and sold by irresponsible peddlers. These coffees no more compare with Golden Sun Blends than a rose in full fragrance compares with one that is withered and dead.

Make coffee time a delight every time. Your grocer will gladly help you select your particular Blend.
He will show you the Golden Sun Table of Tastes so you can make no mistake in securing the flavor that makes coffee your most welcome drink.
