

DAILY DEMOCRAT

Published Every Evening, Except Sunday by

THE DECATUR DEMOCRAT COMPANY
LEW G. ELLINGHAM
JOHN H. HELLER

Subscription Rates

Per Week, by carrier.....10 cents
Per Year, by carrier.....$5.00
Per Month, by mail.....25 cents
Per Year, by mail.....$2.50
Single Copies.....2 cents
Advertising rates made known on application.

Entered at the postoffice in Decatur, Indiana, as second-class mail.

A CAMPAIGN OF DISHONESTY

When the Indianapolis Star finally got out of the hands of a receiver and came under the control of one John C. Shaffer of Chicago, and former street railroad magnate, that gentleman caused a double-leaded editorial to be printed in which he proclaimed that the Star, under his management, would be "independent in politics," saving and excepting that it would support Taft. Since that time, to prove its independence, the Star's political writers, presumably under special instructions from its owner, have entered upon a campaign of lying and misrepresentation unprecedented in this state. For instance the article on the Democratic State administration and State Finances, printed under the name of George W. Stout, are so far away from the real truth as to be ridiculous. The fact is known to every one who knows anything at all about actual conditions. During the first two years of Governor Marshall's administration he was handicapped by a state house full of republican officials and a republican senate. With the exception of the governor, the state board of finance was entirely republican. This condition lasted until less than a year ago. When the democrats at last came into control they found that the republicans for years and years had been spending money beyond the state's current revenues to such an extent that they were drawing advances from the county treasurers aggregating nearly $2,000,000 annually. That is how things stood a year ago. That is the condition inherited by the democrats. Of course, the Indianapolis Frank McConnell.

THURSDAY DANCE.

The C. B. L. of I. will hold another of their dances at the hall Thursday evening, November 23rd. Everybody is invited, so come and help swell the crowd.

27472
FOR SALE—Meat barrels. See Dyonis Schmitt.

FOR RENT—8-room house on North Third St., water and lights in the house. Inquire at this office or of Frank McConnell.

27473

Thanksgiving Announcement

Copyright 1911
Michaelis, Stern & Co.
Rochester, N. Y.

You'll Enjoy Your Turkey More in a spruce, new Winter Suit.

And now's the time to get it because we're making a special Thanksgiving offering of Micheels-Stern perfectly tailored Suits and Overcoats. From today till Wednesday evening only, you may buy these Stylish garments at a saving.

Suits and Overcoats
$6.50 to $25.00

A good chance for the thrifty.

The Myers-Dailey Co.
Clothiers & Furnishers.

DOINGS IN SOCIETY

Surprise Shower Given for Mr. and Mrs. Will Winnes Last Evening.

A PURITAN SOCIAL

Thursday Evening at Yeomen Hall Will be Unique Entertainment.

Nature is a part of God, so love and worship it and try to live as near it as possible.—John Emery White.

SOCIAL CALENDAR.

Tuesday.
Young Matrons' Club—Mrs. W. A. Lower.

Wednesday.
Orient—Mrs. John Stewart.

Shakespeare—Mrs. J. S. Boyers.
Y. L. E.—Lillian Meyers.

Thursday.
Florhul de Purin—Clara Bultemeier.

U. B. Ladies' Aid Social—Parsonage.
Python Sisters' Dinner—K. of P. Home.

Sina Cura Club—Agnes Meibers.
Friday.
Mite Society—M. E. Church.
Needlecraft—Mamie Kitson.

and cold meat fork, with the best wishes of the party.

The Florhul de Purin club will meet tomorrow evening with Miss Clara Bultemeier.

At the entertainment of the Afternoon club at the home of Mrs. Ben Knapke yesterday afternoon, Mrs. O. N. Snellon was an out-of-town guest.

Miss Alma Starost was hostess to the Poinsettia club members Tuesday evening, pedro, followed by luncheon, comprising the entertainment. In the games, Miss Agnes Coffee won the first prize, and Mrs. Fred Deininger, the second.

