Entered at the postoffice at Decatur, Indiana, as second-class mail matter.

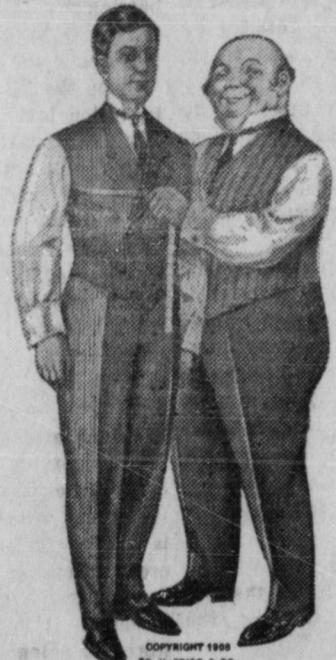

The Indianapolis Star of last Saturday published three columns of April Fool jokes, all of them so silly that a school boy should have known that the occasion was April 1st, even if the big "Extra—April 1st—Extra," head at the top would not have tipped it off, but evidently some people, even wise editors, are so "partisan" that one took this occasion to say that Senator Kern should have confessed the names of the "mysterious eight" during the campaign rather than now when the election is over. April Fool.

We rejoice with the rest of the Indiana democrats over the selection of the Hon. Stokes Jackson for the position of sergeant-of-arms of the house of representatives. It is a recognition of the worth and merit of Mr. Jackson as well as the payment of a debt certainly due the great state of Indiana. To Stokes Jackson as state chairman much credit was due for the splendid victories of last fall and of two years previous and the $6,500 job is none too good for him. He is an able man, of fine appearance and his strength was proven when even the Tamany Tiger, with all its power could not prevent his selection on the first ballot.

A DINNER PARTY

Given This Evening by Mrs. Fred Sellemeyer For Miss Leverton.

A Prayer.

The day returns and brings us the petty round of irritating concerns and duties. Help us to play the man, help us to perform them with laughter and kind faces, let cheerfulness abound with industry. Give us to go blithely on our business all this day, bring us to our resting beds, weary and content and undishonored and grant us in the end the gift of sleep. Amen.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Oscar Fritzinger, the well known Root township man, was forty-nine years old Sunday, and in honor of the event his wife arranged a very well-executed surprise party for the occasion. The event turned out to have a surprise feature for two of Mrs. Fritzinger's sisters and their families, also, who were guests, because of the fact that their brother, George Dutcher, of Ohio, who had not been here for twenty-two years, had arrived unexpectedly at the Fritzinger home and was waiting to greet them. At noon a dinner that made the table stagger beneath the weight of good things, was spread, and there were other features that made the day one to be long remembered. Other guests were E. Fritzinger and wife of this city, Bob Fritzinger and family, John and Sam Fuhrman and families, Mr. and Mrs. Al Fritzinger and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Magley.

On account of the conference, the M. E. Missionary society will meet Tuesday instead of Thursday this week at the home of Mrs. Emma Daniels, who will be assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Sylvester Spangler. Mrs. Jonas Tritch will have charge of the program, which will carry out a line of study on "Porto Rico; The Island and People." The membership is urged to attend.

Mrs. Fred Sellemeyer will give a 6 o'clock dinner this evening in honor of Miss Leverton, the state inspector of the Pythian Sisters' Lodge, who will be here this evening to inspect the local Lodge. Other guests will be Mrs. Wilson Lee, Mrs. Fred Linn, Mrs. Charles Elzey, Mrs. D. B. Erwin, Mrs. Fred Vaughn and Mrs. O. L. Vance and daughter, LeeAnna, and Mrs. M. V. B. Archbold of Fort Wayne.

The Salem Aid society which was to have met with Mrs. O. C. Walters Thursday afternoon of this week, has postponed their meeting two weeks on account of the measles. The next meeting will be April 20th with Mrs. O. C. Walters.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lord of Monmouth gave a family Sunday dinner party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Woiford, who recently returned from Arkansas. All the children and their families of Mr. and Mrs. Lord were present to enjoy the occasion, except two, who live at a distance.

On account of measles in the C. C. Wilder family, the Concord Ladies' Aid society which was to have met Wednesday at their home, will be entertained instead at the home of Mrs. Dwight Wilder.

The Misses Alice Knapp and Lydia Miller of this city were entertained at dinner Sunday by Miss Hulda Bauer at the Herman Sellemeyer home south of the city.

Mrs. Fred Mills will entertain the Young Matrons' club this week.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, Our brother, T. W. Watts, has again proven his loyalty to a righteous cause; and
