

If You're Grouchy

--- and feel like fighting with your best friend, get your feet into a pair of my Elk skins and change your disposition --- so easy and comfortable will make you forget you have feet. I sell lots of them.

Charlie Voglewede

The Shoe Seller

WEATHER FORECAST

Fair tonight in south; unsettled in north portions.

Al Garard of Monroeville was here yesterday on business.

Miss Lily Garard of Monroeville was here yesterday on business.

Wilda Watts was attending to business affairs at Winchester today.

Dan Beery, who went to Berne this morning on business, has returned home.

Tom Buckmaster was visiting with his brothers, Warren and Byron, at Berne today.

Miss Lily Garard of Fort Wayne was here yesterday on a visit. She will leave August 15th for Portland, where she will take charge of the superintendency of the Jay county hospital.

Miss Mamie Teeple went to Fort Wayne this morning to take her regular music instruction.

Misses Velma Daniels and Verna Mann left yesterday afternoon for Ft. Wayne and spent today at Winona Lake.

Mrs. Margaret Reckard returned to the city today from Linn Grove, where she has been for the past several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scheiman returned yesterday to Columbia City after a visit here with John Scheimann and family.

Mrs. O. D. Weldy returned yesterday afternoon to Fort Wayne after a visit with relatives at Craigville, Peterson and this city.

Little Emma Bultemeier of Rural Route one, who is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Albert Schamerloh, of Union township had as her guest Tuesday, Martha Bleeke.

Mrs. Albert Parker and son, Stew-
Lowell, of Cayuga, who have been visiting in Fort Wayne, are expected to arrive today from Fort Wayne, for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Steele.

Mrs. Arthur Ford and son have gone to Muncie for a several weeks' stay visiting with relatives.

Miss Lily Garard of Fort Wayne was here yesterday on a visit. She will leave August 15th for Portland, where she will take charge of the superintendency of the Jay county hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Voglewede and family have gone to the country for a several days' stay at the country home of his father, south of the city.

John D. Ross and family are expected the latter part of the week from Indianapolis for a two week's visit with his mother, Mrs. W. H. Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Hake of Fort Wayne were here today, visiting with Mrs. Hake's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Meyers, southwest of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hower and children, Frech, Marcella and Geraldine, left this morning for Crooked Lake, where they will spend two weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. George Geels have returned from New Haven, where they have been visiting with their daughter, Sister M. Ernstine, who is now located there.

Mrs. W. A. Kuebler and sister, Mrs. Julius Spies and daughter of Cleveland, Ohio, went to Fort Wayne this morning where they spent the day with Mrs. Frank Bell.

Because an "H" has been added to the name of Pittsburg by the postoffice department. President Taft was obliged today formally to renominate William H. Davis as postmaster.

Miss Ruby Miller was among those who went to Muncie this morning to be in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Frank Mann, which took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home.

Mrs. Fred Linn and her guest, Mrs. E. C. Schwartz, went to Ft. Wayne, where they were guests during the day of Mrs. M. V. B. Archbold. From there Mrs. Schwartz will go to her future home in St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Hake of Fort Wayne were in the city today to be in attendance at the Meyers-Bentz wedding, which was solemnized this morning at the St. Mary's church, the groom being a brother to Mrs. Hake.

Mrs. Ernst Steele and children, Elizabeth and Robert, of Laporte will arrive today for a visit with her mother, Mrs. George Chronister, and with the D. V. Steele family. Her sister, Miss Mabel Harb, who has been visiting there, will return with her.

Two sons were born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Miller of Fort Wayne. Mrs. Miller was Miss Faye Webster of Fort Wayne before her marriage, and is well known here, being a niece of Miss Margaret Daniels and Mrs. Minnie Daniels, with whom she often visited.

Word has been received in the city from Mr. and Mrs. Clem Uhl, telling of their arrival at their home in Toledo, Ohio. They reached that place Tuesday, a week sooner than they expected, coming from Pittsburg and Washington, D. C., the last places of interest which they visited.

Henry Troyer received a broken leg, John Isch, two broken ribs and Geo. Rinker painful injuries, Monday afternoon about 3 o'clock, when a team of horses belonging to Mr. Rinker ran away at the home of Carl Leibig, in French township, Adams county, a mile east of the Wells-Adams county line. One of the animals which was a valuable work horse, was injured and will probably have to be killed.

