Preble was among the business callers in the city today.

Mrs. Tony Miller went to Fort Wayne this morning to visit with her sister, Mrs. Peter Ladig.

Andrew Gottschalk of Berne was here on business today, probating the will of the late John J. Augsburg.

Mrs. Dr. Erwin of Valparaiso, who has been visiting with the D. B. Erwin family, has gone to Wren, Ohio, for a further visit before returning here.

The interurban did a good business today, carrying the many passengers to and from Fort Wayne, attending the Christian Sunday school picnic, held at Robinson park.

George W. Reynolds of Fort Recovery, Ohio, formerly of Jefferson township, was here yesterday on business.
He has been at Ceylon, being called there by the illness of his mother, Mrs. Michaels.

of Monroeville, and Mrs. S. Fry of Maples.—Fort Wayne News.

The Bowers property on North Third street is undergoing improvement, and when completed will add much to the appearance of that neighborhood. The building has stood so long that it became in a dilapidated condition, for the reason that it has been unoccupied and from the rough usage of the boys to the windows and otherwise, that improvements have become necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hower, who left Sunday for a two weeks' outing, are enjoying themselves. They are making the trip by automobile and visited first with his mother, Mrs.
Daniel Poorman, at St. Paris, Ohio.
They will also go to Dayton, Springfield and other Ohio cities, and then return by way of Connersville and Muncie, Indiana.

ed last evening from a ten days' outing. They visited with friends at Lima, Elkhart, and spent several days at Clinger lake, going from there to visit with the Nachtriebs at Hudson, Mich., and also with the Fred Bell family at Hillsdale. They had a most delightful trip. This was Mr. Patterson's first vacation from duties at the Western Union Telegraph and National express office in eighteen years.

A large party of Bluffton people from the local Baptist church went to Decatur last evening to hear Evangelist Miller, who is conducting a revival meeting there. In the party
