How'd you like to be the ice man?

While we are grunting about the weather and most of us deploring the fact that it's a hard time to make things go in a business way, don't overlook the fact that the ice man, the ice cream manufacturer and dealer, the merchant who sells hot weather goods, and the boy who lives near the swimmin' hole, all like it.

President Taft's Fourth of July visit to Indiana was a carefully planned attempt to solidify the republicans of the state to get them to back ex-Vice President Fairbanks in a grand rally for the president. The love feast was held as scheduled and the proposition cheered, but when the real line-up was talked over the next day, it proved to be a difficult matter to talk a Berea-ite into a proposition that will boost those who openly fought and defeated the ex-senator. The fight for control of the state will be as bitter as ever.

WEEK'S SOCIAL CALENDAR.

Thursday.

Needlecraft Club—Etta Mallonee.
M. E. Missionary—Dr. J. M. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Whitright pleasantly entertained at their home on Elm street Sunday in honor of their tenth wedding anniversary. The decorations were streamers of crepe paper and vases of sweet peas. A good old-fashioned dinner was served, consisting of all the good things of the season. In the afternoon a miscellaneous shower was given for Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kelley of Fort Jennings, Ohio. Music was furnished by Miss Ruth Kelley of near Monroeville. At 5 o'clock Mrs. Whitright, assisted by Miss Clara Kelley and Mrs. Sylvia Kelley, of Monroeville, served a two-course luncheon, consisting of sandwiches, baked beans, creamed potatoes, salad and coffee, ice cream and cake. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kelley and son, Raymond; the Misses Ruth and Clara Kelley and Mr. H. P. Kelley of near Monroeville; Miss Jessie Daisy of Albion, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ball and son, Harold, of East Liberty; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Kelley and daughter, Irene, of Monroeville; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kelley of Fort Jennings, Ohio; Miss Helen Whitright and the Messrs. Adolph, M. A. and Abe Whitright of this city. The John Bogner home, south of the city, was the scene of much good cheer and pleasure on the Fourth, when the Frank Heckman family and other relatives spent the day in a rather quiet but happy pastime. With well-filled baskets they journeyed to the Bogner home, well knowing the good time that was in store for them, taking full charge of the place, as they had been told to do. The sumptuous spread which was served at noon could not have been more tempting and all done their share of justice to it. Those who composed the party were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heckman and family and daughter, Miss Catherine, of Fort Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. George Tester and son, Harold; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Andrews and daughters, Geraldine and Irene.

Beautiful and impressive was the wedding of Miss Bertha Lammert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lammert, and Mr. Harley Roop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roop, at the bride's home north of the city Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. L. C. Hesser solemnized the wedding. The bride wore a gown of white, with embroidery and lace trimmings. A wedding supper followed, the guests numbering about fifty. They received many fine presents from their friends. The couple will reside on the Joseph Bogner farm.

There was an enjoyable time spent on the Fourth of July at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thamer DeWitt and daughter, Roxie, southwest of Decatur. Ice cream and cake, with plenty of fine fruit were served. The day was spent in an old-fashioned chat. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Norris and daughters, Esther and Alice; Mr. and Mrs. Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. Libby and sons, Lloyd and Walter; Mrs. Melvin Babcock and sons, True and Harry.

The Misses Naomi Niblick, Agnes Melbers, Sylvia Dappleman, Blanch Harshbarger, Anna and Margaret Clark and Messrs. Dick Boch, Otto Green, Stanley Martin, Edgar Gerber, Wilbur Poole and Ralph Amrine formed a picnic party that went out on the 4 o'clock car July Fourth to the Bultmeier grove, where they ate their suppers and had a fire works display in the evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kirsch went to Fort Wayne last evening, where they were guests at a housewarming given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robinson, whose marriage occurred last week. Mrs. Robinson is a sister of Mrs. Kirsch.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brunnegraph celebrated the Fourth in honor of their grandchildren. A sumptuous dinner was served at noon and lunch in the evening. Their daughter, Mrs. R. H. Schwartz, and little daughter, Mary, Agatha, of Champaign, Ill., who are spending several weeks with them, were out-of-town guests.

The Young People's Alliance of the Evangelical church will give a social next Tuesday evening at the E. Schnitz home north of the city.

