

The Better The Grade
The Bigger The Trade

Charlie Voglewede
The Shoe Seller

WEATHER FORECAST

Unsettled; local showers tonight or Thursday; warmer Thursday.

Miss Mamie Teeple went to Fort Wayne this morning.

William Sheler has returned from a business trip to Berne.

Jesse Niblick was teasing the finny tribe at Rome City today.

Mrs. Glen Glancy of Monroe was a shopper in this city this morning.

William Weiland of West Monroe street is ill, requiring the services of a physician.

Paul Reinking, who was a business caller at Portland this morning, has returned home.

Hunter Myers has gone to Portland and Muncie to look after business matters for a few days.

Mrs. Mitchell Page and sons, Harold and Edwin, went to Fort Wayne yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus returned to Paulding, Ohio, yesterday, where they will reside in the future.

Mrs. V. Leach returned last evening to Fort Wayne after a few days' visit with Mrs. Belle Johnson.

Painters are at work on the John Brock residence on Monroe street, which is being renewed in a very pleasing way.

Banking service is not an expensive luxury. Some of the greatest services we perform cost our clients absolutely nothing.

Banking him make his income go farther, and to Service turn some of it into a permanent asset.

The small business man needs this bank's help to make his business grow.

This bank is here to serve all the people, and its officers will be glad to talk to any having need of banking service.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF DECATUR
CAPITAL $100,000.

J. S. Bowers, Pres. F. M. Schirmeyer, Vice Pres.

The Bowers Realty Company has some excellent bargains in city property and Adams county farms. The company would be pleased to have you call at its office and see its offerings. The company has plenty of five per cent money to loan on reasonable terms. Let the Schirmeyer Abstract Company prepare your abstract of title. Twenty years experience, complete records.

The Bowers Realty Co.
French Quinn, Secy.

Marion Oliver of Monroe was here today on business.

Bruce Patterson was a business caller at Monroe this afternoon.

Mrs. Ves Venis returned this afternoon to her home in Hoagland.

John Steele went to Fort Wayne to be the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Wilson Miller.

T. L. Reed of Portland has returned home after being a business caller here this morning.

Miss Clara Linneheimer, who has been visiting at her home at Preble, returned this morning to Fort Wayne.

John McKean of Linn Grove has returned to his home, having been a business caller in the city this morning.

Mrs. C. M. Myers returned this morning to Celina, Ohio, after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Mary Fullenkamp.

John McKain of Linn Grove was among the business callers in the city this morning, returning to his home at noon.

Bernice Rowe of Portland has returned to her home, having been the guest of Miss Naomi Dugan for several days.

John E. Dean of Willshire transferred here this noon on his way to Richmond to look after some business matters.

Miss Frances Thomas of Monroe, who has been making a visit at the John Starost home, returned today to her home.

Mrs. Clifford Lee will be hostess to the Evangelical Ladies' Aid society Thursday afternoon. A good attendance is desired.

Mrs. Ed Ahr and her mother, Mrs. B. P. Harkless and Miss Perilla Mumma went to Fort Wayne this morning to spend the day.

Mrs. Edward Harting and Miss Mary Heckman left this morning for Rome City, where they will spend a week or so at that summer resort.

George Wood of Trumbull county, Ohio, was here yesterday to take treatment for his eyes and will remain a few days longer, the guest of relatives.

Mrs. Agnes Melchers, who has been ill, returned to her work at stenographer for the Peterson & Moran law firm, after a half day's absence on account of illness.

The Misses Margaret Runyan, Jane Meriwether, Cecil Bradshaw and Margaret Gross will return this evening from a farm near Decatur, where they have been spending a short time.—Ft. Wayne News.

Mrs. Jacob Tester and her sister, Mrs. Samuel Foudray, of Waverly, Ky., left this morning for Liberty Center, Henry county, Ohio, for a visit with the former's mother-in-law, Mrs. Geo. Tester, and with their sister, Mrs. F. W. Rhoades.

Mrs. Mary Suttle went to Berne to visit with relatives and to make arrangements relative to her going to Battle Creek, Mich., for a several months' stay for her declining health, where she was advised would prove to be of much benefit to her.

Rev. Ferguson, moderator of the Ft. Wayne presbytery, who presided over and delivered the sermon at the installation and ordination of the Rev. William H. Gleiser at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, left this morning for his home at Lima, Ind.

Rev. and Mrs. Wehmeyer and son, George, went to Fort Wayne this morning and this evening will attend the concert to be given by the Orpheus Glee club of the Concordia Seminary of St. Louis. The program will be one of rare make-up, and many will be in attendance to listen to the musical notes of interest.

