NEWS FROM THE COURT HOUSE

A divorce case, Thomas F. Mulligan vs. Anna B. Mulligan, divorce, from Allen county was filed here. C. J. Lut is local attorney.

Attorney D. B. Erwin filed a new case, Elizabeth Rice et al vs. H. H. Hart et al, partition.

In the cause of Hattie Studabaker, to vacate alley, a change of venue was granted, the court sending the case to the Allen Superior court.

John C. Leiter vs. Laura A. VanCamp, claim $500, change of venue to Wells county granted.

It is now said that the grand jury will be called to investigate some of the testimony given by applicants for saloon license.

Deputy Clerk D. O. Roop is busily engaged in making up the probate court records for the opening of the April term of court, which begins next Monday without an interval of vacation.

The claim of $125 of E. Wilson & Company against Laura A. VanCamp, executrix, was allowed in the sum of $110, the estate to bear the costs.

OFF FOR CONFERENCE.

Rev. L. S. Fisher, presiding elder of the Indianapolis district of the Evangelical church, whose home is at Kokomo, transferred here on his way to Berne to be in attendance at the conference which is now being held in that town. He is a member of the board of examiners who will take part in the examination of candidates for the ministry, which took place yesterday. Rev. J. W. Feller of West Salem, Mrs. A. W. Feller and Mr. F. F. Feller of Brownstown and Rev. D. O. Wise of this city were also among the number who left to be in attendance.

SOCIETY

Happy Easter Thoughts.
So long Thy power hath blest me,
sure it still
Will lead me on
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone,
And with the morn those angel faces smile
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile!
--John Henry Newman.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church held its last meeting of the year Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Emma Daniel, who was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Sylvester Spangler. In spite of the disagreeable weather there was a large attendance and an unusually interesting meeting. The study was of Porto Rico, with Mrs. J. C. Tritch, leader. The treasurer's report of the finances of the year shows that this society during the year has contributed to home mission causes the sum of $400, and Tuesday, in addition to this, the society voted $25 additional to the building fund of the new schools where they are needed. Plans were also considered for the tub sale to be held April 20th and 21st. At this sale which will be held in the church parlors, there will be a stock of good, new washable tub clothing, and in the evening of the 20th the ladies will give a dinner in the church. The meeting Tuesday closed with a social period, during which refreshments made their appearance.

The Euterpeans met with Miss Ruby Miller last evening and enjoyed a session of delightful study. The program was in two parts, "Music in Russia" and "Anton Rubenstein." In the absence of Mrs. Schirmeyer who is out of town, Miss Miller had charge of the program alone. A vocal duet by Midge Smith and Marie Patterson, and piano solos by Mrs. Fred Fruchte, Etta Mallonee.

Miss Edna Hoffman and Miss Bessie Schrock, a vocal trio by Mrs. E. B. Adams, Misses Midge Smith and Marie Patterson, and a vocal song, "Like Unto a Flower" in German by Mrs. Eugene Runyon were much appreciated. Miss Eva Adelsperger of South Bend was an out of town guest. Mrs. Fred Patterson will be hostess at the next meeting, April 20th.

Miss Eva Adelsperger, a teacher in the South Bend schools, is spending her vacation here, the guest of her aunts, Mrs. Victoria Hill and Miss Eva Hill.

Mrs. Fred Mills will entertain the Young Matrons' club with a number of guests, at her home Friday evening.

The Needlecraft club will be entertained Thursday evening by Miss and piano solos by Mrs. Fred Fruchte, Etta Mallonee.
