The Pocahontas convention next Thursday will be quite an event and means about three hundred visitors for Decatur. Give the guests the glad hand. It costs you nothing to say "howdy" and when you say it, say it like you mean it.

A hundred or more will likely join the special train to Berne Sunday afternoon, when the dedication services will be held. The people of Adams country are proud of the sixty thousand dollar property, now owned by the Mennonite congregation.

A young lady living near Bluffton, employed as a clerk in a department store, was the victim of an April fool's joke on April 1. The young lady had been expecting a camera from a relative in Indianapolis, and some of her friends learned of the fact and fixed up a very unique affair with which to fool her. The camera was made out of a pasteboard box, a mirror was used for a lens, and a lemon was used for the lens cap. These, with other parts substituted, made the camera resemble a real one, and as she was unable to unwrap the "present" until some little time after it was received the joke was more complete.

With the warming up of the weather the local prognosticators are telling of the kind of weather we have gone through and the number of snows that have fallen during the winter months. Thirty-seven snowfalls are said to have fallen during the winter, while the forecasters at Portland give their number as fifty-nine.

Mrs. Peter Hess left this morning over the Clover Leaf for Erie, Ohio, where she was called by the illness of her daughter, Kate. She became ill after attending the funeral of her sister, Miss Frances Hess, held here several months ago, and was operated upon at that time for a cancerous affection. She is reported as being worse at the present time.

Rev. L. R. Stambaugh of Warren, who was robbed of $145 while enroute to Wabash to attend the Methodist conference last week, and for whom a purse of $95 was raised by the conference to compensate for his loss, will move to Bluffton, his children being enrolled in the schools there. He will give up his work as a regular pastor, and will devote his energies to the evangelistic work, devoting the summer months to his trade—that of a paper-hanger. He is not a member of the M. E. conference.

Of the 233 Allen county students taking the examination for county diploma, 192 made passing grades. Of the number passing, Ivan K. Kalsor of Poe made the highest grade—96 per cent. He is fifteen years of age and was a pupil in the class of Lucius Somers. The lad's grade is the highest ever made during County Superintendent Felger's incumbency in office. Harper Deane Frock of New Haven, aged thirteen, years, received the next highest grade, which was 95 per cent.

THE 1912 OVERLAND

OVERLAND MODEL 59T

FIVE PASSENGER, $90.

A CAR FOR PARTICULAR PEOPLE

BY Particular people we mean those who demand in a motor car those elements which determine its real worth. After all is said and done service is the one thing to buy in an automobile. Style and design are matters of fashion's caprice, paint, varnish and trimmings are subjects of taste, but the all-important factor is service—buy this one thing first and last—all we ask is a critical examination of the Overland.
