Governor Marshall, acting upon the opinion of Mr. New, his law clerk, has issued an order to W. H. Rudder, secretary of the state board of pharmacy, instructing him "to revoke all licenses of pharmacists who can be shown to be engaged in the willful and persistent sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage." It marks the beginning of the end of this traffic and means that eventually "dry" territory will be "dry." The "blind tiger" is a menace to any community, since it directly violates the law, and this action means the beginning of a campaign against them.

One of the best bills ever introduced in congress is that known as the Farmers' Free List bill. It should and no doubt will pass the house. It provides that many of the commodities used not only by the farmer but by the tradesman, the laborer, and every one else be placed on the free list. It includes agricultural implements, lumber, flour, sewing machines, leather, meats, and fifty other lines, necessary to keep life in our bodies and clothes on our back, and aside from politics is a great measure.

The recall bill in Washington state was tested Tuesday when Mayor Fawcett, a friend of the people, was ousted and a millionaire put in his place. Fawcett put through an anti-treating ordinance. The brewers objected and the mayor was recalled, the election having attached to it the usual

The Misses Erwin and Atz Entertain—Notes of the Clubs.

Life Lines.

What you attain by chance you soon tire of, but what you gain by work, you appreciate.—John Emery White.

CLUB CALENDAR FOR WEEK.

Thursday.

Presbyterian Aid—Mrs. Jacob Atz. Euterpean—Mrs. Fred Patterson. Helping Hand—Miss Lizzie Knapp. Needlecraft—Miss Celia Mayer. Orient—Mrs. Charles Hower.

Salem Aid—Mrs. William Alfather. Baptist Aid—Laura Lake.

The Salem Evangelical Aid society met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. William Alfather, east of the city, where they closed the year's work and made plans for the new one, among the most definite one at present being arranging for more quilting. The church begins the new year under the pastorate of the Rev. E. D. Jones, formerly of East Germantown, Ohio, who will reside in Willshire, Ohio, as that is the most central place on his circuit, which also includes the Calvary, Mt. Carmel and Chattanooga, Ohio, churches. Mr. Jones succeeds the Rev. E. R. Roop, who has been assigned to Portland. Mrs. O. C. Walters will entertain the society in four weeks.

For the first time in several weeks the girls of the Needlecraft club were all together Thursday evening, Miss Celia Mayer being hostess. There was music by the Misses Etta Maloney and Vernie Smith and others, and an interesting contest, in which double questions were to be answered by words in which the letter "I" was to be inserted, thus making two words for the two answers. During the course of the evening the hostess served a very fine lunch. Guests besides club members were the Misses Helen Sheets and Flora Gotsch. Miss Clara Welland will entertain the club next Thursday evening.

The making of sunbonnets for their sales department busied the "Helping Hands" of the German Reformed church at the home of Miss Lizzie Knapp Thursday afternoon, after which tempting refreshments made their appearance, and a very good social period closed a successful meeting. A report from the apron and pastry sale conducted recently by this society, showed the clearing of the sum of $20.01. Mrs. Fred Heuer will be hostess to the society in two weeks.

A very good attendance was in evidence Thursday afternoon at the meeting of the Baptist Ladies' Aid society at the home of Mrs. Loren Lake on Decatur street. Hemming of napkins for Mrs. U. S. Cress, and other needle work consumed their time, a social spirit reigning over all as their needles flew to and fro, these being laid aside later for delicious refreshments which were served by the hostess.

The Misses Ireta Erwin and Lulu Atz are entertaining a company of girl friends in attendance at the oratorical contest today, Miss Erwin being hostess at a dinner today and Miss Atz to entertain at supper and this evening. The party will include besides the hostesses, the following: Osa Beittler, Kathryn Egley, Cora Beittler, Gertrude Hirsch, Hazel Burd, Auleta Stengel, Daisy Miesberger, Eva Sprunger, Esther Bixler, of Berne; Miss Hermina Ashbaucher, instructor in art and music in the Geneva schools; Pearl Baumgartner of Linn Grove, Alice Dailey and Irene Smith.

The Presbyterian Ladies' society enjoyed a delightful afternoon Thursday at the home of Mrs. Jacob Atz, that lady being assisted in entertaining by Mrs. E. H. Lyon. The devotional and social periods were highly enjoyable and a very fine piano duet was rendered by Doris DeVoss and Pearl Lyon. There was a good attendance and tempting refreshments were served.

