THE MINORITY REPORT

The strong-arm methods used at the recent Indianapolis republican convention are shown in the action taken on the minority report of the committee on credentials. After reviewing the contests in the Third and Sixth districts, the minority report took up the alleged fraud in the Seventh district and declared that the delegates should be unseated because of the following evidence brought before the committee:

That the representatives of the Roosevelt supporters had demanded of H. R. Wallace, county chairman, representation on the various election boards to be appointed by him and such demand was refused.

That watchers representing the Roosevelt supporters be permitted in the election rooms during the voting, which demand was refused.

That watchers on behalf of Roosevelt supporters be permitted to watch the count of the votes, which was refused.

That the voting places in most of the contested wards were placed in remote corners and most inaccessible places in such wards and the chairman failed to announce or publish a list of such voting places until the day preceding the date of the primaries.

That city employees were threatened with dismissal unless they supported Taft slates in their respective wards.

That in all but two of the contested wards the voting was done in a fraudulent manner in that the voting rooms were so arranged that the election officers or the ballot boxes could not be seen; voters were compelled to hand their votes through a small hole in a window to an unseen person and could not see what became of the ballot after it left his hand.

That at voting places in practically every one of the contested wards from two to four policemen were stationed who drove Roosevelt workers from the polls, prevented the taking down of names and addresses of the voters who had voted Roosevelt slates, solicited votes on behalf of Taft slates.

That scores upon scores of repeat-ers voted in every contested ward. That wagon and automobile loads of such repeaters were hauled from ward to ward and voted at each place from two to six times.

That one automobile truck load of eleven men was seen to vote at the Tenth ward, then drove to the Eleventh ward and voted there; then they drove to the Twelfth ward and voted; then went back to the Tenth ward and voted again. Both the Tenth and Twelfth wards are contested.

On none of the contested wards was a register of the residence of voters kept, though demand that this be done was made. The Taft workers, with the aid of the police, prevented Roosevelt workers from obtaining the addresses of voters.

That in two wards and one township, an accurate tab of all votes cast was kept and in addition an accurate list of the names and addresses of such voters who stated they had voted for the Roosevelt delegates was made during the voting and such list, compared with the total vote cast, showed that the Roosevelt delegates were elected by large majorities.

The majority of the committee on credentials, all Taft men, refused even to hear the evidence and no sooner was the contest brought before them than they seated the Taft delegates without ceremony. It was the contested delegations which controlled the convention by a narrow margin and they seated themselves by their own ballots. Although occupying the position of the accused at trial, they were allowed to cast the deciding vote which declared them innocent. For some reason the Indianapolis Star and News failed to mention this report.

Mrs. Harry Detamore entertained a few friends Tuesday afternoon at her home on East High street, complimentary to Miss Helen McGee of Fort Wayne and Miss Grace Thompson of Washington C. H., Ohio. The guests included the members of the Kappa Klatich and several friends. The afternoon was spent with needle work followed with a luncheon, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. Jeff Bryson.—Portland Sun.

Mrs. Godfrey Lehrman of Union township was given a pleasing surprise Tuesday evening in honor of her birthday anniversary. A fine lunch was served by the Misses Clara Lehrman and Frieda Koldewey. Those present were Mrs. Sophia Koldewey, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Koldewey and daughters, Frieda and Martha, and son, Gerhart; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Koldewey and daughter, Nora; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lehrman and daughter, Mabel; Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Weiland and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Weiland.

"National Life in Australia" was the subject of the paper read Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. D. E. Smith before the Shakespeare club at the home of Mrs. J. S. Boyers, the subject being interestingly discussed further by members in sub-topics. Arrangements were made and committees appointed for the annual closing social event of the club. This will probably be held on April 23rd at the home of Mrs. John Niblick.

A large number of neighbors and friends reminded Mrs. George McWhirter, of Peterson, on last Tuesday afternoon of her sixty-eighth birthday with an apron and linen shower. Those present were Mrs. Dayton Gault, Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Al Straub, Misses Lib and Jane Brown, Don't Gamble In Clothes!

THE average man knows little about clothes. He likes the color of the fabric, the cut of the garments, but has doubts of the wearing qualities.

He looks on clothes-buying as more or less of a gamble. The man who chooses Michaels-Stern Clothes does not gamble. He takes no chances. Six months after he has bought a suit he is still satisfied. The wearing qualities are there.