The Historical club met with Mrs. Jane Crabb Tuesday evening, Mrs. L. C. Miller having charge of the study which was on "Ancient Egypt."

Mrs. S. E. Roebuck, of Whitefish, Montana, will arrive tomorrow morning for a short visit with Mrs. B. W. Sholty, before going to Phoenix, Ariz., where she will spend the winter, as is her usual custom. Mrs. Roebuck has visited here on several occasions.

SPOKE TO SOLDIERS

Talk by Congressman J. A. M. Adair on Sherwood Pension Bill.

NOW IN CONGRESS

Its Passage Would Give 90 Per Cent of Soldiers a Dollar a Day.

The G. A. R. hall was crowded this morning at 10 o'clock with soldiers, and other interested auditors, when Congressman J. A. M. Adair of Portland addressed the soldiers on pension matters, especially the Sherwood pension bill now before the house.

Congressman Adair presented to them the present status of pending pension legislation, and telling what had transpired during the past five years along these lines, and of the efforts of some to secure more liberal pensions, tracing the history of the legislation to the present term of congress.

He also outlined the provisions of the Sherwood bill as agreed upon by the pension committee of the house, as it has been reported and is now on the calendar. Congressman Adair stated that there was no question in his mind but that the house would pass the bill, but he had no assurance as to what the senate would do. This bill, as agreed upon, would place ninety per cent of all soldiers upon the pension roll at $1 per day, and the balance would be taken care of in a short time. Mr. Adair called for an expression from the members present as to whether they were pleased with the efforts put forth by the pension committee, and satisfied with the bill, and the assent was unanimous. Mr. Adair has certainly been the friend of the soldier, and they were free in their expression of their appreciation of his efforts. Mr. Adair returned to Portland this afternoon on the 1:11 train.

The Ladies' Mite society of the Methodist church will meet Friday at the church parlors at which time all members are earnestly requested to be on hand and to come early as is the request of those in charge.

The Loyal Women's class of the Christian church will give an oyster supper Saturday evening at the G. A. R. hall. The public is invited.

Miss Rose Colchin most delightfully entertained the Question club Monday evening at her home on First street, and one of the most pleasing entertainments of the season is reported. After a season of sewing this was laid aside for games and music, with a most delicious three-course luncheon later.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Baker entertained their dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nidlinger and Charles Steele and family.

The Young Matrons enjoyed yesterday afternoon with their needlework at the home of Mrs. W. A. Lower, there being no guests other than club members. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Harry Moltz, Tuesday afternoon, December 5th.

Mrs. Will Winnes, formerly Miss Nina Reed, whose marriage took place recently, was given a surprise shower Tuesday evening by a number of her former companions in work at the Herald office, Miss Reed having been the typewriter operator for that plant for several years. The game of pit provided amusement and with conversation and music, passed the hours delightfully, and later a picnic supper, with oysters, sandwiches, salads, pickles, cake, fruit and candies was partaken of. Mrs. Winnes was presented with a handsome silver ladle and cold meat fork, with the best wishes of the party.

The Florhul de Purin club will meet tomorrow evening with Miss Clara Bultemeier.

At the entertainment of the Afternoon club at the home of Mrs. Ben Knapke yesterday afternoon, Mrs. O. N. Snellon was an out-of-town guest.

Miss Alma Starost was hostess to the Poinsettia club members Tuesday evening, pedro, followed by luncheon, comprising the entertainment. In the games, Miss Agnes Coffee won the first prize, and Mrs. Fred Deininger, the second.

The Historical club met with Mrs. Jane Crabb Tuesday evening, Mrs. L. C. Miller having charge of the study which was on "Ancient Egypt."

Mrs. S. E. Roebuck, of Whitefish, Montana, will arrive tomorrow morning for a short visit with Mrs. B. W. Sholty, before going to Phoenix, Ariz., where she will spend the winter, as is her usual custom. Mrs. Roebuck has visited here on several occasions.

