Miss Caroline Dowling of southeast of the city entertained at 6 o'clock dinner Sunday evening in honor of her cousins, John and James Dowling, of Morocco, Ind. Covers were laid for the following guests: Misses Blanche Ford, Mary Laughlin, Stella Bremerkamp and Loretta Hilleard and Messrs. Earl Bremerkamp, Crone, John and James Dowling, Otto Bremerkamp.

The Eureka club girls are anticipating a splendid meeting this evening with Mrs. J. J. Foughty.

Great interest attended the Historical club meet Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Fannie Peterson. Mrs. Mary Congleton gave a good paper on "Present Day Heroes" and each member answered to her name at the roll call, with the name and description of some prominent personage in public life. Plans for the closing social evening were also discussed. This will be held at the home of Mrs. E. S. Moses, April 15, but the plans have not yet been perfected. The last regular meeting of the year will be next Tuesday with Mrs. C. D. Lewton. A debate, "Resolved, That the social is the cause of more misery than in temperance," will be in order. On the affirmative side will be Mrs. P. B. Thomas and Mrs. Fannie Peterson; on the negative, Mrs. Charles Batterberg and Mrs. D. G. M. Trout.

A very good session was held by the Presbyterian Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. F. M. Schirmeyer. This was the first meeting of the church year, which opened April 1, and reports for the past year, showed the twelve-month to have been a very excellent one, both spiritually and financially. The study, "China's New Day," as outlined in the new year book, was taken up. Mrs. John H. Heller having the first paper. Mrs. T. M. Reid conducted the round table study on the mission work in Gary. Volunteer delegates to the annual presbytery in Kendallville, April 24 and 25 were called for. Among those who signified their intention to attend were Mesdames L. A. Graham, S. D. Beavers, W. H. Gleiser, Nettie Schrock, John Schuh. Others may also go. Miss Ruth Patterson, from the Westminster Guild, will also attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Sark returned from a short visit with relatives in Bluffton and are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Gallogly. A few friends made them an informal visit Wednesday evening. The Sark's wedding took place Monday evening.

A box of orange blossoms arrived Wednesday for Mrs. Naomi Niblick-Gandy, whose wedding took place Tuesday to Mr. Perry Gandy. The blossoms were sent by the groom's brother, Mr. Owen Gandy, at Wauchula, Fla., fresh from the Florida orange groves. They arrived a little too late for the wedding, as the bride and groom are already on their wedding journey to Wauchula, and expected to arrive there today.

Miss Clara Lang was a guest besides the Bachelor Maids, of Miss Kynt Voglewede Wednesday evening, this being the first meeting of the club since lent. Prizes at five hundred were won by the Misses Bertha Voglewede and Bess Tonneller. Miss Emma Terveer has invited the girls to be her guests next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Harry Moltz will entertain the Friday Night club this evening.

The Shakespeare club continued its study of Holland at the home of Mrs. J. H. Heller yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Emma Daniels had the paper on "Dutch Industries," and the study was interestingly carried out further by discussion.

Miss Frances Dugan has gone to Indianapolis where she will be a guest at a house party given by Miss Marie Allison. Miss Dugan will also divide a part of the time with Mrs. L. G. Ellingham and with a Vassar class mate, who is now at home.

Miss Irene Cook, a Ferry Hall student, of Bluffton, will entertain Miss Naomi Dugan and her class mates, the Misses Marcia Cheaires and Madeline Lee Davis, of Sterling, Colorado. The girls will make the trip to Bluffton today by automobile. A jolly informal social was given for the visitors Tuesday evening in the Phi Delt's hall and a number of social affairs are also being planned.

On account of important business to be considered the Euterpeans are requested to meet at prompt 7 o'clock tonight. The meeting will be with Miss Bess Schrock.

Miss Sue Mayer's Sunday school class was entertained in a jolly good way last evening by Edgar Moyer. Games were played and a two-course luncheon served.

Mrs. Nettie Schrock and Mrs. W. H. Gleiser will entertain the Presbyterian choir Friday evening at the manse.