Those who heard Madame Schumann-Heink in Fort Wayne this spring, and all who are admirers of this famous singer, will be interested in learning of the marriage of her son to an Indiana girl. A Chicago dispatch says: "Hans Schumann-Heink, son of the noted opera singer, Madame Schumann-Heink, while here today married Miss Zella Lina Marker of Evansville, Ind., a pianiste. The romance of the musicians began in Evansville more than a year ago and the bride has since appeared as accompanist for Mr. Schumann-Heink on one of his tours. The bride is twenty-two years old and her husband gave his age as twenty-four."

With the lawn gaily decorated with Japanese lanterns, strung with ropes of tiny American flags, and with the soft moonlight and a delightfully cool breeze that sprung up in the evening, the Orient club enjoyed a very delightful entertainment Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Marsh Burdge, the Fourth of July spirit being manifest in both the decorations and the amusements. The photograph was called into service and delighted the company with many fine national airs. There were conundrums and the ringing of the Liberty Bell. Each guest was blind-folded and then turned around three times, and freed to search for the Liberty Bell which she was to ring. The grand prizes, large silken American flags, were won by Miss Flo Conklin, Mrs. I. Kalver, Mrs. John Stewart and Mrs. Carrie Sutherland, while the boobies, tiny firecrackers, went to Mrs. Wild Dorwin and Mrs. C. D. Lewton. Tables were set on the lawn and there a luncheon in two courses, consisting of pressed chicken, potato salad, relish, coffee, sherbet, cake and fairy kisses, were served. Favors were tiny flags, the staff of which was pressed into the cake. Miss Flo Conklin of Fort Wayne was an out-of-town guest. Mrs. John Stewart will be hostess in two weeks.

Pink and white were the soft, dainty colors that predominated in the friendship shower given Wednesday evening by Mesdames Charles Vogtewede and R. J. Holthouse in compliment to Miss Clara Terveer, whose marriage to Mr. Clem Uhl of Toledo, Ohio, will take place Tuesday, July 18th. The wide archways of the Vogtewede home, where the party was given, hung with fluttering pendants of pink and white hearts, formed vistas through which the many spacious rooms appeared, unusually pretty in their special decorations. Streamers in these same pretty colors formed a roseate maze overhead, as they were caught from the chandelier in the center and festooned to the walls and corners of the rooms. The chandeliers were hooded with pink and white crepe paper caps, and pink and white sweet peas were the floral contribution to the beauty. Many friends of the bride-to-be, gowned in dainty costumes, completed the pretty picture, as they mingled together in friendship, or seated at the little tables arranged throughout the rooms, enjoyed the very appropriate game of the evening, progressive hearts. Prizes in this were won, first, by Miss Bess Tonneller; second by Miss Clara Lang, and third by Miss Tena Corter. Refreshments were served at the little tables following the progressive hearts, and were carried out in the colors of pink and white, very pretty to the eye as well as appealing to the taste. The gifts which were showered upon the guest of honor, together with a myriad of good wishes, consisted of many beautiful things that will find an appropriate and useful place in the new home so soon to be established. They were given in a very pretty and certainly unique way. The centerpiece of the large dining room table was a large green watering-pot, made of green crepe paper. The watering-pot was filled with quantities of pink and white sweet peas, and from the holes of the sprinkler lead baby ribbons of pink and white, each fastened to a gift that lay on the table. The unwrapping and examining of the gifts was no small part of the pleasures of the evening, both to the donors and to the recipient. Out-of-town guests were the Misses Rose Martin, Stella Wemhoff, Blanche Hart, Emma and Catherine Gunkle and Mrs. E. H. Kilbourne of Fort Wayne; Mrs. Charles Millard of Piqua, Ohio; Mrs. Tom Haefling of Indianapolis, and Miss Sylvia Dappleman of Louisville, Ky. Miss Terveer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Terveer, and is a young lady of many personal charms and accomplishments, and possesses a singing voice of much beauty and sweetness that has given pleasure to Decatur audiences on many occasions. The groom is a young business man of Toledo, well known here, where he has often visited, having many relatives here.

There will be a special meeting of the Ben Hurs at their lodge rooms Friday evening and it is expected that all members will be on hand to take part. Important business is scheduled to take place and in addition to this the state manager, P. O. Powers, will be here to greet the members and to address them on some subject pertaining to the lodge. Be sure that you are there to take part. New York, N. Y., July 6—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Although the temperature here today was higher than yesterday, a breeze from the south west brought the first relief from the hot wave.