The Bowers Realty Company has some excellent bargains in city property and Adams county farms. The company would be pleased to have you call at its office and see its offerings. The company has plenty of five per cent money to loan on reasonable terms. Let the Schirmeyer Abstract Company prepare your abstract of title. Twenty years experience, complete records.

The Bowers Realty Co.
French Quinn, Secy.

John B. Holthouse was a business caller at Bluffton today.

Mrs. Dayton Barkley of Hoagland was a shopper here today.

D. B. Erwin has gone to Winona lake to have two days' visit.

Mrs. Mel Welker and Miss Cora Steele have gone to Lagrange for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. A. A. Kist and son, Robert, returned to Fort Wayne this morning after a visit with Mrs. Ben Johnson.

Miss Nellie Turner returned this morning to her home in Rochester, after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Shroll.

Miss Nellie Brown of Willshire, Ohio, transferred here this morning on her way to Fort Wayne to take her music lesson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Brandt of Mishawaka, transferred here this morning enroute home from Willshire, Ohio.

John L. Helm left today accompanied by several grandchildren, going to Lagrange to make an extended visit with friends.

George Menig of Kokomo was in the city today looking after business affairs relative to his pool room and cigar store.

Wal Wemhoff was looking after some business matters west of here today in the interest of the Wemhoff Monumental works.

Machinist H. Lankenaum resumed his business in the Pennsylvania shops this morning after a week at the lakes.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Milton Hower and family left today for Angola, where for the next week or so they will camp along James Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Voglewede and family have gone to the country for a several days' stay at the country home of his father, south of the city.

John D. Ross and family are expected the latter part of the week from Indianapolis for a two week's visit with his mother, Mrs. W. H. Murphy.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Charles C. Schug of Berne was here this morning looking after some business matters, which required his attention during the day.

Big horse sale at the First street barns Friday.

Kit Cowan of Rivarre was a business caller here today.

Mrs. H. L. Buuck of Preble went to Fort Wayne this afternoon.

Dr. Battel Clark of New Haven is reported as being much better.

Albert Strahm of Preble township was a business caller here today.

Farmers—Remember the horse sale at the First street barns Friday of this week.

A. Schumm of Schumm, Ohio, was a visitor here, he taking the noon train to his home.

A. C. Schapp of near Washington church was a caller in Fort Wayne on business today.

B. F. Breiner made a trip to Fort Wayne today, where he will close up some business affairs.

Miss Eva Stine of Lima, Ohio, is here for a visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Settler.

Miss Mary Hosler of Elmira, N. Y., went to Fort Wayne this afternoon after a visit here with her parents.

Samuel Laman left the city this morning to begin a series of calls on the trade, with which he is favored.

Roman Breiner returned from Chicago today, where he has been visiting with his sister for the past few days.

R. C. Stone, wife and daughter, Ruth, of Munce, will arrive in the city Friday for a visit of a few days with Squire J. H. Stone.

Miss Florence Burroughs of Fort Wayne transferred here today on her way to Willshire, Ohio, where she will visit for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Hake of Fort Wayne were here today, visiting with Mrs. Hake's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Meyers, southwest of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hower and children, Frech, Marcella and Geraldine, left this morning for Crooked Lake, where they will spend two weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. George Geels have returned from New Haven, where they have been visiting with their daughter, Sister M. Ernstine, who is now located there.

Mrs. W. A. Kuebler and sister, Mrs. Julius Spies and daughter of Cleveland, Ohio, went to Fort Wayne this morning where they spent the day with Mrs. Frank Bell.

Because an "H" has been added to the name of Pittsburg by the postoffice department. President Taft was obliged today formally to renominate William H. Davis as postmaster.

Miss Ruby Miller was among those who went to Muncie this morning to be in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Frank Mann, which took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home.

Mrs. Fred Linn and her guest, Mrs. E. C. Schwartz, went to Ft. Wayne, where they were guests during the day of Mrs. M. V. B. Archbold. From there Mrs. Schwartz will go to her future home in St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Hake of Fort Wayne were in the city today to be in attendance at the Meyers-Bentz wedding, which was solemnized this morning at the St. Mary's church, the groom being a brother to Mrs. Hake.

