Entered at the postoffice in Decatur, Indiana, as second class mail.
We read almost daily of the announcement of some man or woman who has gained notoriety by reason of a big scandal or something equally unflattering receiving an offer for $500 or $1,000 a week for vaudeville engagement. Then we recall the fact that there are thousands of school teachers all over this land of ours who are getting something like $60 a month.—Muncie Star.

Joe Bell is the democratic nominee for mayor of Indianapolis, while Charles Bookwalter will head the republican ticket. Bell has long been a leader of the political forces in Marion county and Bookwalter has served as mayor and otherwise been recognized as one of the g. o. p. ring managers. Each one is a good business man and the fight will no doubt be a merry one. The Star and News will probably oppose both of them and both papers may stand for the election of the progressive nominee. At this time the chances for the election of Mr. Bell seem the brightest, but it will be a long and hot campaign.

As yet we have heard of no definite plans for a real organization looking toward the securing in Decatur of a gymnasium, or a boys' and girls' home. Did you ever stop to think that in this city of 5,000 souls there is not even a field in which the children can play out-door games, without being ordered off? There is not a place in the town, either winter or summer, where the young people can let go of their enthusiasm, and it's the biggest moral question of the hour, barring none. You can't legislate people to be good, but you can train the young into clean habits, if you provide proper play grounds, environments and entertainment. Don't pass this up.

President Wilson's no-compromise attitude on the wool and sugar schedules, in the face of the powerful attack that is being made upon the democratic program, amply confirms the earlier suspicion that he is possessed of a spinal column that is in excellent working order. The president conceives the Baltimore platform to have been a direct pledge and its endorsement at the polls a specific command from the people to carry it into execution, without hesitation and without trimming. His course may be rather a strange one for a politician to follow, but it is a novelty that will win him abundant commendation from the people.—Fort Wayne Sentinel.

Last Night to Class of Three

WEEK'S SOCIAL CALENDAR.

Thursday.
Helping Hand--German Reformed Sunday School Room.
Eureka Club--Zelma Stevens.
Lutheran Young People--At Parochial School.

About one hundred pupils of the seventh grades will enjoy a picnic Friday in some cool grove, the place to be decided later. They will leave at 10:30 in the morning, taking their dinners with them, and are anticipating a happy time. They will be accompanied by Mrs. C. F. Kinna and the teachers, the Misses Bess Schrock, Matilda Sellemeyer, Ella Mutschler, Grace Coffee and Bess Congleton.

The Misses Velma and Marie Daniels gave a happy surprise for their sister, Miss Nellie Daniels, one of the high school graduates, when they invited the members of her class to their home on Sixth street last evening, where they had a picnic supper. Miss Nellie was completely surprised as she knew nothing of the proposed event until the invitation was read to the class last evening at the close of their dress rehearsal at the opera house, where they were practicing for their class plays to be given this evening. The party repaired to the Daniels home, nearly all the seniors being present, together with Miss Clara Williams, their coach. It had been the plan of the hostesses to have a lawn party, but the rain prevented, so the nine tables for the picnic supper were set in the house. The party was a very enjoyable one.

A party in which many of her friends joined marked the eighteenth anniversary of the birth of Miss Leota Hinton, Saturday, May 17. The party was given at the home, south of Monroeville. The evening was spent in games, recitations and a contest in which Miss Gladys Hart won the prize after which refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Erexison, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hinton of Fort Wayne, Mrs. Frank McIntosh and mother of Decatur, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hinton; Misses, Lola Bailey, Mildred Murchland, Hazel Beatty, Nellie Barkley, Gladys Kern of Decatur, Ruth Darr, Bernice Miller, Nina McIntosh, Miss Cross of Fort Wayne, Sylvia Beatty, Leota Hinton, Gladys Hart; Messrs. Earl Barkley, Verne Erexison, John Bailey, Erlin Crabill, James Hart, Pearl McIntosh, Ora Hinton, Clint Hart, Luther Funk, Chalmers Miller, Carl Schlemmer, Marshall McIntosh, Roland Bailey, James Darr.

