NEW BALL TEAM

Reorganization Took Place Monday Evening, With New Management.

THERE WITH GOODS

Leased Grounds at Steele's Park and Already Putting Them in Shape.

A reorganization of a ball team for Decatur has taken place. It can hardly be called a reorganization, since the list of new players will comprise altogether new names, but that a change has taken place since the former team has gone defunct. A spirited meeting was held Monday evening at the Foret Elzy barber shop, at which time Tom Stoneburner was chosen manager, Arthur Ford captain, and Otto Wemhoff was elected secretary and treasurer. A complete lineup has not as yet been made, although several have been assigned and others under consideration. They will try to better the former team all around and with Mr. Ford as captain, they are looking forward to a team that will hold together and with his assistance in former years, they have a strong and active line-up. They have asked the help of the business men, who responded liberally, and with this fund they have made arrangements for the securing of the Steele park grounds between the race track and where the diamond will be laid out at once. It will be known as the "Seipp's Base Ball team," and backed by Isadore Kalver, who has presented to them the suits. They will play their initial game next Sunday, already having a number of engagements from near-by cities desiring to come here. Just who they will bump up against for the first time is undecided, but a good fast game is assured.

Miss Verda and Abbie Bigham entertained a merry crowd at their home on Route 6 Sunday in honor of their cousin, Vela Carpenter, of Delphos, Ohio, who is visiting them at present. They arrived in time for the delicious dinner, which was served at the regular noon hour, which was partaken of very freely. The afternoon was spent in social chat, various games and a stump speech by Oliver Brodbeck, which was very interesting, especially for its humor. A drill was also given by three boys which was very amusing. Those present were Miss Verna Carpenter of Delphos, Ohio; Messrs. Oliver Brodbeck, Charles Brodbeck, Earl Colter, Dave Myers of Pleasant Mills, Mrs. Grace Ward of Bobo, and Misses Verda and Abbie Bigham.

The Misses Marguerite Morris and Irma Foust united in giving a delightful marshmallow bake at the Langard cottage, near Robinson park, Thursday evening. The cottage was gay in the decorations of Jap lanterns and jardinières of field daisies. The lawn was lighted with lanterns and the porch of the cottage was arranged as an out-of-doors living room. Far out in the woods several bonfires were kept burning and over the coals the young people enjoyed roasting marshmallows. At a late hour a dainty supper was served in the yard under the trees from whose branches hung many bright colored lanterns. The tables were decorated with daisies. The guests at this merry affair were the Misses Rose Martin, Hazel Daugherty, Anna Morris, Marie Sullivan, Loretta Harkens, and Ada Deininger of Decatur and Messrs. Edward Keech, Arthur Niebergall, Russell Flagle, Louis Langard, Dayton Abbott, Arthur Geiger and C. H. Landwehr. The merry party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Collins, Mrs. David Bloom and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fouts.—Fort Wayne News.

Miss Jean Lutz, superintendent of the cradle roll department of the Presbyterian Sunday school, has issued unique invitations to the seventy-two babies and their mothers to attend a party to be given in the church parlors, Thursday afternoon. The invitations are in the form of cunning little cradles in which repose the babies. Miss Jean will be assisted by the twenty members of her class in entertaining, a very delightful program of events being outlined, including games, a musical and literary program and refreshments.

Miss Clara Terveer, whose wedding to Mr. Clem Uhl took place this morning, was the guest of honor at a 12 o'clock dinner given at the Hotel Murray Sunday by Miss Marie Allison. Covers were laid for the following: Misses Clara Terveer, Emma Terveer, Marie Allison, Messrs. Clem Uhl, Will Dowling and Bernard Terveer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schultz of Elm street pleasantly entertained a number of relatives and friends at their home in the south part of the city Sunday, guests being Mr. and Mrs. William Pancake and daughters, Verna, Vera and Master Virgil; Mr. and Mrs. Wade McBarnes and children, Victor and Glennys; Mr. William Helm, Miss Edna Stokes.

The Orient club which was to have met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. John Stewart has postponed its meeting on account of Mrs. Stewart's being called to Warren by the illness of her grandmother, Mrs. Aaron Adams.

The Christian Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. A. D. Artman Friday afternoon.

The Misses Nellie Kunderi and Laura Lindemann of Delphos, Ohio, arrived Monday evening and are guests of Miss Agnes Melbers.

Mrs. Lillia M. Ponner and daughter, Vashli, have gone to Rome City for two weeks to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Wagner, and then they will go to Decatur, Ind., to be the guests of Mr. Willis Ponner and family.—Fort Wayne Journal-Gazette.

Miss Tena Rademaker is serving as organist at the St. Mary's church during the absence of Sister Aloysia, who is at the convent at Fond du Lac, Wis., for a few weeks.

Miss Hattie White of Celina, Ohio, was the guest of honor at a 6 o'clock dinner served Sunday evening by Mrs. Solomon P. Sheets, west of the city, and the Sheets home was the scene of much pleasure for some time. The invited guests included, besides Miss White, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mallonee, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Baker, Miss Lela Baker and W. K. McCague of Ossian.

The Misses Alma and Agnes Starost were delightful entertainers Monday evening, the party including the Misses Esther Sellemeyer, Orla Cowan, Margaret Gallogly and Frances Coffee. Music, games and refreshments were enjoyed.

A number of little girls organized a sewing club at Miss Eulalia Wemhoff's home Monday afternoon, taking the name of "Little Busy Bee Sewing Club." The little girls are as follows: Florine Meyer, Agnes Meyer, Florence Holthouse, Pascaline Smith, Margaret Mylott, Helen Gass, Irene Holthouse, Florence Bremerkamp, Irene Schuh, Helen Schuh. The little members sat, busily sewing, from 1 until 2:30. Then they played games and Florence Meyer was the winner of the prize for getting the most peanuts, which were thrown up in the air. A lunch was served and the little girls adjourned to go to their homes, and will meet with Miss Florence Meyer next Thursday afternoon.
