Entered at the postoffice in Decatur, Indiana, as second class mail.

It's all over but the voting, the counting and the yelling.

All over the land the campaign closed Saturday evening. Big rallies were held and the three leading parties contested for every advantage. In every city, in every state, the democrats held their own and better. The rally in Indianapolis by the democrats equalled that of the other two.

Well, where in the world has the state committee had that Charles Robinson, that they havn't sent his sooner? He is some speaker, and after he had talked five minutes he had the big crowd ready to cheer him at the close of every sentence. He is all right, a democrat of the kind that never fades, all wool and a yard wide, and this year stronger than ever.

Vote for Richard K. Erwin for judge of the supreme court. He was born and raised and spent the greater part of his life in old Adams county. His heart is with us still, and he has never refused or failed to answer the call when he could be of aid to his friends and neighbors here. He is the loyal kind of a man who deserves to win, and he should have a vote from home that proves we appreciate it.

The Cincinnati Enquirer of Sunday gives Wilson four hundred electoral votes. The Chicago Record-Herald (republican) gives him 381. Every big paper which has made a canvass concedes the election of the democrats, and there is no doubt as to the result. Vote with the winners. Help make the victory so decisive that there will be no doubt as to the wants of the people.

As a last warning to you who have noticed the splendid work of J. A. M. Adair in congress during the past six years, don't change the old for a new and untried man. He is your public servant, ready at all times to fight for the interests that are yours. He will continue to do so. Would you discharge a clerk who has proven honest, faithful and capable? Vote for John Adair. Make his majority this year 10,000!

Honest Sam Ralston will be the next governor of Indiana and he will be elected by a plurality, surprising for its immense size. He is in every way qualified for the place, a clean Christian gentleman, supported by men of every class and belief in his own home county of Boone. He is every inch a man and will be controlled by no man or set of men when he takes the high office. If you believe in clean politics, vote for Sam Ralston. He is so far above the other candidates that there can be no comparison.

The Muncie Press (republican) says: "Arguing for the election of Senator Beveridge as governor, the Star and Starette call attention to the fact that Grant drank whiskey, David had affinities and St. Paul had a bad record before his conversion. They do not claim that Lincoln smoked cigarettes. Are the bunko steers who have been going about denouncing the "libels" on Albert J. Beveridge able to read between the lines? The man who wrote that editorial is acquainted with the real Albert J. Beveridge and isn't a liar like some of the rest of his friends."

A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR.

A Little Sage and Sulphur Makes Gray Hair Vanish—A Remedy for all Hair Troubles.

Who does not know the value of Sage and Sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft and glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with the loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than Sage and Sulphur, if properly prepared.

The Wyeth Chemical company of New York put out an ideal preparation of this kind, called it Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which sage and sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for keeping the hair and scalp in clean, healthy condition.

If your hair is losing its color or constantly coming out, or if you are troubled with dandruff or dry, itchy scalp, get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, use it according to directions, and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in the appearance of your hair.

All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented. The Holthouse Drug Co. m-w-s for all many men to desist from attributing its ownership to Mr. Taggart. His action in invoking the law for the protection of his good name is exactly what any man of spirit would do in a similar situation.

Coming as it does from the official organ of Mr. Beveridge whose followers have run riot with irresponsible charges against the good name of decent men, the editorial in question is especially significant, and constitutes a rare tribute to Mr. Taggart, while exposing once for all the utter shamelessness of the cowardly attacks that have been made upon him.

It is well known among Mr. Taggart's friends that his only reason for deferring action until this time is due to his unwillingness to have the suits appear in the light of a political move.

It is generally conceded, however, that the bringing of the suits even at this late day, coupled with the eagerness with which the leading organ of Mr. Beveridge rushes into print with a tribute to the good name and the business probity of the democratic leader, cannot but aid the democratic cause in Indiana.

