In his speech or lecture rather at Winona this week, Bryan stated that he never again would be a candidate for president. From Winona he went to Petoskey for a brief outing. While there he may meet Governor Marshall and do a little visiting with him, and maybe talk some politics.—Columbia City Post.

The several thousand people who attended the 101 Ranch show Thursday night were surprised when Joseph Miller, one of the owners, rode out and in his address of welcome, announced that the wire fence which surrounds their immense farm near Bliss, Oklahoma, was built by the Ward Fence company of Decatur. It was another proof that our town is on the map, that people from every state recognize us, and Mr. Miller's words were cheered. It made everybody feel even more kindly to the great showman.

Mr. Bryan stands pat as to his statements concerning Mr. Underwood and says he wrote the editorial himself and has no regrets. He offers no additional evidence to convince one that the congressman has been other than honest and the records as referred to by that gentleman will stand. Mr. Underwood has made good as democratic leader, has proven that he has brains, is fearless and honest. So far as known his actions deserve praise rather than criticism and even from one so renowned as the peerless leader, good proof will be necessary to diminish the esteem in which he is held by his countrymen.

COURT HOUSE CLOSED.

The court house will be closed tomorrow from 10 to 12 o'clock on account of the funeral of Mrs. Mary A. Merryman, mother of Judge J. T. Merryman.

SOCIAL DOING

Mrs. Charles Dunn Attends Wedding of Miss Lillian Barmore.

AT BELVIDERE, ILL.

Was Well Known Here—M. E. Ladies Study Alaskan Literature.

Life Lines.

Don't underrate yourself—leave that to others; there are many who will.—John Emery White.

WEEK'S SOCIAL CALENDAR.

Thursday.
M. E. Missionary—Mrs. Mary Eley.
C. W. B. M.—Mrs. Minnie Daniels.

Friday.
Volunteer Class—Mrs. C. Vogt.
Christian Ladies' Aid—Mrs. A. M. Anker.

Mrs. Mary Eley, assisted by Mrs. William Archbold, entertained fifteen members of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church Thursday afternoon, the study, which was in charge of Miss Nellie Blackburn, being on "Alaskan Indian Literature." Mrs. John Niblick gave an excellent talk on the subject and there was the reading of several papers to round out a program of much interest.

Mrs. Charles Dunn attended the wedding of a friend, Miss Lillian Barmore, of Belvidere, Ill. Miss Barmore visited here with the Duns three years ago and will be remembered by her many Decatur friends, who will be pleased to read the following account of the wedding from the Belvidere Daily Republican: "Miss Lillian Mae Barmore of this city and Nelson H. Johnson of Winnipeg, Canada, were united in marriage this forenoon at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. S. J. Barmore, 324 Kishwaukee street. The company of relatives and friends numbered thirty and the wedding was a delightful social event in all its features. The rooms were prettily decorated with sweet peas and greenery. Rev. S. Bryant, pastor of the First Baptist church, was the officiating clergyman and the ring service was used. The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Clendon DeWolf. The bride's attire was a traveling costume of a brown shade, and a bouquet of sweet peas was carried. Following the ceremony came the wedding breakfast and then the departure on the 10:30 train for Chicago, from which place they go to Toronto, Canada, for a visit at the home of the groom's parents. Many of the intimate friends went to the station to bid the bride and groom farewell and accompanied it with a rice shower that lacked nothing along the line of generosity. The bride and groom will return here in a couple of weeks and leave on the 20th inst. for Nelson, British Columbia, where the groom will be the general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and where their home will be made. Many beautiful wedding gifts came from the relatives and numerous friends. Those from out of town at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Owen Wood of Chicago and Mrs. Charles Dunn of Decatur, Ind. The bride was born in this county and has lived for most of her life in Belvidere, graduating from the North Belvidere high school and then becoming one of the faculty of the North schools for some time, later taking up the study of art at the Institute in Chicago. Acceptance of a position as art instructor in the university at Tacoma, Wash., followed the close study at the Art Institute. Since resigning the place at the university the chosen occupation has been followed at the family home here. The bride will be the recipient of many good wishes from a host of friends, who will bespeak for her all possible happiness through life. Of pleasing personality and gifted with many accomplishments the bride of today is highly esteemed and regarded in a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. The groom attended the Northwestern University at Evanston, graduating in 1908, and he is also a graduate of the Chicago Y. M. C. A. training school at Geneva Lake, taking the degree of bachelor of associated science. For the last two years he has been assistant general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Winnipeg and now takes up the larger responsibility in another field. He will share liberally in all the best wishes and congratulations bestowed upon his bride."

Miss Helen Evans, who leaves soon for Colorado for a visit before going to Wichita, Kans., where she will enter the university, will be the guest of honor at a dinner to be given Sunday evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Kunkel. Other guests will be Mr. and Mrs. John Evans and daughter, Irene; Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Magley, daughter, Maud, and son, Lloyd; Mr. Dale Moses and Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Kunkel.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wellman, whose marriage will take place in Toledo, Ohio, this evening, will come tomorrow to join the Hensleys at their cottage at Rome City for a week, this being a part of their honeymoon trip. Mr. Wellman is a relative of Mrs. Hensley.

PRISONERS ESCAPE

Four Men Made Their Escape From Browntown Jail Today.

SPECIAL MESSAGES

It is Believed That the Moroccan Peace Settlement is Now in Sight.

(United Press Service.)

Browntown, Ind., Aug. 4.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Four prisoners escaped from the county jail here this morning and bloodhounds have been placed on their trail. The men gained their liberty by breaking an iron bed and using the pieces to pry off the bars from the windows. Four other prisoners who were in the jail refused to leave with them.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 4.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—When the senate convened here today President Taft transmitted special messages to the American-Great Britain and the American-French arbitration treaties, which were signed yesterday. The treaties were accompanied with brief messages of transmittal.

Berlin, Aug. 4.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—It became known here today that the Moroccan settlement is in sight, the report claiming that Russia was used as mediator. The details will be worked out as rapidly as possible.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 4.—(Special to Daily Democrat)—Three charges for the killing of her husband by Mrs. Anna Langley were made known here today. The coroner's grand jury returned a verdict that Mrs. Langley shot her husband while "temporarily insane," from the constant abuse she received.