The Ladies' Aid society of the St. Luke's Reformed church met at the home of Mrs. Henry Borne Thursday and enjoyed a good time. Those present were Mesdames Henry Borne, Marcus Jahn, Frank Yager, Jacob Borne, William Bracht, Wesley Mankey and son, Christian Mankey, John Limenstoll, Fred Hubner, William Shoaf, Albert Reppert, Henry Hilde, Henry Pressdorf, Ben Liniger, Joshua Bright, William Bleneke, Jacob Barger, John Borne, Henry Fruchte, Carl Dick, Ed Barber; Misses Lulu Jahn, Katie Barger, Christetta Borne, Vivian Jahn, Lola Partrish, Manda Fruchte; Rev. N. Vitz, Defiance, Ohio; Rev. O. Vitz, Vera Cruz; Rev. Otto Vitz, Louisville, Ky.

Last Sunday evening Herman Selking celebrated his twenty-first birthday at his home in Allen county, near Hoagland, and the evening was spent playing games and enjoying a good time. At 11 o'clock a lunch was served. Those present were Messrs. Christ Alfeld, Henry Moldthorn, John Koenemann, William Moldthorn, John Fackler, Edwin Hearrold, Ben Kaiser, Philip Kaiser, Godfred Kaiser, Martin Kaiser, Charles Messersmidt, Victor Hearrold, William Haderhorst, William Hoffman, Herman Bohnke, Fred Bohnke, Martin Quandt, August Franke, Jacob Aeff, Walter Aeff, and Misses Emelia Bohnke, Lizzie Koenemann, Lisetta Aeff, Clara and Carrie Fackler and Lizzie Bohnke.

Mesdames W. A. Kuebler, C. D. Murray, Florence DeVilbiss, Fanny Cole and Mrs. J. B. Reuss of Fort Wayne went to Bluffton today where they were entertained at the Bliss hotel by Mrs. Dell Locke.

Last evening was art study for the Euterpeans at the home of Mrs. Fred Patterson, the evening being devoted to Burne-Jones, with Mrs. J. W. Tyndall in charge of the program. The music section is planning for a May party to be given soon, but definite plans have not yet been made.

Tom Reid will give a house warming and boat painting at his cottage at Rome City Monday and Tuesday, and many are anticipating attending.

Mrs. Fanny Cole will be the guest of honor at a luncheon to be given tomorrow noon by Mrs. E. B. Adams and Miss Bess Schrock at the Adams home.

Mrs. Florence DeVilbiss and daughter, Mrs. Fanny Cole, were entertained today by Mrs. Del Locke at Bluffton.

ATHLETIC MEET.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the scene shifted to Steele's park, where the athletic contest was held, some thirty boys from the Decatur schools and equal number from the Berne and Geneva schools, taking part in this. The rains of the night, while they did not put this part of the contest wholly out of commission, did much to mar it, as running in the mud is somewhat difficult, as every body knows, and this did much to lessen the speed. R. J. Walters, superintendent of the Warren schools, served as principal referee, and he was assisted at various times by G. W. Horton of the Geneva schools, Mr. Huff of the Berne schools and M. F.

The Secret Of Popularity

Is simply the secret of good clothes and that is the secret of our success.

IT IS A BIG QUESTION

But we have devoted years to solving it so it requires only a little of your time and thought when you come here to buy clothes.

Our policy is to satisfy everybody who comes here for wearing apparel and our success is the proof of our ability to do so.

Tout Bon 4297. Color, red roan; 4 years old; weight, 1900 pounds. To insure a colt to stand and suck, $15. Parties parting with mares before known to be in foal forfeit insurance.

These two great horses were imported by Frisinger & Sprunger of Decatur, Ind. These two horses have won a reputation as wonderful breeders of both size and quality. Parties wishing to improve their stock should inspect these two great sires.

They will make the season of 1911 at the barn of A. Q. Durbin on the Laugher farm at Pleasant Valley, Monroe township, at usual place. The importers of these horses will say that they contain as good breeding as come from Europe. Breeders are invited to see these horses before breeding. Care will be taken to prevent accidents but will not be responsible should any occur.