Mrs. Ernst Steele and children, Elizabeth and Robert, of Laporte will arrive today for a visit with her mother, Mrs. George Chronister, and with the D. V. Steele family. Her sister, Miss Mabel Harb, who has been visiting there, will return with her.

Two sons were born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Miller of Fort Wayne. Mrs. Miller was Miss Faye Webster of Fort Wayne before her marriage, and is well known here, being a niece of Miss Margaret Daniels and Mrs. Minnie Daniels, with whom she often visited.

Henry Troyer received a broken leg, John Isch, two broken ribs and Geo. Rinker painful injuries, Monday afternoon about 3 o'clock, when a team of horses belonging to Mr. Rinker ran away at the home of Carl Leibig, in French township, Adams county, a mile east of the Wells-Adams county line. One of the animals which was a valuable work horse, was injured and will probably have to be killed.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Hake of Fort Wayne were in the city today to be in attendance at the Meyers-Bentz wedding, which was solemnized this morning at the St. Mary's church, the groom being a brother to Mrs. Hake.

Mrs. Ernst Steele and children, Elizabeth and Robert, of Laporte will arrive today for a visit with her mother, Mrs. George Chronister, and with the D. V. Steele family. Her sister, Miss Mabel Harb, who has been visiting there, will return with her.

Two sons were born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Miller of Fort Wayne. Mrs. Miller was Miss Faye Webster of Fort Wayne before her marriage, and is well known here, being a niece of Miss Margaret Daniels and Mrs. Minnie Daniels, with whom she often visited.

Henry Troyer received a broken leg, John Isch, two broken ribs and Geo. Rinker painful injuries, Monday afternoon about 3 o'clock, when a team of horses belonging to Mr. Rinker ran away at the home of Carl Leibig, in French township, Adams county, a mile east of the Wells-Adams county line. One of the animals which was a valuable work horse, was injured and will probably have to be killed.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Hake of Fort Wayne were in the city today to be in attendance at the Meyers-Bentz wedding, which was solemnized this morning at the St. Mary's church, the groom being a brother to Mrs. Hake.

Mrs. Ernst Steele and children, Elizabeth and Robert, of Laporte will arrive today for a visit with her mother, Mrs. George Chronister, and with the D. V. Steele family. Her sister, Miss Mabel Harb, who has been visiting there, will return with her.

Two sons were born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Miller of Fort Wayne. Mrs. Miller was Miss Faye Webster of Fort Wayne before her marriage, and is well known here, being a niece of Miss Margaret Daniels and Mrs. Minnie Daniels, with whom she often visited.

Henry Troyer received a broken leg, John Isch, two broken ribs and Geo. Rinker painful injuries, Monday afternoon about 3 o'clock, when a team of horses belonging to Mr. Rinker ran away at the home of Carl Leibig, in French township, Adams county, a mile east of the Wells-Adams county line. One of the animals which was a valuable work horse, was injured and will probably have to be killed.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Hake of Fort Wayne were in the city today to be in attendance at the Meyers-Bentz wedding, which was solemnized this morning at the St. Mary's church, the groom being a brother to Mrs. Hake.

Mrs. Ernst Steele and children, Elizabeth and Robert, of Laporte will arrive today for a visit with her mother, Mrs. George Chronister, and with the D. V. Steele family. Her sister, Miss Mabel Harb, who has been visiting there, will return with her.

Two sons were born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Miller of Fort Wayne. Mrs. Miller was Miss Faye Webster of Fort Wayne before her marriage, and is well known here, being a niece of Miss Margaret Daniels and Mrs. Minnie Daniels, with whom she often visited.

Henry Troyer received a broken leg, John Isch, two broken ribs and Geo. Rinker painful injuries, Monday afternoon about 3 o'clock, when a team of horses belonging to Mr. Rinker ran away at the home of Carl Leibig, in French township, Adams county, a mile east of the Wells-Adams county line. One of the animals which was a valuable work horse, was injured and will probably have to be killed.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Hake of Fort Wayne were in the city today to be in attendance at the Meyers-Bentz wedding, which was solemnized this morning at the St. Mary's church, the groom being a brother to Mrs. Hake.

Mrs. Ernst Steele and children, Elizabeth and Robert, of Laporte will arrive today for a visit with her mother, Mrs. George Chronister, and with the D. V. Steele family. Her sister, Miss Mabel Harb, who has been visiting there, will return with her.

Two sons were born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Miller