It is to be regretted that the labor leaders arrested for dynamiting were not given a hearing before they were rushed out of the state, but no just criticism can be made as to Governor Marshall's action. The requisition was in regular form and he could do nothing but grant same.

The voters of Root township will decide Friday of this week whether or not the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be prohibited. There is but one saloon in the township, located at Williams, on the north line of the township. The campaign has been a quiet one and the vote is likely to be light.

Have you cleaned the yard? The time is here for the work, important for your health, for the appearance of the city, for the general good and welfare of the community. We remember a few years ago when Decatur had a regular "clean-up" day. While such jobs are usually thankless ones, they are never-the-less worth the doing and we hope the committee will get busy again. If they don't it's up to every property owner or renter to get busy individually.

The arrest of McNamara and McManis, charged with having dynamited the Los Angeles Times building, and taken part in other affairs of the kind, bids fair to widen the breach between labor and capital. Criticism of the courts, the other officials and the detectives, who took part, will do no good. What the people of the country will want is to know whether or not these men are guilty of the atrocious charges against them. If they are, it is probable that all men, of every station will want them punished. If not, then an almost unpardonable injury has been done these men. The evidence is now desired.

SERIOUSLY SICK

Representative Jacob Butcher of Geneva Suffering From

A SERIOUS MALADY

Hardening of Liver--Lost Fifty Pounds in Weight
--Other Sick Notes.

Attorney F. S. Armantrout, of the law firm of Butcher & Armantrout of Geneva, was a business visitor in the city today. When here, he told of the serious condition of his partner, Representative Jacob Butcher, who has been sick the past five weeks with hardening of the liver. During his illness Mr. Butcher has lost fifty pounds in weight and his condition is quite serious. Mr. Butcher is one of the veterans of the Civil war, and is well known over the county, his many friends learning with much regret of his illness. Mr. Butcher was elected representative to the state legislature from Adams county, serving during the session just closed.

Dorsey Hoagland, who has been sick with typhoid fever for several weeks, but who had been recovering, suffered a sinking spell this morning and for a while was quite sick. He rallied, however, and it is thought will get along all right now.

Robert, little son of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Mills, who had been dangerously sick with measles, pneumonia and other complications, is recovered sufficiently to walk about the yard.

Mrs. William Hoffman, aged seventy, living south of Peterson, who has been seriously sick with pneumonia the past week, is very low and it is thought can survive but a short while. She is the mother of Mrs. E. Fritzinger, Mrs. William Fansler and Mrs. Bob Gregory.

Sixty or more of the members of the congregation of the Christian church formed a party that called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Weaver Monday evening to bid farewell to their daughter, Mrs. Sadie Cowley, who is soon to go to Fort Wayne to make her future home, Mrs. Cowley having served faithfully and well for many years as organist for the church. As a slight mark of their appreciation of her services they presented her with a set of silver table and teaspoons and many good wishes to speed her on her way. Games and music were enjoyed and later, refreshments, consisting of tutti-frutti, dark and light cake and coffee, were served by Mrs. Weaver and assistants. Mrs. L. B. Brokaw and daughter, Eva, who are also going to Fort Wayne to make their home, Mr. Brokaw being employed there, were guests at the party. It is with the deepest regret that the congregation sees Mrs. Cowley go. Her sister, Mrs. G. C. Steele, will serve as organist for the church in her stead.

Mrs. C. M. Hower went to Craigville today, and tomorrow will be joined by Mr. Hower in attending the wedding of his niece, Miss Harriet Hower, daughter of B. F. Hower, the Craigville merchant. The wedding will take place Wednesday noon at the home of the bride's parents, the groom being Robert Hoover, a well known young man of Ossian. The relatives of both parties will be guests, a wedding dinner following the ceremony. The bride is known here, having visited occasionally with her uncle and other relatives. She is a young lady of merit, quite popular with her large circle of friends, and for some time has served as assistant in her father's store at Craigville. The young couple will make their home in Ossian.

Mrs. Mary Meyers, living south of the city, very pleasantly entertained Sunday at her home in honor of her daughter, Miss Ella's birthday by inviting several of her friends to help spend the day. The party went to the home early in the morning and at noon partook of a sumptuous dinner which had been spread for the occasion. The party from this city included Misses Bertha Voglewede, Elizabeth Voglewede and Rosa Eagen; also Attorney Edward Meyers of Fort Wayne, a brother of Miss Ella.

Mrs. J. E. Coarding, who lately removed to this city to live, was the guest over night and today of Mrs.

John Robinson, east of the city.

Relatives in this city of Clyde Callow have received invitations to the commencement exercises of the Wren Ohio, high school of which he is a member. The commencement will be held Thursday evening, May 4th, and the baccalaureate sermon will be given next Sunday evening. Lloyd is a son of Sherman Callow and a nephew of Mrs. J. A. Smith.

Miss Lena Meyers was given a happy surprise Sunday evening in celebration of her twentieth birth anniversary, the affair being arranged by her sister, Miss Anna, and carried out with the assistance of twenty-two of her friends. In an interesting series of games, first prizes were won by Miss Alice Knapp and Mr. Fred Hess. An interesting contest was one, in which each person was given a name of a fruit or flower to which he was to answer instead of his own name. Any one calling the guests by names other than the one given, was to forfeit one of thirty grains of corn given to each. At the conclusion of the evening, Irene Garard and Lawrence Biggs were found to be the winners. Refreshments were served. Miss Lena was the recipient of a handsome pearl ring, with best wishes of the party. Out-of-town guests were Lena Dodane and Della Ehrman of Fort Wayne.

Misses Ruth Shaffer, Alta Hart and Messrs. Howard Miller, Gilbert Shaffer of Monroeville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Mumma, where she has been ill for several months, with what is known as entero-colitis, and owing to the nature of this disease her improvement is slow, but she is now able to go out of doors, which is a great benefit to her. If her improvement continues as it has she probably will be able to return to her home near Monroeville in a few weeks. Mrs. Stewart was formerly Miss Josie Mumma.

John G. Hoffman and daughter, Rosa, left this morning for South Chicago, where they will attend the wedding of Mr. Hoffman's nephew, Fred, who is a well known young real estate man. The groom is the son of Chris Hoffman of Ohio, formerly of Allen county, and is known to many here.

The Queen Esther band of the Methodist church will meet Friday evening at the home of Estella Chronister, where, assisted by Miss Ethel Butler, they will give a ten cent social. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody to attend. A program will be given.

The C. B. L. of I. will give another of their popular dances at their hall on next Thursday evening and arrangements relative thereto are already under way for the carrying on of the evening's entertainment.

The reception to be given this evening at the Methodist church parlors for the new pastor, the Rev. Semans, and family, will be a very cordial one, and everybody is invited to attend and extend a word of welcome to them.

The Evangelical Ladies' Aid society will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. J. A. Smith at the parsonage.

Miss Bertha Drummond returned to her home in Pleasant Mills after an extended visit with friends and relatives here.
