GO FORWARD:

Only 359 days to keep your resolutions. Hang on. The ones you keep are the ones that count. The same number of days remain for us to really do something worth while. Decatur needs many improvements and we should keep moving forward. A pastor of a local church in his Sunday sermon said that one great trouble with too many individuals and too many churches are that they keep going, but they go around in a circle instead of going forward. The same is true of communities. Let's go forward this year, not around and around. Let's really do something. Decatur needs many things, a new factory or two would help, an industry to occupy the automobile building, a Y. M. C. A. or a public gymnasium, a high school building, a hundred new homes, a public park where the old cemetery has become an eye-sore, and oh, so many things. Don't quit. Many a fellow without great ability has made good, because of his perseverance. Keep going, but keep going forward, not around in a ring.

We present to you today pictures of the new monument to be erected here in honor of the heroes of the civil war. In criticizing it bear in mind that we progress, that the monument of today, modeled by a sculptor of national fame, is as much different as the one of twenty years ago, as is the steel-girded building of today ahead of the old-fashioned structure. The ideas are new, but they are nevertheless attractive, beautiful and designed to add to but not detract from surrounding buildings.

Governor Marshall will next Monday turn over the affairs as executive of the great state of Indiana to the governor-elect, Samuel M. Ralston. The record of Governor Marshall has been a creditable one, and we have faith in the ability, the integrity and the progressiveness of Mr. Ralston.

POLICE COURT.

Thomas Maloney, a one-legged man, was arrested Saturday evening in front of the postoffice by Marshall Peterson. Mooney insisted on laying on the sidewalk and making insulting remarks to every person that came along unless they gave him a coin. It was found that he had enough money on him to take him as far as Ohio City, therefore he was placed on the Erie train Sunday morning and shipped out.

WE HAVE A SLOGAN

Daily Democrat Would Like to Have a Circulation of 6,000 in 1923.

OUR ANNIVERSARY

First Week Was a Big Success and We Want Each of the Others to be so.

The Daily Democrat is ten years old. We are glad to have lived these ten years, glad to have been a part and to have achieved a part in the glorious history that has been written by the hustling, busy, boosting citizens of Decatur and Adams county. We rejoice in the success of every one, and especially if that one has had the nerve and the good business sense to have accomplished something for himself. This is the one thing worth living for. Money, riches or honor count for little as compared to the man or the woman who has succeeded in making a place for himself or herself. Among those who have succeeded the Daily Democrat is deserving of creditable mention. It has been a rocky road and many times the flag of distress came near being hoisted to the windward. But grim determination and a loyal love for the work preserved and finally won the day. Today the Democrat is one of the live institutions of the city and every week furnishes the substantial of life to a dozen families. So you see we have many reasons for celebrating this our tenth anniversary. Many hundreds of our subscribers have been subscribers and readers since the initial number of the Daily Democrat was issued on January 12, 1903. The small list then served has grown to large proportions and now every nook and corner in Adams county keeps posted on the news of the day through the columns of the Daily Democrat. The beautiful knife being given as a souvenir is our appreciation of your confidence and belief in us. We have tried to serve you faithfully and well, and the large and still growing larger subscription list attests the fact that we have succeeded. We want that list to grow to Mr. P. W. Smith's prediction of 6,000 in ten years more. We appreciate your good will. We want you to have one of our souvenir knives and the only rule to observe in possessing one of them is to pay your subscription to January, 1914. We propose to make this the banner month in the history of newspaper making in Decatur, and you can help us to attain this high water mark and at the same time help yourself to a handsome and guaranteed pocket knife, by paying your subscription during this month.

FOR APPENDICITIS

Miss Vera Stoutenberry, a High School Student, Undergoes Operation.

A SEVERE CASE

Had Been Ailing Several Years—Other Notes About the Sick.

Miss Vera Stoutenberry, aged fifteen years, a high school student of this city, underwent an operation for appendicitis Sunday evening at 7 o'clock at her parents' home near the Washington church, southwest of this city. Miss Stoutenberry had been ailing several years, but became seriously afflicted last Thursday while attending school here. She became worse and the operation was finally decided upon. It came just in time, as the appendix which was filled with pus, was found to be in a ruptured condition. Dr. McOscar of Fort Wayne and Dr. J. M. Miller of this city performed the operation, and a trained nurse is in attendance. The case is very bad, and for a while Sunday night it was thought the patient would not recover. This morning she seemed much brighter, and while the outcome cannot be told for several days, hopes for her recovery are stronger.

William Bieberich of north of the city, who has been ill with typhoid fever, is getting better. His two children are also recovering from the same disease.

Mrs. Dr. J. M. Miller is recovering from a severe affection of the foot, arising from bruises on the toes received from a sweeper. The injuries healed and for a while it was feared that the little toes would have to be amputated.

Con Moynihan, who is at the tuberculosis sanitarium at Rockville, writes to his father, Jack Moynihan, that he was examined a few days ago by the physician and that his right lung is healed while his left lung is doing nicely. He will be allowed to go to the dining room every day from this on to take his meals and is very much elated over his splendid progress.—Bluffton News.

Dr. W. W. P. McMillen passed a very restful day Sunday, but this morning was not feeling quite so well. It is thought that the change in weather has much to do with his change in condition at this time.

City Mail Carrier O. P. Mills was off duty today on account of the grip. Milt Leavell, substitute carrier, was working in his place.

William Winters is numbered among the ill.

The condition of William McConnehy remains about the same.

BOARD IN SESSION

County Commissioners Are Holding First Meeting of the Year 1913.

ROADS ARE ACCEPTED

Infirmary Inventory Filed—Reports of Various County Officials Approved.

The board of county commissioners this morning began their January session, and will continue for two or three days. Whether or not any action will be taken at this time toward advertising for bids for the soldiers' monument had not been decided this afternoon. There will be no funds on hands until June 1st for that purpose but it is possible that some arrangement can be made to hurry the proposition along.

The board filed an inventory of the county infirmary showing exactly what is on hand and the same was made a part of the records.

The county treasurer filed a report of taxes collected during December. Auditor Michaud filed his final report, which was accepted, and the county sheriff filed a report that the sum of $18 allowed by the commissioners in Lorain, Ohio, for the apprehension of Ode McClish had been received.

Upon recommendation of the engineer and superintendents in charge, and after having been duly examined by the board, the commissioners accepted the following macadam roads: A. R. Bell, Yellow Creek, Lenhart and Adler. The Nicholas Rich road was also accepted, it being agreed between the contractors and the board that $10 shall be deducted.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mosese, who recently returned from their wedding trip to Detroit, and other cities of the northeast, are guests of Mr. Mosese's brother, Dale Mosese, and wife, for a few days. Mrs. Carl Mosese was formerly Miss Marguerite Hughes of Fort Wayne.

DRAMAS.

"The Prize Essay," a Lubin drama, leads the bill for tonight at the Crystal. This is a story of a poor girl who wishes to obtain a better education than her parents can afford and there is no way of getting it. She has a rich aunt who finally helps her out and she is sent to college. While there she leads her class in her studies and a good many medals, among them being one for an essay which she wrote. Also have a roaring farce, and a western story. Five cents:

"THE PRIZE ESSAY," Lubin Drama, a story of a poor girl.

"THE QUEEN OF THE KITCHEN," Kalem Comedy.

"THE CATTLE RUSTLERS," Selig, a Western Story.