Florhul de Purin—Clara Bultemeier.

U. B. Ladies' Aid Social—Parsonage.

Python Sisters' Dinner—K. of P. Home.

Sina Cura Club—Agnes Meibers.

Friday.

Mite Society—M. E. Church.

Needlecraft—Mamie Kitson.

SPOKE TO SOLDIERS

Talk by Congressman J. A. M. Adair on Sherwood Pension Bill.

NOW IN CONGRESS

Its Passage Would Give 90 Per Cent of Soldiers a Dollar a Day.

The G. A. R. hall was crowded this morning at 10 o'clock with soldiers, and other interested auditors, when Congressman J. A. M. Adair of Portland addressed the soldiers on pension matters, especially the Sherwood pension bill now before the house.

Congressman Adair presented to them the present status of pending pension legislation, and telling what had transpired during the past five years along these lines, and of the efforts of some to secure more liberal pensions, tracing the history of the legislation to the present term of congress.

He also outlined the provisions of the Sherwood bill as agreed upon by the pension committee of the house, as it has been reported and is now on the calendar. Congressman Adair stated that there was no question in his mind but that the house would pass the bill, but he had no assurance as to what the senate would do. This bill, as agreed upon, would place ninety per cent of all soldiers upon the pension roll at $1 per day, and the balance would be taken care of in a short time. Mr. Adair called for an expression from the members present as to whether they were pleased with the efforts put forth by the pension committee, and satisfied with the bill, and the assent was unanimous. Mr. Adair has certainly been the friend of the soldier, and they were free in their expression of their appreciation of his efforts. Mr. Adair returned to Portland this afternoon on the 1:11 train.

The Ladies' Mite society of the Methodist church will meet Friday at the church parlors at which time all members are earnestly requested to be on hand and to come early as is the request of those in charge.

The Loyal Women's class of the Christian church will give an oyster supper Saturday evening at the G. A. R. hall. The public is invited.

Miss Rose Colchin most delightfully entertained the Question club Monday evening at her home on First street, and one of the most pleasing entertainments of the season is reported. After a season of sewing this was laid aside for games and music, with a most delicious three-course luncheon later.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Baker entertained their dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nidlinger and Charles Steele and family.

The Young Matrons enjoyed yesterday afternoon with their needlework at the home of Mrs. W. A. Lower, there being no guests other than club members. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Harry Moltz, Tuesday afternoon, December 5th.

Mrs. Will Winnes, formerly Miss Nina Reed, whose marriage took place recently, was given a surprise shower Tuesday evening by a number of her former companions in work at the Herald office, Miss Reed having been the typewriter operator for that plant for several years. The game of pit provided amusement and with conversation and music, passed the hours delightfully, and later a picnic supper, with oysters, sandwiches, salads, pickles, cake, fruit and candies was partaken of. Mrs. Winnes was presented with a handsome silver ladle and cold meat fork, with the best wishes of the party.

The Florhul de Purin club will meet tomorrow evening with Miss Clara Bultemeier.

At the entertainment of the Afternoon club at the home of Mrs. Ben Knapke yesterday afternoon, Mrs. O. N. Snellon was an out-of-town guest.

Miss Alma Starost was hostess to the Poinsettia club members Tuesday evening, pedro, followed by luncheon, comprising the entertainment. In the games, Miss Agnes Coffee won the first prize, and Mrs. Fred Deininger, the second.

The Historical club met with Mrs. Jane Crabb Tuesday evening, Mrs. L. C. Miller having charge of the study which was on "Ancient Egypt."

Mrs. S. E. Roebuck, of Whitefish, Montana, will arrive tomorrow morning for a short visit with Mrs. B. W. Sholty, before going to Phoenix, Ariz., where she will spend the winter, as is her usual custom. Mrs. Roebuck has visited here on several occasions.

Florhul de Purin—Clara Bultemeier.

