In regard to Governor Marshall's remark, about the harvester trust being "presided over by that distinguished patriot and philanthropist, George W.
Perkins," Mr. Perkins' objections are limited to the first two words quoted.
He frankly admits that he is a distinguished patriot and philanthropist.— Indianapolis News.

Dan Link of Auburn, and a member of the state tax commission, is urging a law that will regulate the conduct of gypsies to such an extent that it will keep them from the state. In Virginia a tax levy of $200 for each band of gypsies or other strolling fortune tellers, is levied and it is probable that they are not bothered much.

Practically every state officer will come to Decatur on Wednesday of Old Home Week, and it is needless to say that they will be well received and entertained. They are a bunch of good fellows as well as competent officers and this city should be proud of the opportunity to greet them on this greatest occasion in our history.

Senator Thomas P. Gore, the blind orator from Oklahoma, will speak at Tomlinson hall, Indianapolis, on the night of September 27th. He is one of the world's greatest orators, and the rally will be one of the big ones.
Romus Stuart, chairman of the state democratic speakers' bureau, has returned from Chicago, where he has arranged for a number of speakers of national reputation, including Champ Clark, J. Ham Lewis, Ollie James, Governor Folk, Hoke Smith and others.

There are two great things to do.
One is to set up the rule of justice and of right in such matters as the tariff, the regulation of the trusts and the prevention of monopoly, the adaptation of our banking and currency laws to the varied uses to which our people must put them, the treatment of those who daily labor in our factories and mines and throughout all our great industrial and commercial undertakings, and the political life of the people of the Philippines, for whom we hold governmental power in trust, for their service not our own.
The other, the additional duty, is the great task of protecting our people and our resources and of keeping open to the whole people the doors of opportunity through which they must, generation by generation, pass if they are to make conquest of their fortunes in health, in freedom, in peace, and in contentment. We need no revolution; we need no excited change; we need only a new point of view and a new method and spirit of counsel.—Woodrow Wilson.

self. He will be disfranchised and not allowed to cast his ballot at the general election in November. No citizen can afford to do this. You want to be a part of the community and you are not when you refuse to take a part in the making of the laws or the election of men who serve in office. Whatever your objections may be, they are folish, because they do no good. The law was necessary because of illegal voting in various parts of the state, and was made to protect the vote of the man who has a right to vote, while it prevents that man from voting who has no legal right to do so.
You ought to be proud of the right and you ought to fight for it instead of having to be coaxed. Don't let any one keep you from registering if you have the right. That's the way to look at it. If you have registered it is your duty to help get the other fellow who has not, to do so. Find out who has and who hasn't, and ask them to register on October 7th. It's important. It's your last chance.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

Trial of John Mackey is in Progress—Ed Tobin Given His Sentence.

TO STATE'S PRISON
He Will be Taken Tomorrow—New Case Filed—Marriage Licenses.

The court today passed sentence upon Ed Tobin, who was found guilty by the jury of assault with criminal intent, upon Florence Counts. As he was convicted of the lesser crime, he was given the lesser term in state's prison, being from two to fourteen years. With this is a fine of $100 and costs. Deputy Sheriff Jesse Kelly will leave Friday morning with his prisoner for Michigan City, and they will be accompanied by Elisha Reynolds. Tobin will not be a stranger there. When he broke jail here April 19th, Sheriff Durkin wrote to the prison for a record of his crime, and received it in full from the prison records. He was in the reformatory at the age of twelve years. He was in the reformatory at another time, and also served three times in state's prison, for larceny charges. He was sent up once before from this county, and went under the alias of Edward Johnson at one time.

It was not until 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon that the jury for the hearing of the state case against John Mackey, before Special Judge C. J.
Lutz, was secured, and the trial was immediately begun. Edward Marschand, who made the affidavit that Mackey and McClish had taken the sum of $515 from him, was the first witness used, and others for the state followed, the defendant's witnesses being later taken up. At time of going to press, witnesses for the defense were being used. W. H. Eichhorn of Bluffton is assisting J. C. Moran of this city in the defense.

The case of the State against Will Ward and Ode McClish, conspiracy to commit grand larceny, has been set for trial October 9th.

The case of the First National Bank of Rochester vs. Abe Bock et al., which was set for hearing upon the issues today, was continued by agreement.

In the case of Drs. Coverdale vs.
W. J. Spear Co., on account, Drs.
Clark and Clark appear and file complaint also for money due them for medical services rendered employees of the W. J. Spear company. Affidavit in attachment and bond were also filed and the bond approved.

William B. Drew filed a new case in court entitled The Farmers & Merchants' State Bank vs. William V.
Buckmaster, on note, $75.

A marriage license was issued to Flossie Shank, born February 29, 1892, daughter of Alonzo Shank, to wed Byron Hart, farmer, born April 3, 1893, son of David Hart.

the German Reformed church will hold its business meeting next Monday evening with Miss Della Sellemeyer.

The Mite society ladies of the Methodist church announce that their annual New England dinner, which has been given some time in the middle of October, for many years, has been postponed this year until November 7th, which is the first Thursday in the month. The postponement is due to the home-coming dates this year, in the middle of October, the society thinking it best to postpone the dinner. All members of the society and patronizing friends, are asked to take note of the change in date.

Miss Genevieve Bremerkamp gave a very pleasing 6 o'clock dinner party Wednesday evening in compliment to Miss Babe Keller of Fort Wayne. Other guests were the Misses Agnes Kohne, Agnes Meibers and Naomi Nib-lick. Smilax, combined with asters, were used effectively in decoration, in vases and twined about the chandeliers. The young ladies were joined in the evening by their young men friends, including Frank Bremerkamp, Lynn Shoemaker, Gregg Neptune and Mr. Welcher, and a visit made to the picture shows.

Mrs. Carl Beatty and Miss Bernice Andrews were entertained Wednesday by Mrs. Paul Tribollet at Bluffton.

The Ruth Circle of the Christian church will have an important meeting this evening at the home of Mrs.
Mary Artman, when important matters will be taken up.

BLEW IN WITH SNOW.

Herb Bremerkamp, the very popular clerk at the Myers-Dailey haberdashery, was back on duty this morning after a two weeks' vacation which he spent at Denver, Colorado. Mr. Bremerkamp blew in with the snow, having experienced the snow storms along the way.

Mr. French Quinn, Decatur, Ind.: Dear Sir:—Your kind invitation to attend Old Home Week, October next, received. It is our earnest desire to be present for this occasion, one or two days at least, for Decatur was the old home town of Mrs. Germann, and Joe likes to go to Decatur, too. I thank you sincerely for your invitation.
Yurs very truly,

Best Town in Hoosierdom.
Many thanks for writing us,
And many for inviting us,
To pay a little visit right away.
You can bet your bottom dollar That this card we soon will follow, But before we come we'll send a line to say, That if we could find that bottom dollar, we sure would spend it to be with you during Old Home Week, but fear it will not show up in time. Hope you all will have a fine time and may De-
