

Tenderfoot Shoes For Ladies

If you want to experience real foot comfort right from the time you first put on a new shoe. Try a pair of our

Tenderfoot Shoes

$3.00 to $3.50

Charlie Voglewede

WEATHER FORECAST

Colder with probably thunder showers tonight and Wednesday.

Mrs. Perry Andrews of near Monroe was shopping here today.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rice have returned from their wedding trip.

W. H. Fiedlerjohn, went to Portland yesterday afternoon where he will look after business.

The change in the weather was welcomed by the average citizens for it at least made sleeping more comfortable.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lower and Mrs. Fannie Peterson visited with Dick Peterson and family at Bluffton over Sunday.

W. C. Kauffman left yesterday afternoon on his weekly business trip in the interest of the Schafer saddlery company.

Grover Hoffman spent Sunday at home after a week's business trip in the interest of the Schafer Saddlery company.

W. H. Cook and little son, Lester, went to Fort Wayne this morning.

Ruth Hubbard left this morning with Mrs. William Kremers for Holland, Mich., where she will visit with her grandparents.

Mrs. William Kremers and two children, Margaret and Amy, left this morning for Holland, Mich., where they will visit with relatives.

Mrs. S. L. Boyers and son of Dexter, Iowa, who have been visiting in the city with Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Boyers, left this morning for their home.

Mrs. A. Votaw of Mount Carmel, Ill., who has been visiting with her niece, Mrs. Emerson Bennett, will go to Bryant and Pennville this week before returning home.

Miss Maria Valentine, who makes her home with her son, Warren Jones, in Blue Creek township, went to Fort Wayne this morning to attend to business relating to her property.

Monday the summer change in the schedule went into effect on the G. R. & I. railroad. The only train that was affected here was the afternoon train due here at 1:11, which was changed to 1:20, a difference of nine minutes.

Harvo Sprague and Clem Knoff have accepted positions at the Crable & Cowan barber shop on Madison street.

C. W. Campbell traveling salesman for the Schafer Saddlery company left on his weekly business trip yesterday through Ohio.

French Quinn and Frank Schirmeyer left yesterday afternoon for Indianapolis where they will look after business matters.

C. O. France of Columbia City, sent word that he will join the crowd from there to attend the firemen's convention here on Thursday.

Gert Reynolds, who was operated upon a few weeks ago, and who is ill of liver trouble, is recovering slowly and is still very weak.

Mrs. Phil Salisbury of Chicago who has been visiting in the city with her mother, Mrs. Celia Ehinger left yesterday afternoon for her home.

"Yes," said Mrs. Twickembury, "I had a dreadful fall on the consecrated sidewalk in front of the church. Why, I was unconscious for two whole hours."

The Masonic building committee will meet at the offices of L. C. Waring this evening to discuss further the plans. The boys are determined to figure it out.

W. D. Henderson and daughters, Josephine and Erma, motored from Fort Wayne Sunday afternoon and spent the day as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kuebler.

Miss Fawn Lippincott, says spoonin' is only the curtain raiser to the tragedy of marriage. Live so you kin have a few friends without askin' 'em fer anything.—Abe Martin.

Mrs. A. Votaw, of Mount Carmel, Ill., who has been visiting with her niece, Mrs. Emerson Bennett, will go to Bryant and Pennville this week to visit before returning home.

Hay making began in earnest yesterday and another week will find the greater part of it down and taken care of. The wheat is turning and will be ready for harvest by the Fourth.

Martin Beng of Hillsbury, Ind., was in the city yesterday on some real estate business he figuring on buying some land in this county. He returned to his home yesterday afternoon.

We have received a few copies of acts of 1913 for those to whom they were promised and did not get them from the previous shipment. If you are one of these come in and get one.

The menu for the twenty-five cent chicken dinner to be served by the W. R. C. Thursday, can be found in another part of this paper. Patronize the ladies and also do yourself a good turn.

Contractor E. Woods is having the curb set on Ninth street, between Monroe and Nuttman avenue; also on Rugg street between Mervin avenue and Winchester street, in readiness for the brick paving.

The decorations for the firemen's convention give a bright look to the city. The building of stands began yesterday and everything will be ready to hum Thursday morning. Its to be a big day alright.

In a southern city a colored man, Sam Jones by name, was on trial for felony. The judge asked Sam if he desired the appointment of a lawyer to defend him. "No, sah," said Sam. "Ise gwine to throw myself on the ignorance of the cote."

Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Dorwin who have been visiting in Los Angeles, Cal., left last Thursday for the northwest. They expect to visit at The Dallas, Oregon, and also in Washington and Wyoming. They went by boat from Los Angeles to Portland, Oregon.