U. B. Ladies' Aid Social—Parsonage.

Python Sisters' Dinner—K. of P. Home.

Sina Cura Club—Agnes Meibers.

Friday.

Mite Society—M. E. Church.

Needlecraft—Mamie Kitson.

SPOKE TO SOLDIERS

Talk by Congressman J. A. M. Adair on Sherwood Pension Bill.

NOW IN CONGRESS

Its Passage Would Give 90 Per Cent of Soldiers a Dollar a Day.

The G. A. R. hall was crowded this morning at 10 o'clock with soldiers, and other interested auditors, when Congressman J. A. M. Adair of Portland addressed the soldiers on pension matters, especially the Sherwood pension bill now before the house.

Congressman Adair presented to them the present status of pending pension legislation, and telling what had transpired during the past five years along these lines, and of the efforts of some to secure more liberal pensions, tracing the history of the legislation to the present term of congress.

He also outlined the provisions of the Sherwood bill as agreed upon by the pension committee of the house, as it has been reported and is now on the calendar. Congressman Adair stated that there was no question in his mind but that the house would pass the bill, but he had no assurance as to what the senate would do. This bill, as agreed upon, would place ninety per cent of all soldiers upon the pension roll at $1 per day, and the balance would be taken care of in a short time. Mr. Adair called for an expression from the members present as to whether they were pleased with the efforts put forth by the pension committee, and satisfied with the bill, and the assent was unanimous. Mr. Adair has certainly been the friend of the soldier, and they were free in their expression of their appreciation of his efforts. Mr. Adair returned to Portland this afternoon on the 1:11 train.

The Ladies' Mite society of the Methodist church will meet Friday at the church parlors at which time all members are earnestly requested to be on hand and to come early as is the request of those in charge.

The Loyal Women's class of the Christian church will give an oyster supper Saturday evening at the G. A. R. hall. The public is invited.

Miss Rose Colchin most delightfully entertained the Question club Monday evening at her home on First street, and one of the most pleasing entertainments of the season is reported. After a season of sewing this was laid aside for games and music, with a most delicious three-course luncheon later.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Baker entertained their dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nidlinger and Charles Steele and family.

The Young Matrons enjoyed yesterday afternoon with their needlework at the home of Mrs. W. A. Lower, there being no guests other than club members. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Harry Moltz, Tuesday afternoon, December 5th.

Mrs. Will Winnes, formerly Miss Nina Reed, whose marriage took place recently, was given a surprise shower Tuesday evening by a number of her former companions in work at the Herald office, Miss Reed having been the typewriter operator for that plant for several years. The game of pit provided amusement and with conversation and music, passed the hours delightfully, and later a picnic supper, with oysters, sandwiches, salads, pickles, cake, fruit and candies was partaken of. Mrs. Winnes was presented with a handsome silver ladle and cold meat fork, with the best wishes of the party.

The Florhul de Purin club will meet tomorrow evening with Miss Clara Bultemeier.

At the entertainment of the Afternoon club at the home of Mrs. Ben Knapke yesterday afternoon, Mrs. O. N. Snellon was an out-of-town guest.

Miss Alma Starost was hostess to the Poinsettia club members Tuesday evening, pedro, followed by luncheon, comprising the entertainment. In the games, Miss Agnes Coffee won the first prize, and Mrs. Fred Deininger, the second.

The Historical club met with Mrs. Jane Crabb Tuesday evening, Mrs. L. C. Miller having charge of the study which was on "Ancient Egypt."

Mrs. S. E. Roebuck, of Whitefish, Montana, will arrive tomorrow morning for a short visit with Mrs. B. W. Sholty, before going to Phoenix, Ariz., where she will spend the winter, as is her usual custom. Mrs. Roebuck has visited here on several occasions.

Florhul de Purin—Clara Bultemeier.

U. B. Ladies' Aid Social—Parsonage.

Python Sisters' Dinner—K. of P. Home.

Sina Cura Club—Agnes Meibers.

Friday.