DOINGS IN SOCIETY

Ft. Wayne Royal Neighbors Will Have Decatur Guests This Evening.

MRS. E. H. LYON

Inspecting Ft. Wayne W. R. C.—James Wagner's Birthday.

WEEK'S SOCIAL CALENDAR.
Friday.
Little Quilters—Luella Bultemeier.
Christian Aid—Mrs. Noah Mangold.
Medical Society—Dr. P. B. Thomas.
Mite Society—M. E. Church.

Some women, the worst you treat them, the better they like you.
—John Emery White.

Mrs. Jesse Williams of West Madison street was hostess to the United Brethren Ladies' Aid society Thursday afternoon, the business and social sessions being very interesting. Three guests were noted among the large attendance of the membership, they being Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Gene Steele and Miss Olive Goodman. Delicious refreshments marked the closing social period.

Mrs. L. E. Steele had as her guests Thursday afternoon, besides the members of the Thimble club, Mrs. George Flanders, Mrs. John Peterson, Mrs. M. E. Brackett, Mrs. John Tyndall, Mrs. C. A. Dugan, Mrs. D. M. Hensley, Mrs. T. M. Reid, Mrs. F. M. Shirmeyer, Mrs. Nettie Schrock, Mrs. O. L. Vance and Mrs. Fred Heuer of this city; Mrs. A. L. Higbee and Miss Cora Barker of Marion and Miss Madge Ward of Sanford, Fla. The usual good time over their needlework, which was laid aside later for the tempting refreshments, was enjoyed by the assembly.

Miss Hope Hoopengardner celebrated her fourteenth birthday in a most happy way, a large number of friends joining with her in the festivities at her home. Games of all kinds with music enlivened the hours, and all were quite ready for the delicious refreshments which made their appearance later. Good wishes were given in abundance and the day will long be remembered. Guests were: Mary Starost, Ina Sowle, Naomi VanCamp, Blanch Biggs, Marie Smith, Lillian Bogner, Gladys Eady, Grace Hoenel, Fern Hoenel, Glen Lake, Nina Christner, Goldie Fisher, Howard Foughty, David Hoopengardner, Richard Gay, Fred Gay, Earnest Moon, Orval Hoopengardner, Forest Lake.

Mrs. E. H. Lyons, state department inspector of the Woman's Relief Corps, went to Fort Wayne today, where she will inspect the corps, a very good entertainment program having been arranged for her reception. Mrs. Helena Wolff, the aged lady who was one of the army nurses in a marine hospital at Cincinnati, Ohio, during the civil war, and who spoke at one of the conventions held here, and who did most heroic work for which she has been blessed by hundreds, is a member of the Fort Wayne corps. She will present to Mrs. Lyon a gift that will always be highly esteemed. It is a pin made from a cuff button which was dropped from the sleeve of one of the brave officers of the civil war.

Mrs. John B. Reuss held an informal little affair yesterday for her guest Mrs. Bernard Stroh of Detroit, who came to the city to attend the Eberbach-Paul nuptials on Tuesday. The guests included friends whom Mrs. Stroh has made in other visits to the city, and those who wished took a hand at bridge while others chatted. The supper served at 5 o'clock was elegant in menu and appointments, and was spread on small tables. Chrysanthemums filled large jars and vases about the rooms.—Fort Wayne Journal-Gazette.

Mrs. O. P. Schug went to Fort Wayne this morning, where she attended a class of instruction for Royal Neighbors, conducted by Mrs. Win of Indianapolis, one of the state officers, the meeting being held at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Schug will also remain for the initiation services this evening when a class of thirty will be initiated at the Fort Wayne camp. Mrs. C. J. Weaver, who spent the day in Fort Wayne, will also attend, and among other Decatur visitors will be Mrs. W. H. Fiedlerjohann and daughter, Flora; Mrs. John Christen and perhaps a number of others, who will go on the evening cars.

