WHY NOT WILSON?

The American people want a president who has had executive experience, and made good at it. Governor Wilson is such a man.

The American people want a president who has no trust affiliations to explain. Governor Wilson meets this requirement.

The American people want a president who will help scale down that noisy old fraud of the tariff. Governor Wilson will be such a president.

The American people want a president who respects the constitution and who knows that this nation can make progress without destroying the constitution. Again, this describes Governor Wilson.

The American people want a president who is free from entangling alliances with seekers of privilege. Every privilege seeker in the land is opposed to Governor Wilson.

The American people want a president who is free and able to serve the people, the whole people, and only the people. Governor Wilson is the only presidential candidate who meets that requirement.

Why not elect Woodrow Wilson?—Chicago Journal.

Ollie James, the big man of the Baltimore convention, will tell you all about it next Friday afternoon, when he speaks at the court house in this city. It's an opportunity to see and hear one of the greatest statesmen of the day. His discussion of the political questions will be fair. Come in.

Senator Beveridge, the Bull Moose candidate for governor, has come and gone. He has said his pretty things and made his best efforts to arouse enthusiasm. He's good at that game, in fact he is one of the brilliant orators of the nation—but he's a candidate for governor, the highest office in the state, and the very place where we should not have the kind of a man who is so big that you can't approach him or advise with him. Compared with Sam Ralston, the plain man, whose love for the people is real, and who is never so much at home or so happy as when talking to them face to face, Mr. Beveridge won't do.

The local democratic committee had an opportunity to secure Hon. Tom Hefflin, the Alabama congressman, for a speech here on the night of October 7th. Mr. Hefflin is one of the best platform orators of the south and has many admirers here who have been glad to hear him discuss the issues, but Mr. Bosse vetoed it because of it being registration day. He is determined that nothing shall interfere with that day, and that nothing else is so important as getting out those who have failed to qualify so they may vote. Every worker should recognize the fact that the big job is at hand right now. If they don't register they can't vote.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

Trial of Ben Ayres Will be Continued Monday—Jno. McSmith Doesn't

LIKE THE JAIL

Prefers to Pay Wife Three Dollars per Week and is Released.

Evidently John McSmith, who has been in jail since June for failure to comply with order of court, in regard to paying $3.00 to his divorced wife, Belle Smith, for the support of their children, is getting tired of his stay there. This morning he filed a motion for discharge from jail, and Judge Merryman sustained this temporarily, or as long as he complies with the order of payment. He is ordered to make the first payment of $3.00 Monday, October 7th, paying it into the hands of the court clerk, for the support of the minor children, and to make a payment every week thereafter, until further order of court.

C. D. Kunkel, executor of John Woy vs. Chester E. Hitesman et al., on note, and foreclosure of mortgage, $175. Case dismissed and costs paid.

Lawrence Opliger, defendant in a divorce suit brought by Mary Opliger, this morning filed his answer in general denial of every charge in the complaint.

Real estate transfers: John F. Hocker et al. to Minnie V. Keller, lot 15, Monroe, $160; John F. Hocker et al. to Wm. L. Keller, lot 20, Monroe, $150; Silas W. Hale to Archie P. Harrison, 60 acres, Wabash tp., $16,000.

The trial of Ben Ayres, for wife and child desertion, was continued through this morning, and will be taken up again next Monday morning, court adjourning today noon for over Sunday.

In the matter of the receivership of the Fort Wayne & Springfield Railway company, a petition was filed by Receiver Quinn for order to repair motor on cars. The petition was granted, the repairs not to exceed $700, and to be paid for out of the receipts of the road. The inventory and appraisal was filed and ordered entered upon the records at length.

Licensed to wed: Abe Sprunker, Jr., born July 6, 1888, of Berne, to wed Edna Brewster, born March 6, 1892, daughter of Daniel Brewster, of Jefferson township.

Licensed to wed: Mary Charlotte Kitzon, born October 1, 1892, daughter of Daniel Kitzon, to wed Clarence E. Cornthwaite, printer, of Peru, born December 13, 1888, son of Samuel Francis Cornthwaite, of Frankfort.

The grand and petit larceny cases, which it was stated in Friday's paper would probably be filed against the beet worker, arrested Wednesday night, materialized, being filed in the circuit court today against Mike Vulach. Bond was fixed at $500 and $200 in each case, respectively. Vulach is the man whom it is alleged took Adam Deam's bicycle, and his boss' Remington repeating rifle, and took them apart, secreting the pieces about the premises of the place where he resides on the A. J. Smith farm.