David Miller and wife of near Fremont, Ohio, are in the city for a few days, guests of the former's brother, William Miller, the former commissioner. They have been to Chicago, where their son graduated from college and enroute home are visiting here and elsewhere.

Miss Lena Dickinson, formerly of Decatur, now in Glenwood hospital, Cleveland, Ohio, studying to be a nurse, has successfully passed examinations, making the best grade of any in her class. Since being in the hospital, Miss Dickinson has suffered ill health and has lost the sight of one eye.

Charles Siple, expert pressman, representing the Goss Printing Press company of Chicago, who has been here three weeks, putting up the new web press in this office, will leave this evening. He is a hale fellow, well met, knows his business, and left this office with all the boys feeling that they had known him a hundred years, more or less.

Miss Agnes Meibers has returned from Rome City, where she spent Sunday and Monday. The C. L. Meibers family has built a new cottage at Rome City, adjoining the cottage of Mrs. Meibers' mother, Mrs. Mattie Avery, on the main land. They have a new eight-passenger launch and other equipments that make life at this summer resort most agreeable.

Forest Helm is working in the Artman & Hess Cafe.

P. W. Smith of Richmond was a business visitor in the city today.

George Baker has taken a place in the Girod & Baker restaurant during the summer.

Bess Toneller is off duty at the Elzey & Hackman shoe store as the result of a severe cold.

John Brake of Chicago is at home for a little visit with his mother, Mrs. Catherine Brake and family.

J. P. Baker will leave Friday for Barberton, Ohio, where he will visit with relatives for a few days.

Mrs. B. P. Rice and grandson, Benjamin, went to Berne this afternoon, where they will visit for a week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rice went to Celina, Ohio, today where they will visit a few days with friends and relatives.

Painters are at work on the redecorating of the front of the Terveer building, occupied by the Auth Jewellery store.

C. Carleton Guy of the Guy Stock company went to Huntington today, where he will arrange for the next week's stand.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Engeler and Godfrey Ashbaucher and family motored to Decatur Sunday afternoon.—Bluffton Banner.

Attorney A. P. Beatty has returned from a business trip to Indianapolis, where he attended the meeting of the state board of pardons.

Electric lights are being put across Second streets for the purpose of lighting up the thoroughfare for firemen's convention day Thursday.

Electricians were busy today wiring the stands for the different attractions for Thursday and also putting up strings of lights along the streets.

Mrs. Ed N. Vancil of Decatur was in the city Monday on her way to Fort Recovery, Ohio, for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Money.—Portland Sun.

Mrs. George Lichter and children of Decatur were in the city Monday on their way to Fort Recovery, Ohio, for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reason Boggs.—Portland Sun.

The Misses Helen Freiburger, Hortense Grimme and Marie Michels of Fort Wayne will come down tomorrow to be the guests of Miss Frances Deininger at the St. Joseph picnic.

A large crowd witnessed the opening show of the Guy Players entitled "The Land O' Cotton," which was staged Wednesday night. Tonight the well known play, "Ishmael," will be given.

The annual school picnic of the St. Joseph's Catholic school will be held tomorrow in the Henry Elting woods one mile and a half southwest of the city and an invitation is extended to everyone to attend.

Reports from the bedside of Miss Rose Fuhrman, who was operated upon for appendicitis at the Lutheran hospital last Wednesday, are to the effect that she is improving nicely and will soon be able to be removed to her home.

A special notice has been published by the school board to receive sealed bids for two hundred tons of White Ash domestic lump coal for the coming winter supply of the public schools. All bids must be in by June 15th.

T. M. Reid is here for a day to attend to business and you can tell by glance at his weather-beaten face that he has been a consistent fisher. He will return to Rome City today for another ten days, concluding his stay for a while at least.

The Ringling Bros. circus will be at Fort Wayne Saturday, July 12.

Many of the local members of the Phi Delta Kappa fraternity are planning on going to the convention at Huntington, which will be held there Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week.

Representatives are in the city planning for the taking of pictures of the events here on Thursday, the firemen's convention. These will be made into films and showed in each of the cities represented at the meeting. They will be shown here three days it is stated.

A merry-go-round on East Madison street, a Ferris wheel on the lot near the Star theater, stands everywhere, the band pavilion on West Court street, and the platform for the Tyrones near the Holthouse, Schulte & Company's store, are convincing evidence for the average boy and girl that there is to be something doing here.

The committee recently named by the Masons to consider the proposition of building a new temple in this city, met at the offices of L. C. Waring last night and discussed the question for an hour or two. It was decided that the chairman appoint a sub-committee of five to solicit the members of the lodge for subscriptions for bonds or for donations in order that the exact feeling of the membership might be thus obtained. They will report soon.

TAKE A DAY OFF

Come in and help celebrate Decatur's Biggest Day

FIREMEN'S CONVENTION

THURSDAY, JUNE 26th.