This evening at his home, one and one-half miles north of Monroe,

"Uncle" James Wagner, one of the oldest and best known pioneers of this county, will celebrate his seventy-seventh birth anniversary, having invited all his children to come and spend the evening together as one of pleasure. He has resided in this county for the past seventy-one years, and perhaps only a few have spent more of their life's stay here than Mr. Wagner. A big oyster supper will be served and "Uncle Jim" says if they don't like oysters he will have plenty of other good things to eat. He was busy today securing all of the necessities for the time set, and a more pleasant time will perhaps never be had at the old family home. He is as hale and hearty as one could be at his age, and only Thursday he husked four shocks of corn. While working he came across four ears which, when placed in a row, measured four feet, three inches, and of which he is justly proud.

Mrs. Philip Schlemmer and daughter, Ollie, of Monroeville, were guests Thursday at dinner at the Henry Schultz home.

Mrs. Sarah Andrews and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Franklin Andrews, were entertained today at the Charles Andrews home west of the city.

The Ruth Circle held an interesting business and social meeting with Miss Dorothy Schultz last evening. Among plans made were those for a Puritan social to be given Thursday evening, November 23rd, at the home of Mrs. A. D. Artman. This social will be very appropriate to the approaching Thanksgiving season, and the entertainment will include a program, games, etc. A silver offering will be received. During the social period, Miss Schultz served a most tempting lunch.

DEATH OF UNCLE

Wm. Studabaker of Ridgeville, Known to Decatur People, Dead.

THE FUNERAL TODAY

Uncle of Mrs. Baumgartner and Mrs. A. Bauman
---Accumulated Much.

William S. Studabaker of Ridgeville, an uncle of Mrs. L. L. Baumgartner of Linn Grove and Mrs. A. Bauman, of west of the city, passed away at his home Wednesday at 5:25 o'clock after an illness of long duration, he being an invalid for some time, and his condition had become such that the end was not unexpected. William S. Studabaker was a son of William and Sarah (Thompson) Studabaker, and was born September 25, 1842, on the old home farm east of Bluffton, where Oliver P. Markley and family now reside. When a very young man he located at Ridgeville, and followed the profession of law. He was married after going to Randolph county, and his wife and three children, William Studabaker, of Kansas City, and Mrs. Lena Allen and Mrs. Laura Roswell of Ridgeville, survive.

He also is survived by one sister, Mrs. Oliver P. Markley, and by four brothers, David D. Studabaker, Abram T. Studabaker and Benjamin Studabaker, of this county, and George Studabaker of Missouri. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Ridgeville, with burial in a cemetery at that place.—Bluffton News.

LIVES THAT ARE WORTH LIVING.

One of Adams county's farmers, whose wife has been sick with stomach, kidney and liver trouble for two years, after using one bottle of 49 General Tonic, says that that she has gained more under the one bottle of 49 than any other treatment she has taken, and Tuesday the 7th, bought six bottles of 49 at the Holthouse drug store.
L. J. Bumgarner, railroad agent at Cheshire, Ohio, writes the Leach Medicine company, under date of November 4th: "I cannot express my appreciation of your kindness in sending me your 49 General Tonic. My wife has taken it since March and our doctor would not believe that she could improve as she has. She has gained seventeen pounds and is feeling fine, but is hungry all the time. Life is worth living with 49 in the house. 49 has become a by word to us. We use it for everything—colds, coughs, pains—anything that ails us. We run for 49 Tonic. Mr. Vickers wants three bottles, and I am sending you $5.00 so please send me six bottles by express."

The above is a copy of Mr. Bumgarner's letter. His wife has been sick for five years, and 49 Tonic made her a well woman in six months which her doctor failed to do in five years. All druggists handle 49 Tonic.

NOTICE.

Brother K's of C. and friends, don't fail to attend the card party and dance Wednesday, November 15th, K. of C. Hall.