DOINGS IN SOCIETY

Coming Week Will be Busy One—Thimble Club Entertained

BY MISS MOSES

Girls of True Blue Give a Shower for Miss Bracht—Shakespeare Club.

Among the coming events of next week are the weddings of Daniel Niblick and Miss Kate Henneford, and of John Helman and Anna Rumschlag. Miss Mamie Kitzon and Mr. Clarence Cornthwaite. The annual family reunion of the Daniel Wely family will be held on his birthday anniversary, October 3rd. Miss Edith Smith will give a party Tuesday and Miss Frances Merryman Thursday. Miss Jean Lutz will entertain the Tri-Kappa Tuesday evening. The Historical club will meet Tuesday evening with Mrs. Mary Eley, and the Poinsettia club Wednesday evening with Miss Frances Coffey.

Owing to a typographical error, a misstatement was made in the item on the party given for Charles Bentz. The occasion was his twenty-eighth birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Kate Place and Miss Frances Laman left on the 8:30 car for a country home, where they will be entertained.

Mrs. C. J. Weaver, Mrs. G. C. Steele and daughters, Jeanette and Virginia, went to Fort Wayne today, where they will have their birthday dinners with Mrs. Sadie Cowley, today being Mrs. Weaver's birthday and Friday Mrs. Steele's. They will be joined tomorrow by Messrs. C. J. Weaver, G. C. Steele and Vane Weaver.

The Shakespeare club will open its season next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Patterson. Following the study, there will be a picnic supper, with the husbands as guests.

The Thimble club coterie opened its ranks to Mrs. Frank Alwein of Shelby, Ohio, Mrs. J. W. Tyndall, Mrs. D. B. Erwin, Mrs. M. A. Frisinger, Miss Lizzy Peterson, Mrs. L. A. Holt, Mrs. John Falk, Mrs. Sherman Kunkel and Mrs. J. H. Heller Friday afternoon, when Miss Gertrude Moses entertained at her home on North Second street. Beautiful scarlet sage in bowls and vases added a bright glow of color to the room decorations, and made a cheerful place for the ladies while they sewed and talked. Mrs. Frisinger, Mrs. Holthouse and Miss Mary Moses aided the hostess with the luncheon which was given in two courses. Fragrant, white flowers were given as favors.

A very large number of the Methodist ladies attended the Mite society's social at the home of Mrs. W. H. Fiedler-Johann Friday, and among them was Mrs. E. Mann of Fort Wayne, a member of this month's section, who came down especially to attend. Plans were furthered for the Home-coming week entertainment and also for the annual New England dinner to be given later. At this time a bazaar of ready-made articles will also be given. The collection Friday was $12.51.

The Zion Lutheran ladies had a splendid sewing session at the school house Friday afternoon, and during the refreshment period, Mrs. S. H. Brock served lunch. The ladies will continue their meet in two weeks.

The Girls of True Blue held their first meet of the season at the home of Mrs. Harry Cloud Friday evening, where one of their former number, Miss Sarah Bracht, now of Midland, Mich., is visiting. Miss Flora Peters of Fort Wayne, whose presence was expected, was disappointed at the last moment and could not attend. Girls of the local circle were Edna Miller, Lydia Kirsch, Huldah Mutschler, Emma Weidner and Agnes Sellemeyer and guests were Ada Stevens, Anola Frank and Imo Sowle. Business was first discussed and then a jolly social time, with refreshments, was in order. Miss Bracht is to be married in the spring to Mr. Bench of Midland and the girls took occasion to give her a shower. The gifts included a fine Battenberg centerpiece and a dresser scarf. These were hidden, and Miss Bracht, blindfolded, was required to search for the gift.

The members of the Baptist church gave a kitchen shower Thursday evening for one of their esteemed members, Mrs. Myrtle Chronister Brown, whose wedding to Mr. Elliott Brown occurred recently. The shower was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bell and a very pleasant social time was spent. In a bird contest, Miss Ruby Miller won honors. Refreshments were served. A large variety of kitchen pieces was given the honored guest. Thirty-seven were present.

Tom Reid will give a stag house party at his cottage at Rome City for several days. The party will go down tomorrow, and the guests will be J. S. Peterson, C. C. Ernest, D. M. Hensley, C. Elzey, O. L. Vance, George Kinzie, Pat Parrish and Charles Bell, the last named of Lima, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mallott, who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lyon until they leave for their new home at Greenland, Ark., were given a farewell party Friday evening by a number of friends at the Lyon home. Mr. Mallott leaves this evening, but Mrs. Mallott will remain until the middle of next week.

Miss Rose Lehman of Berne is a guest of Miss Jean Lutz today.