See the Monster Parade
See the Water Battle
See the Hose Lay Contest
See the Famous Tyrones

SPECIAL:--Exhibition run and hose laying contest Between Decatur and Bluffton

BIG BAND CONCERTS

EVERYTHING FREE

A Treasure Sweet And Precious

is what all good judges pronounce our chocolate layer cake. The same praise can justly be given to any of our bakings of the various kinds of cakes and pastry, for we exercise the greatest care in the preparation of our products. Fresh, pure ingredients, careful baking and above all thorough sanitary surroundings.

Jacob Martin

"Little Red Hen" POULTRY TONIC

100 thousand chicks die every day during June in Indiana. This tonic cures and prevents diseases of chickens and turkeys. Chickens fed this tonic grow one-third faster. No sick chickens, but hearty, plump fellows. Commence feeding now.

Buy of
SMITH, YAGER & FALK
Druggists
Decatur, - - - Ind.

No wonder! Ordinary cigars are enough to ruin your nerves altogether. Try

The White Stag

Extra Mild
Mild, sweet as a nut, fruity and wholesome and not a nasty after effect in a life times supply.

TRY IT.

The White Stag

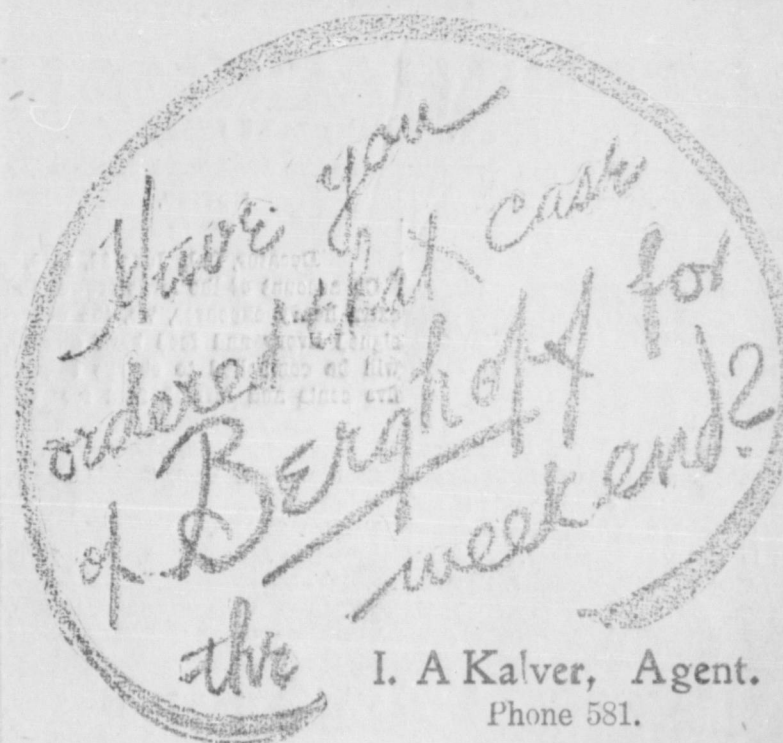

Extra Mild

Notice to Farmers

We can Take care of 100 head of horses at the Sale Barn on First Street on

THURS. JUNE 26th.
Firemens Convention

Decatur Horse Sale
Company

Demonstration "Wear-Ever"

'Aluminum Cooking Utensils

Convention Day Only
June 26th

One hundred 3 qt. Heavy Sauce pans go at 55c each, Regular list price 95c. Other sizes 30c up. 5 qt. tea kettles $2.29. The above articles at less than

Wholesale Price

---JOHN BROCK---

THE HOME OF Quality Groceries

Going Picnicking?
WHAT A POOR PICNIC
A Picnic Would Be

Good Picnic Dinner! We are Headquarters For Appetizing Picnic Delicacies!

Olives plain, jars 10 to 30c
Olives stuffed with pimentos celery and almonds,
Pickles in bulk sour or sweet, mixed pickles in bottles, sweet, sour, mustard or sweet mixed 10 and 15c
Peanut butter, glasses 10 and 15c
Pork and beans or tomato sauce 5, 10c, 15c
Marrow pork and beans 10c

Fancy cookies and wafers.

Switzer cheese and cream cheese.

We pay cash or trade for produce. Eggs 16c

Hower and Hower.
North of G. R. & I. Depot. Phone 108

F.M. SCHIRMEYER
President

FRENCH QUINN
Secretary Treas.

THE BOWERS REALTY CO.
REAL ESTATE, BONDS, LOANS,
ABSTRACTS.

The Schirmeyer Abstract Company complete Abstract Records, Twenty years Experience
Farms, City Property, 5 per cent
MONEY