"ON TO MEXICO" IS SLOGAN.

Medero and His Army of Insurgents Will March on Chihuahua Soon.

(United Press Service.)

El Paso, Tex., May 11.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—"On to Mexico City" was the slogan of the Mexican insurgents today. Within a week it is predicted that Medero will be on the march to Chihuahua, expecting to capture the city. He has not announced his plans, but Gonsoles, the provisional governor, has stated this is the next move. Martial law prevails in Juarez today, no one being allowed to cross from the American side. It is believed a number of prisoners captured yesterday are to be shot.

STATE GRAND JURY ADJOURNS.

B. W. Sholtz has returned from Indianapolis, where he served as a federal grand juror. Forty-two indictments were returned by the federal grand jury, which adjourned after a session of nine days. The work of the session was successful in every way and would have been completed last week had it not been that a witness was unable to appear until Tuesday. The indictments include several charges of counterfeiting and a large number of alleged violations of pure food laws.

Among the persons indicted are Frank Addison, a Spanish-American war veteran, charged with having stolen shirts and shoes from the Indiana Soldiers' home at Marion; John H. Belcher, a rural mail carrier at South Bend, charged with removing postage stamps from letters and affixing cancelled stamps; Edward M. Shell of Fort Wayne, charged with using the United States mails to defraud; Leo Lebote, charged with robbing the postoffice at Clymers, Ind.; and Mike Phillips, John B. Toth and Alador Golgacy, Hungarians of Lake county, charged with a conspiracy to obtain a certificate of citizenship for the latter.

True bills charging counterfeiting were returned against Jesse Hendon and Fred Milburn of Indianapolis, said to have passed counterfeit silver dollars; William H. Lenninger, charged with passing counterfeit silver dollars; John B. Allen of Logansport, charged with raising a silver dollar certificate to $20, and Adam Ranke of Gary, charged with passing counterfeit 50-cent pieces. Several of the persons arrested for counterfeiting have been arrested previously on similar charges. Arraignment day was set for May 17th.
