Corona Wool Fat

is extracted from the wool of the Sheep and does not differ from the secretions in the skin of other animals. Grease and water will not mix, but Wool Fat will readily mix with secretion of the skin, hence it's readily absorbed. You see the point?

For contracted hoof, grease heel, sore shoulders, galls, sprains, calks, barbed wire cuts, kicks, bruises, Corona Wool Fat is the standard remedy. Just the thing to relieve overcracked cows teats. 25c 50c and $1.00 cans, and your money back if not satisfactory.

THE SOCIAL NOTES

the esteem and good wishes that are hers from the donors.

Mesdames Grover Hoffman and Dallas Butler joined in entertaining their friends at a Halloween festival Tuesday evening at the Butler home on First street. The first hours were given over to conversation and contests, among them being a jumble contest.
Twenty articles were laid on a table and after a view of these they were taken out and the party given paper and pencil and asked to write the names of as many articles as they could remember. Miss Della Harruff had the greatest number and was given a Haviland china plate as a prize.
A second interesting contest was the cutting of a pumpkin head and pumpkin face from yellow cardboard and Mrs. Orval Harruff being the most successful was given a pair of embroidery scissors. The luncheon was very temptingly served in courses at the long table in the dining room by the Misses Geraldine Cross and Nellie Barkley, covers being laid for eighteen. The dining room and table were unusually pretty, the decoration and menu scheme being yellow and white.
The table cloth was edged with yellow pumpkins and witches, riding on their broomsticks, while the place cards which were done in yellow and white bore cunning little designs of witches.
The centerpiece of the table was a cut glass vase of white chrysanthemums on a mirror mat, surrounded with yellow chrysanthemums. The guest list included the members of the Embroidery club, with a number of others: Nell and Jessie Winnes, Fanny Rice, Nina Reed, Della Harruff, Mrs. Orval Harruff, Agnes Krick, Mrs.
Harve Smith, Mrs. Lee Annen, Mrs.
Arthur Suttles, Mrs. Eugene Runyon, Mrs. Phil Macklin, Mrs. Bruce Christen, Lucy Fruchte, Mrs. John Parrish, and Mrs. Louis Dolch, the last named being from Flint, Mich.

Miss Frances Merryman will entertain the Tri-Kappa sorority this evening.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. D. B. Erwin. The ladies are asked to come as early as 2 o'clock, if possible, to sew. The afternoon will be a pleasant one.

Mrs. H. S. Lachot gave a pleasant Halloween entertainment for the Entre Nous club girls Tuesday evening, all members being present. Black and yellow were the Halloween colors suggested everywhere in the decorations that hooded the chandeliers and adorned the walls and draperies, and also were carried out in the delicious luncheon served. A contest in forming words from "Halloween" resulted in the winning of the first prize by Miss Ella Mutchler and the booby by Matilda Sellemeyer. Other games and contests and conversation passed the evening pleasantly.

The Queen Esther band will meet on Friday evening with Miss Ruth Parrish. The usual good time is assured and all members are asked.

The Euterpean club will meet with Miss Bertha Heller Thursday evening.
Margaret Ruthven Lang, the musician, will be studied, the program to be in charge of Mrs. Eugene Runyon and Miss Marie Patterson.

Corn fodder, with pumpkins, autumn leaves and other autumn harvest products, were the decorations of the Dr. D. D. Clark home, when Miss Anna Clark entertained the Bachelor Maids at a Halloween party Tuesday evening, other guests than the club members being Miss Blanche Harshbarger of Columbia City, Mrs. V. Tonneller of Battle Creek, Mich., and Miss Vera Gocke of Fort Wayne. In the game of "five hundred" prizes were won by the Misses Rose and Bertha Voglewede. Luncheon was served in the dining room, the table being pretty in its decorations of black cats, pumpkin heads and other appropriate emblems of the evening. Favors were little lumps and black cats, and the menu comprised peanut sandwiches, potato salad, potato chips, olives, ice cream, cake and coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burd were pleasing host and hostess to a company of friends at a party given Tuesday evening at their home on Mercer avenue. Games and contests were included in to the interest and pleasure of all, and especially to Mrs. Oliver Schug and Mrs. Earl Butler, the winners of the first prizes. The booby prizes went to Mrs. Burt Mangold and Earl Butler. The home was prettily and appropriately decorated with red, white and yellow chrysanthemums, and small jack-o'-lanterns and the table in the dining room, where supper was served is worthy of especial mention in its decoration. Yellow and black crepe paper streamers were caught from the chandeliers over the center to the corners of the table, and the table center piece was a huge pumpkin hollowed out and filled with tempting looking fruit of all kinds, on a Battenberg lunch cloth. Each place card bore a fortune verse and after supper these were read, adding much to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mumma, who were recently married, were given a surprise house warming Tuesday evening by a large party of the young people of the United Brethren church, who called on them en masque and spent a jolly social evening.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church will meet on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Jesse Van Hart. All members are asked to be on hand for this meeting and take part in the business to be transacted at this time. In addition to this an annual dollar social will be held and in charge of the president, Mrs. John Chronister.

The Poinsettia club had a Halloween frolic at the home of Miss Alice Knapp Tuesday evening. Pedro was played and the prizes were won by Miss Esther Corbett and Miss Mamie Harting. In an apple-bobbing contest Miss Margaret Gallogly won first honors. A delicious lunch was served.
Miss Esther Corbett will be hostess next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Daniel Wolf accompanied her son, Clyde Wolf and children to Fort Wayne yesterday afternoon to call on Mrs. Clyde Wolf, who is a patient at the Lutheran hospital where a week ago she underwent an operation. She is getting along nicely.
