A very pleasant surprise was given Sam Bartlett at his home on South Eighth street for his twenty-second birthday, when friends and relatives walked in with well filled baskets. The table was soon spread and all the good things of the season were there, which were very tempting to look upon as well as to the taste. Everyone helped himself, especially Sam, who devoured almost all the pickles. The evening was spent with music, singing and chatting with one another. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Clint Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. John Sprague and children, Marion and Marie; Mr. and Mrs. Lusk and daughter, Mabel; Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wise and Gladys and Beatrice Chronister, Mrs. Charles Fisher and daughter, Goldie. All left at a late hour, wishing Sam many more happy birthdays.—Contributed.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Beery gave a pleasant supper party Friday evening for their son, Sherman, in honor of his birthday anniversary. Guests were John Weldy of Vernalis, California, the Misses Weldy and Stemen of New Bremen, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Beery and children, Jeanette and John Wilson; Mr. and Mrs. John Kircroff, Gregg Neptune, Bruce McMillen and Robert Colter. Following supper, the evening was spent in a delightful social way, and the occasion will be one long remembered.

Little Robert Kalver, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Kalver, is seven years old today, and to make merry, seven little boys, who are great friends of his, were invited to spend the afternoon with him. Games of many sorts that please the young folks were in order and then came delicious refreshments provided by Mrs. Kalver, making the hours such that Robert's seventh anniversary will always be a most pleasant remembrance.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Reuss of Spy Run avenue, celebrated their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary yesterday and the day was the occasion of the delightful surprise which Miss Edna Reuss planned. The guests, fourteen in number, called early in the evening and found Mr. and Mrs. Reuss entirely unsuspecting of any plans. The rooms were fragrant with many roses and other flowers, which had been sent by their many friends, and the evening was devoted to cards. Following the game an elegant supper was served.—Fort Wayne Journal-Gazette.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Kalver gave a delightful "500" party Friday evening for a company of their friends, there being five tables of players. Mrs. A. H. Barnard scored the highest and was awarded a cut glass dish as a prize, while L. W. Coppock consoled himself with the booby, a little boy. After the games the tables were cleared for the refreshments, which were very delicious and appetizing and served in two courses. The guest list included Messrs. and Mesdames L. W. Coppock, C. R. Dunn, W. L. Lehne, D. M. Hensley, J. S. Peterson, A. H. Barnard, Charles Meyers, O. L. Vance, E. G. Coverdale and W. A. Kuebler.

Miss Agnes Miller will entertain at supper tomorrow evening. Guests will be the Misses Emma and Bertha Kelter, Paul Harris and Paul Tucker of Fort Wayne and a friend of the last named, from Fremont, Ohio.

Joe Cloud was a most completely surprised man Friday evening, when, in answer to a rap at the door, he opened it and found a large company of masqueraders who announced that they had come to spend the evening with him and help celebrate his birthday anniversary. This they proceeded to do with a right good will, calling forth game after game of many kinds, not forgetting to include a peanut contest. Then came a two-course oyster supper, which was not the least pleasing item of the evening's pleasure. The masqueraders represented all phases of character, but when the celebrant finally guessed "who was who," the following host of his friends stood revealed: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scheumann, Mr. and Mrs. Will Ramey, Mr. and Mrs. John Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gunsett, Mrs. Mary Doeberman, Mrs. Letta Peters, the Misses Mayme Cloud, Myrtle Chronister, Reba Ramey, Ida and Lydia Gunsett, Masters Chalmers Porter, Harry Barnett, Ralph and Joe Ramey. Mr. Cloud was the recipient of several presents, accompanied with a host of good wishes.

Miss Bertha Knapp entertained the G. W. C. club at her home Thursday evening. The time was spent in playing games, after which a delicious luncheon was served. The next meeting will be held with Miss Anna Parent.

The Sina Cura Girls, who on last Wednesday evening met with Miss Marie Kintz, enjoyed a very pleasant evening until a late hour. A peanut contest was indulged in. Prizes were won by the Misses Agnes Meibers and Esther Corbett. The club will meet next week with Mrs. Agnes Meibers.

Mrs. Florence Weston, Mrs. Bertha Twibell and daughter, Vendela, Mrs. May Neelley and daughter, Eloise, of the Montpelier W. R. C. and Joseph W. Smith of Cincinnati, Ohio, and E. Cutting were guests at a dinner given Friday noon by Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Lyon. In honor of the occasion, as several of the ladies of the party, including the hostess, are members of the state official staff of the W. R. C., the national colors were used in the decoration of the dining room, being carried out with flags, streamers, pennants and festoons of red, white and blue. The dinner served was a sumptuous one. Mrs. Weston aided Mrs. Lyon in the inspection of the local corps Friday evening, the other Montpelier ladies being guests.

Miss Lucile Hale, whose wedding to Mr. Edward Wilson of Nappanee will occur on Thanksgiving Day, was given a miscellaneous shower Friday evening by Miss Edna Hoffman at her home, corner of Madison and Fourth streets. Besides members of the Tri-Kappa sorority, guests were Miss Hale's sister, Mrs. Hiram Gregg, of Chicago; Miss Madge Ward of Sanford, Fla.; Marie Allison and Mrs. W. H. Gleiser. In an interesting picture contest, the first prize, which was a beautiful picture, was won by Miss Frances Merryman, while the booby, a picture frame, was given to Miss Madge Hite. The prizes, in turn, were presented by them to the guest of honor. The gifts for the bride-to-be, which included many pretty and useful things suitable for the home soon to be established, were taken to the Hoffman home before the party and were hidden in every conceivable place, a grand hunt then being in order. When all the gifts had been found they made a very pretty showing, expressive of the esteem in which Miss Hale's friends hold her.

Courtney Runyon of Geneva was a business visitor here today.

Marion Bartlett made a business trip to Berne this afternoon.

The glass window of the sugar beet office was blown down this morning and broken into pieces.

B. S. Brown of Monroe was in the city today looking after some business that required his attention, returning home this afternoon.
