April shows bring May flowers—
but April snows bring the grip.

All Fools' Day—have you answered the telephone, the door bell, or been "joshed" in some manner? Don't get mad about it. Think of the pleasure the other fellow is having at your expense.

We have heard more or less talk about building the interurban to Geneva, and want to hear some more. What do you really think about it? Will it benefit you? If so, just how do you favor its construction?

The legislature of New York has finally elected a United States senator to succeed Chauncey M. Depew. The man agreed upon, after a memorable contest, is James Aloysius O'Gorman, who filed his resignation as a supreme court justice to accept the senatorial toga. He is endorsed by Governor Dix and by many others and the selection seems to have been a very happy one. Judge O'Gorman is one of the great men of the state and should make a record. He is progressive, and it is said will support all the policies of the democratic party, will join hands with President Taft for Canadian reciprocity. He favors immediate downward revision of the tariff, the fortification of the Panama canal, the direct election of United States senators and the federal income tax. Mr. Shehan, the Tammany man, made a strong "boss" fight and lost, much to the satisfaction of the great majority of democrats in and out of the Empire state.

Forty-five were in attendance at the meeting of the Mite society Friday afternoon at the M. E. church parlors, this being the last meeting of the conference year. At the next meeting in two weeks, which will be the first one of the new year, the election of officers will take place. At that time plans for the year will also be made. The afternoon Friday was an enjoyable one, during the entertainment period there being music by Mrs. P. B. Thomas' phonograph, the program consisting of sacred songs.

While many of the members of the Christian Aid society were presented by measles from attending the regular meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Will Parr, the attendance was quite good and several business matters were considered. On account of not being able to secure a business room next week, the April white sale has been postponed a short while. A dinner will be given Thursday, April 13th, and a special business meeting will be held next week at the home of Mrs. Noah Mangold to complete arrangements. A social hour, during which refreshments were served, concluded Friday afternoon's delightful meeting.

Mrs. W. H. Murphy entertained at 5 o'clock dinner in honor of her granddaughter, Mrs. Harry Archbold, of Fort Wayne, and Mr. J. L. Edge and great-grandson. Mrs. Archbold and babe will go to Ft. Wayne, where her husband will meet her and from there they will go to Indianapolis, where they will remain for some time.

The closing of the Rupright school northwest of the city, taught by Miss Effie Patton of this city, was made a gala event, the usual big dinner at noon, and an excellent program of speech and song by the pupils, being features of the event. Several from this city were in attendance.

Frank Mills, who has just closed a successful term as teacher at the Election school house, west of this city, was given a very pleasant farewell surprise party, the affair being arranged by Mrs. Ed Zimmerman, at whose home he boarded during the term, the guests being a number of the young people of the community. Games and music and refreshments contributed to the good time. The closing day of Frank's school Friday was a great one. About 103 people sat down at noon to the sumptuous dinner served by the patrons, and the number increased to 125 to hear the program of the afternoon, given by the boys and girls, pupils of the schools, by Attorney C. L. Walters of this city, and by the Decatur quartet, comprising Gregg Neptune, Lawrence Biggs, Sherman Beery and Frank Mills.

The Euchre club, with Mrs. M. E. Brackett and sister, Mrs. R. G. Trask, of Petoskey, Mesdames J. W. Tyndall, C. A. Dugan and Fred Heuer, as guests, spent a delightful evening with Mrs. H. H. Moltz. Guest's prize was won by Mrs. Heuer and the club prize by Mrs. T. M. Reid. After cards, Mrs. Moltz served very delicious refreshments, and dainty, in her usual pleasing way.

The Myers-Dailey Co.

The Ladies' Shakespeare club, which closes its study for the season April 19th, is making arrangements for a very elaborate closing social affair, which will be given at the home of Mrs. C. A. Dugan. The exact date has not yet been named, but it will probably take place some time before Easter, before the close of the season's study. The committee on arrangement has corresponded with some very fine readers and it is probable that the club will provide their guests with something very fine in this line, besides according them one of the most delightful general social entertainments of the history of the club.

The social given Friday evening in the Presbyterian church parlors was a very successful one, both socially and financially, and a very nice sum of money was realized for the treasury. There were games and music to contribute to the entertainment, a special feature of which was the fortune tellers' tent, realistically gleaming with red lights, and where the fortunes of all were charmingly told by various young maidens. Refreshments, of ice cream and cake were provided and there were also home-made candies for sale.

The C. W. B. M. of the Christian church will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Elmer Smith on North Third street, when the following program will be given:

Hymn.
Special prayer for colored women.
Bible Lesson—Rom. 15—Mrs. Fisher, Leader.
Hymn.
Work of Louisville Bible School—Mrs. Artman.
Recitation—"Me and My Black Mammy"—Ruth Daniels.
Negro Churches in Indianapolis—Mrs. Dawson.
Messages from Students of Southern Christian Institute—Dorothy Schultz.
Why Do We Need a Negro School in Texas?—Mrs. McKinney.
Quotations from African Missionaries—Mrs. Williams.
Hymn.
Business.

RESOLUTIONS IN MEMORIAM.

March 31, 1911.

To the Officers and Comrades of Sam Henry Post, No. 63, G. A. R.:

Your committee on resolutions of condolence in memory of our deceased comrade, R. S. Peterson, respectfully submit the following:

It is with sad hearts that we record the death of our esteemed comrade, who departed this life the 1th inst. A brief sketch of his life as a citizen and soldier is not here inappropriate. Although too young to go to the beginning of the civil war, he enlisted February 12, 1864, and was assigned with other comrades to Company G, 13th Indiana Cavalry, and appointed first sergeant. In a few days the Thirtieth was sent to Nashville and assigned to guarding the railroad from Nashville to Chattanooga and on south as Sherman's army advanced to Atlanta, Wheeler and Forests' Confederate cavalry gave them plenty to do to keep them from destroying the trains carrying supplies to the boys fighting their way south. The Thirtieth was engaged at the battles of Franklin and Nashville, where the subject of our sketch was slightly wounded, after which they were sent to Mobile, Alabama, afterwards assisting in the assault and capture of Fort Blakley. After which, the war being about over, the regiment was sent to Vicksburg, Miss., where he was mustered out of the service with the rank of first lieutenant. After the war he became a citizen of and was one of the forces that secured our railroads and helped to make Decatur. He amassed no fortune, but was loyal to his country, to the interests of the city and devoted to his family and friends; a few things in this life which are worth while. He will be missed by all, especially his family, to whom we extend our heartfelt sympathy in their sorrow. Let us all not mourn without hope for in him we have faith to believe there was a dauntless spirit that was not born to die; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of Comrade Peterson this Post mourns the loss of a comrade who served as its commander and was esteemed by all, the country a brave defender and the community an honorable citizen. And, further, we, as a Post, tender our sincere sympathy to the bereaved family in their sorrow.

Resolved, That our Post colors be draped in mourning for thirty days in the memory of our deceased comrade and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved wife and mother, recorded in our Post records, and a copy furnished the city press with request for publication.

Respectfully submitted,
A. J. TEEPLE,
R. D. PETERSON,
J. D. HALE,
Committee.