Alert Sellemeyer was host at a dinner party Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sellemeyer, the occasion being his twenty-sixth birthday anniversary. Besides the members of the Sellemeyer family, including Miss Della, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heuer and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Vance and daughter, LeeAnna, guests were the following: Dr. Sterling Hoffman and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kleinhenz, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Lewis and Harold Lewis. A dinner, such as must be partaken of to be appreciated, was served and the feature of the table was the birthday cake on whose broad, white expanse was outlined in lighted tapers in rose-bud holders, the figure "Twenty-six." Very effective, also, was the lighting, the house being darkened and candles lighted. Following the dinner a very pleasant social time in keeping with the day was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Butler entertained at Sunday dinner at their home on North Fifth street for Mr. and Mrs. B. Jesse Williams, sr.; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Will Evans and children; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Spuller and children, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Butler and children, Mrs. M. D. Spuller and Herbert Butler.

Mrs. Otto Kirsch will entertain the Orient club Wednesday afternoon.

The Eastern Stars are expecting a big time Monday, November 11th, when they will entertain their grand matron of Indiana, Mrs. Anna Robinson of Winchester. The Queen Esters will serve a banquet at 6 o'clock, at the Methodist church, which all Masons and wives are invited to attend and meet the grand matron. The chapter will then go to their room for their work. The worthy matron requests that every officer of the Decatur chapter be present at their room Thursday evening at 7 o'clock for practice.

Miss Bertha Fuhrman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fuhrman of Root township, was given a pleasant surprise by a party of masqueraders. It took some time to identify the skillfully disguised assembly, but she did so, and then came a round of games, music and refreshments.

Miss Clara Bultemeier will entertain the Florul de Purin club Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Furman of Marion, Ohio, were in the city Sunday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tyndall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bleeke, Ella Bleeke and Freda Koldeway motored to Fort Wayne, where they made an over-Sunday visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fuhrman, whose marriage took place Saturday evening, spent Sunday as guests of the bride's brother-in-law, Thamer DeWitt, and family, west of the city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. M. Landis, former pastor of the M. E. circuit. The bride wore a pretty gown of white messaline satin, becomingly made, and the groom wore a blue serge suit. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fuhrman of Root township, and the bride a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lett of east of Rives.

Never were guests more royally entertained than Sunday at the Nick Wagner home near Monroe, when a large party was given the liberty of the farmhouse, which they took with perfect abandon. All the delights of the country were indulged in, and the feasts served at the dinner and supper hour were marvels of culinary skill. A picture of the assembly taken will be a happy reminder of a pleasant time enjoyed by the following: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Marschand, Noah Marschand, Miss Emma Marschand, Harry, Blanche and Lucile Marschand, Ralph, Annis and Harry Guelke and Mrs. Anna Bahr, all from Fort Wayne, and Mrs. Alva Sullivan of Decatur. Mary Wagner of the Morris store, Decatur, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Green and children, Arthur, Lucile, Dolores, Elizabeth and Lyle.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Boese entertained Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Elferd Rees of Natoma, Kans. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gallmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. William Goese and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Boese of Freidheim.

The Misses Hulda and Ella Mutschler entertained at supper last evening, the circle including the Misses Lydia Kirsch, Hope Hoffman and Pearl Purdy.

Miss Ida Gunsett entertained the Little Quilters Saturday afternoon and as the affair came so near the Hallowe'en, that was suggested in the decoration of yellow and black crepe, artistically arranged, and in the entertainment. The Little Quilters did not forget their work, however, and busied themselves with carpet rag sewing until 3 o'clock. At this point, Miss Dreda Parent, disguised as a witch, appeared upon the scene and then came merriment and jollity, the witch telling the fortunes of all. In bobbing for apples, Miss Dreda won the prize, and Miss Maria Boese was the winner in a yarn ball winding contest. Another interesting contest was the throwing of hickory nuts into a hole made in a pumpkin, and Miss Laura Gerke proved the most adept. Misses Laura Gerke and Lydia Gunsett were initiated into the circle. Miss Parent was a guest, and others present besides the hostess were Lula Bultemeier, Martha Hekman and Marie Boese. A delicious luncheon was in order and favors were cookie girls dressed as witches.

Mrs. J. C. Paterson will entertain the Sewing club tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Fisher of south of the city entertained Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. V. G. McKinnon and Mr. and Mrs. John Merica and daughter, Glen-nis.