Jesse Ernsberger of Celina, Ohio, made a business trip here this afternoon. He was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Elzey and granddaughter, Mildred, and Miss Hazel Lenhart, who will make a visit there until Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Elzey's son, Irvin Elzey, and family. Irvin Elzey's daughter, Mildred, had been visiting here some time with her grandparents.

A. A. Feller, state agent for the J. I. Case Plow works, stated that he struck a wrong day for business this morning when he called at the Schaub & Gottmoller hardware store, and was told that the proprietor had just become a benedict and was unable to carry on his business today. However, he excused him this time, but was invited to the wedding, which he says, will suffice for this time.

Mrs. P. E. Miehls went to Decatur last Friday to visit friends and relatives and celebrate her birthday anniversary, and found a bunch of her friends had gathered to drive to Monroe, having planned to surprise her. The visiting friends were Mrs. John Hill, Gayle Tricker, Velma Lenhart, Lucy and Blanch McCrary, James Dean, Ben Hoagland, Lester Baughman and Ernest Winsor.—Ft. Wayne News.

Marion Oliver of Monroe was here today on business.

Bruce Patterson was a business caller at Monroe this afternoon.

Mrs. Ves Venis returned this afternoon to her home in Hoagland.

John Steele went to Fort Wayne to be the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Wilson Miller.

T. L. Reed of Portland has returned home after being a business caller here this morning.

Miss Clara Linneheimer, who has been visiting at her home at Preble, returned this morning to Celina, Ohio, after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Mary Fullenkamp.

John McKain of Linn Grove was among the business callers in the city this morning, returning to his home at noon.

Bernice Rowe of Portland has returned to her home, having been the guest of Miss Naomi Dugan for several days.

John E. Dean of Willshire transferred here this noon on his way to Richmond to look after some business matters.

Miss Frances Thomas of Monroe, who has been making a visit at the John Starost home, returned today to her home.

Mrs. Clifford Lee will be hostess to the Evangelical Ladies' Aid society Thursday afternoon. A good attendance is desired.

Mrs. Ed Ahr and her mother, Mrs. B. P. Harkless and Miss Perilla Mumma went to Fort Wayne this morning to spend the day.

George Wood of Trumbull county, Ohio, was here yesterday to take treatment for his eyes and will remain a few days longer, the guest of relatives.

Mrs. Agnes Melchers, who has been ill, returned to her work at stenographer for the Peterson & Moran law firm, after a half day's absence on account of illness.

The Misses Margaret Runyan, Jane Meriwether, Cecil Bradshaw and Margaret Gross will return this evening from a farm near Decatur, where they have been spending a short time.—Ft. Wayne News.

Marion Oliver of Monroe was here today on business.

Bruce Patterson was a business caller at Monroe this afternoon.

Mrs. Ves Venis returned this afternoon to her home in Hoagland.

John Steele went to Fort Wayne to be the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Wilson Miller.

T. L. Reed of Portland has returned home after being a business caller here this morning.

Miss Clara Linneheimer, who has been visiting at her home at Preble, returned this morning to Celina, Ohio, after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Mary Fullenkamp.

John McKain of Linn Grove was among the business callers in the city this morning, returning to his home at noon.

Bernice Rowe of Portland has returned to her home, having been the guest of Miss Naomi Dugan for several days.

John E. Dean of Willshire transferred here this noon on his way to Richmond to look after some business matters.

Miss Frances Thomas of Monroe, who has been making a visit at the John Starost home, returned today to her home.

Mrs. Clifford Lee will be hostess to the Evangelical Ladies' Aid society Thursday afternoon. A good attendance is desired.

Mrs. Ed Ahr and her mother, Mrs. B. P. Harkless and Miss Perilla Mumma went to Fort Wayne this morning to spend the day.

George Wood of Trumbull county, Ohio, was here yesterday to take treatment for his eyes and will remain a few days longer, the guest of relatives.

Mrs. Agnes Melchers, who has been ill, returned to her work at stenographer for the Peterson & Moran law firm, after a half day's absence on account of illness.

The Misses Margaret Runyan, Jane Meriwether, Cecil Bradshaw and Margaret Gross will return this evening from a farm near Decatur, where they have been spending a short time.—Ft. Wayne News.

Marion Oliver of Monroe was here today on business.

Bruce Patterson was a business caller at Monroe this afternoon.

Mrs. Ves Venis returned this afternoon to her home in Hoagland.

John Steele went to Fort Wayne to be the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Wilson Miller.

T. L. Reed of Portland has returned home after being a business caller here this morning.

Miss Clara Linneheimer, who has been visiting at her home at Preble, returned this morning to Celina, Ohio, after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Mary Fullenkamp.