The northern Indiana district fraternal congress, tribe of Ben Hur, closed last night at Marion with a social session. Fort Wayne was selected as the place for holding the 1914 congress and the following officers were chosen: Past chief, S. C. Tipton of South Bend; chief, B. C. Geiger of Columbia City; judge, Mrs. Ida Broughman of Marion; teacher, Mrs. J. R. Lockhart of Avilla; scribe, C. M. Hunt of Kokomo; keeper of tribute, Arthur L. Miller of South Bend; captain, Mrs. Josephine Brinsley of Fort Wayne; guide, Mrs. Flora Bressler of Marion; keeper of inner gate, Mrs. Blanche E. Melschmeier of Fort Wayne; keeper of outer gate, Amos L. Gray of Jonesboro; pianist, Miss Laura Postling of Huntington. Mrs. Mary Artman of this city was named a member of the committee on the good of the order and Mrs. Olen Baker a member of the committee on distribution. The Decatur degree team initiated a large class last evening, and returned home this morning on the early train. They received many words of praise for the excellent initiatory work they did. Three candidates received the degree. The Decatur team is comprised of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Weis, Mrs. A. D. Artman, Mrs. John Burk, Ross Tyndall, John Harris, Henry Moyer, Orlando Springer, Mrs. Will Biggs, Mrs. Minnie Daniels, Mrs. U. Cramer, Mrs. M. J. Butler, Mrs. Olen Baker, Miss Marie Teeple, Miss Grace Hoeneizen, Russell Acker, Mr. and Mrs. John Ray, Philip Meibels.

Miss Margaret Todd has arrived from Bluffton to attend the commencement exercises, her cousin, Miss Reba Quinn, being a graduate.

Mrs. E. Merriss of east of the city left this afternoon for Lexington, Ky., for a visit. She will also visit at Latonia and Covington, before returning home.

The Fred Schurger dance last evening was a very pleasing one, thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd present. Professor Bagley, the pianist, who is playing at the Crystal, and Miss Bertha Kohne furnished the music. The C. B. L. of I. dance to be given next Thursday will be under the management of Fred Schurger, also. Professor Bagley will return for that and will furnish trap-drum music, while Miss Kohne will be the pianist.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Brown and sister, Miss Eva Peoples, went to Ft. Wayne this noon, where they will meet the former's son, Guy, who is returning from Valparaiso, where he has been attending school. They will also remain for the Yeomen meeting this evening in Fort Wayne.

Mrs. John Roth of Berne changed cars here this noon enroute to Fort Wayne. This afternoon she will attend the graduating exercises of the Bible training school, her daughter, Miss Lillie Roth, being a graduate.

Little Monal Butler was the honored one at a birthday party given Tuesday afternoon by her mother, Mrs. William Butler, on Eighth street, for the fifth anniversary of her daughter's birth. Eighteen little girl friends were guests and they had a jolly good time. They hunted peanuts and then when all had been found had a peanut feast. More games were played and when the refreshment hour came, ice cream, strawberries, cake and candies were given. On each one of the little white-frosted cakes, was a tiny doll given as a favor.

IS IMPROVING TODAY.

Nicholas Colchin, one of Adams county's prominent and oldest residents, who has been very sick from complications, having had a few slight strokes of paralysis, is slightly better today, and it is thought that he will get along all right. Yesterday he passed a very poor night and it looked as if the critical moment was at hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Bleeker went to Fort Wayne today to attend the funeral of a relative.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Weis, Mrs. A. Artman and daughter, Mrs. O. Baker, returned from Marion this morning, where they were attending a convention of the Ben Hur lodge.

Mrs. E. J. Bailey arrived safe at Westfield N. Y., at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jennie Clever. The trip was a long and tiresome one and Mrs. Bailey has not yet recovered from the effects sufficiently to begin her treatment at the sanitarium there. She is, however, better in other ways, and will take a rest before beginning treatment.
