Dr. Harvey Wiley, the world's greatest pure food expert, spoke at Terre Haute Wednesday evening for Wilson and Marshall and said he had declared for them because he believed they would best serve the people. He will deliver a number of speeches in this state, and will no doubt be the means of bringing hundreds of voters to the democrats.

If you have moved from one precinct into another you will have to secure a transfer from the county auditor and you must secure that before the books are taken away tomorrow. It is therefore your last warning. Don't disfranchise yourself, but qualify Monday and be one of those who assists in selecting the officials of your county, state and nation.

Senator Ollie James, gifted orator from old Kentucky, the man who presided so fairly over the great Baltimore convention, the man who nominated William J. Bryan for president in 1908, and whose future is as bright as that of any man in America today, will talk politics at the court house Friday afternoon. If you want to know about the big questions of the hour, you will have that opportunity tomorrow.

The Berne Witness seems to feel a little sore over the publicity being given the Old Home Week. Why, bless your old heart, Fred, this is one occasion in a life-time, and one in which everybody in Adams county should join. If you will allow yourself to forget your standpoint for just one week and get in the game, you will enjoy it as much as anybody. Hundreds of former citizens of Adams county are coming home after years away, and we're going to entertain them. That's all there is to it and no one who is half public spirited can help from giving them the glad hand and joining in the festivities. Try it.

Register Monday! Don't put off this duty, and it is a duty. Do it Monday, or you lose your right to vote in November. You can't afford to do that. You might as well live in Iceland or some other cold and foreign land as to live in Indiana and not register. You put yourself out of the organization of your community when you deliberately refuse to take a part in the making of laws and the selecting of men who make them—that's what you do when you don't register. The law was made to prevent the man who had no right to vote from killing your vote by casting his illegal one. It was not made to stop the man from voting who has the right, and don't let anybody fool you into doing that and then smile at you afterwards. Register and then vote on November 5th.

Farmers are urged not to pull all their beets now, but to leave the beets that are green and apparently growing in the ground for a time to get the benefit of this sunshiny weather. It will add both tonnage and sugar per cent to them.

Heart's October.
"And shall I clutch at dear departing things
While leaf and tree in silent splendor part?
Go, little joys and welcome fluttering wings
That brush away clinging sorrows from my heart."

The high school seniors will take an automobile ride to Van Wert, Ohio, Saturday evening where they will be guests of Miss Rose Danathan, formerly principal of the Decatur high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schamerloeh entertained Sunday afternoon in honor of their son, Edwin's birthday. For supper there were present William Germann, William Walter, Hilda Seae, William Alfred Stierhoff, William Muntzinger, Pauline and Mart Schamerloeh, Mart Reidenbach of Convo, Ohio; Ida, Louise, and Sophia Bultemeier of Bingen, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schamerloeh, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Holle and son, Truman, Mr. and Mrs. John Bleeke and daughter, Adelia. In the evening the young folks of the congregation gathered to the number of sixty. Music and games were played until a late hour after which a three-course luncheon was served. The guests returned to their homes, wishing Edwin many more happy returns of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kiracofe gave a very pleasing dinner party Wednesday evening, the party comprising a number of their former school mates and life-long friends. Covers were laid for the following guests: S. F. Carter, Los Angeles, Cal.; O. C. Fieley, Alta Hawk, Dora Manley, Convo, Ohio; R. S. Pomeroy and Fanny Kiracofe, Wren, Ohio.

The Poinsettia club recently organized with several new members, held its first after-vacation meeting with Miss Frances Coffee last evening, this young lady proving a hostess of extraordinary merit. At Pedro, prizes were won by the Misses Letta and Ode Fullenkamp, and later came a most delicious supper served at the little tables. Chicken, mashed potatoes, gravy, pickles, potato chips, cake and coffee and other good things were on the menu.

Mrs. Henry Meyers and Mrs. Jesse Schwartz were guests of Mrs. Thompson Niblick at dinner today.

Miss Frances Merryman is entertaining this afternoon at her home on North Second street.

The Shakespeare club opened its season Wednesday evening most auspiciously with a "guest entertainment." The afternoon was devoted to the lesson subject, "Physical Features of Spain, with a Map Study," under the leadership of Mrs. Dan Sprang, a very clear introduction to the country which the club will study for awhile. At 6 o'clock the ladies were joined by their husbands for a 6 o'clock feast. This was in buffet style, from two long tables in the dining room, and included chicken, oysters and many other good things. In cases where her husband could not be present, the member invited a lady friend and Mrs. Ed Bailey, Misses Bess Schrock, Frances Dugan and Mrs. A. R. Bell were numbered among these. Two of the club members, Mrs. Harriet Studabaker and Mrs. Elizabeth Morrison, who have been away for some time, were welcomed into the circle again. The Paterson home was very pretty with its floral decorations of fall flowers in their rich colors of red and yellow, including salvia, nasturtiums and dahlias.