John McKain of Linn Grove was among the business callers in the city this morning, returning to his home at noon.

Bernice Rowe of Portland has returned to her home, having been the guest of Miss Naomi Dugan for several days.

John E. Dean of Willshire transferred here this noon on his way to Richmond to look after some business matters.

Miss Frances Thomas of Monroe, who has been making a visit at the John Starost home, returned today to her home.

Mrs. Clifford Lee will be hostess to the Evangelical Ladies' Aid society Thursday afternoon. A good attendance is desired.

Mrs. Ed Ahr and her mother, Mrs. B. P. Harkless and Miss Perilla Mumma went to Fort Wayne this morning to spend the day.

George Wood of Trumbull county, Ohio, was here yesterday to take treatment for his eyes and will remain a few days longer, the guest of relatives.

Mrs. Agnes Melchers, who has been ill, returned to her work at stenographer for the Peterson & Moran law firm, after a half day's absence on account of illness.

The Misses Margaret Runyan, Jane Meriwether, Cecil Bradshaw and Margaret Gross will return this evening from a farm near Decatur, where they have been spending a short time.—Ft. Wayne News.

Marion Oliver of Monroe was here today on business.

Bruce Patterson was a business caller at Monroe this afternoon.

Mrs. Ves Venis returned this afternoon to her home in Hoagland.

John Steele went to Fort Wayne to be the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Wilson Miller.

T. L. Reed of Portland has returned home after being a business caller here this morning.

Miss Clara Linneheimer, who has been visiting at her home at Preble, returned this morning to Celina, Ohio, after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Mary Fullenkamp.

John McKain of Linn Grove was among the business callers in the city this morning, returning to his home at noon.

Bernice Rowe of Portland has returned to her home, having been the guest of Miss Naomi Dugan for several days.

John E. Dean of Willshire transferred here this noon on his way to Richmond to look after some business matters.

Miss Frances Thomas of Monroe, who has been making a visit at the John Starost home, returned today to her home.

Mrs. Clifford Lee will be hostess to the Evangelical Ladies' Aid society Thursday afternoon. A good attendance is desired.

Mrs. Ed Ahr and her mother, Mrs. B. P. Harkless and Miss Perilla Mumma went to Fort Wayne this morning to spend the day.

George Wood of Trumbull county, Ohio, was here yesterday to take treatment for his eyes and will remain a few days longer, the guest of relatives.

Mrs. Agnes Melchers, who has been ill, returned to her work at stenographer for the Peterson & Moran law firm, after a half day's absence on account of illness.

The Misses Margaret Runyan, Jane Meriwether, Cecil Bradshaw and Margaret Gross will return this evening from a farm near Decatur, where they have been spending a short time.—Ft. Wayne News.

Marion Oliver of Monroe was here today on business.

Bruce Patterson was a business caller at Monroe this afternoon.

Mrs. Ves Venis returned this afternoon to her home in Hoagland.

John Steele went to Fort Wayne to be the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Wilson Miller.

T. L. Reed of Portland has returned home after being a business caller here this morning.

Miss Clara Linneheimer, who has been visiting at her home at Preble, returned this morning to Celina, Ohio, after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Mary Fullenkamp.

John McKain of Linn Grove was among the business callers in the city this morning, returning to his home at noon.

Bernice Rowe of Portland has returned to her home, having been the guest of Miss Naomi Dugan for several days.

John E. Dean of Willshire transferred here this noon on his way to Richmond to look after some business matters.

Miss Frances Thomas of Monroe, who has been making a visit at the John Starost home, returned today to her home.

Mrs. Clifford Lee will be hostess to the Evangelical Ladies' Aid society Thursday afternoon. A good attendance is desired.

Mrs. Ed Ahr and her mother, Mrs. B. P. Harkless and Miss Perilla Mumma went to Fort Wayne this morning to spend the day.

George Wood of Trumbull county, Ohio, was here yesterday to take treatment for his eyes and will remain a few days longer, the guest of relatives.

Mrs. Agnes Melchers, who has been ill, returned to her work at stenographer for the Peterson & Moran law firm, after a half day's absence on account of illness.

The Misses Margaret Runyan, Jane Meriwether, Cecil Bradshaw and Margaret Gross will return this evening from a farm near Decatur, where they have been spending a short time.—Ft. Wayne News.

Marion Oliver of Monroe was here today on business.

Bruce Patterson was a business caller at Monroe this afternoon.

Mrs. Ves Venis returned this afternoon to her home in Hoagland.

John Steele went to Fort Wayne to be the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Wilson Miller.