Charles N. Christen for mayor. If you will think it over, you will agree that he is the proper man for the place, the one man who knows the financial conditions of the city from A to Z, and who is capable of so managing affairs that our present good credit will be continued.

What a curiosity a tariff is any low! They are asserting that the reductions in the tariff under the Underwood bill will not make a particle of difference in the cost of articles, and that neither the dealer nor the consumer will profit by it or through it. If that be true, what was the use of all the fighting and fussing? A thing that amounts to nothing is certainly not worth fighting about. But wait! It may not work that way.

Nor is true friendship critical. People, however fond of each other they may be, are commonly aware of each other's faults, but to be a genuine friend is to excuse and forget blemishes; it is to be loyal and tolerant; above all, it is to take the friend for what he is, asking no more. One's friends represent many things to him; they appeal to different sides of his nature and he would be foolish, indeed, and be proving his own narrowness to try to reduce them to a common standard. One of the chief joys of life, in fact, is the variety that friendship may offer. But it must come as it will, free as the winds that blow, not be sought for to be at its best.—Indianapolis Star.

The democratic nominees for the council are good citizens, thoroughly reliable and competent. They will serve you well and they deserve the places they seek. There can be no reason for opposing them other than partisan, and arguments that they should not be elected because they are democratic nominees should not and will not go very far with the voters of Decatur.

We read in the Democrat that "it" is very proud of the municipal plant of this city. Sure! That is one of the enterprises started long ago by one of those wicked republican administrations the Democrat so fluently refers to.—The Herald.

You're standing on your foot. We have always been for the municipal plant. We are still proud of it, but nevertheless it cost a lot of money that had to be raised in taxes. That republican council only contracted for it. They didn't pay the bill and that's why this tax you persist in advertising as the highest in the state, has been admittedly more than the average person would like for it to be. But, thank the Lord, the bill has been paid and it ought to be possible for most any one to figure a lower tax rate during the next four years.

IN MEMORIAM.

Olive Rebekah Lodge, No. 86. D. of R., Decatur, Ind., Sept. 15, 1913.

We, the committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect to our departed sister, Mary Elzey, whose death occurred Saturday, September 13, would submit the following: Whereas, It has pleased God in his all-wise mysterious Providence to call from us to his realm above the spirit of our sister, and while we bow in humble submission to the divine will, it is but fitting that we bear testimony to her good qualities and express in his manner our deep sorrow, and while we mourn her untimely demise our heartfelt sympathy goes out to her sorrow-stricken son and daughters, for to them it is an imparable loss. May they be sustained by Him who "Tempereth the wind to the shorn lamb", to whose infinite memory in their their bereavement, we tenderly commend them.

Resolved, That we extend to her son and daughters our heartfelt sympathy in this their time of sorrow and commend them to the infinite love and mercy of God.

Resolved, That our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days and these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the lodge and a copy of the same be sent to the family of the deceased sister and also to be published in our city papers.

Cut Mail Sack

interviewed this morning he neither affirmed nor denied the charge, saying that he was too drunk to know what he had done, but supposed that if the men said he had slashed the sack, he had done it. When found the sack was cut about ten inches and several bundles of mail were on the truck. Postoffice Inspector Platt and the chief of detectives of the G. R. & I. railroad were in the city Sunday investigating the affair. In all probability McConney will be given a trip over the road for this act. This is not his first offense and the prison will not be a new place to him, he having been in the reformatory once, in prison once for forging his sister's name to a money order, and also being under suspended sentence for stealing some hides, therefore he will likely get a heavy sentence for this offense.

Postoffice Inspector Platt of Huntington was here yesterday and got what evidence he could, and stated that a United States Marshal would be sent tonight or tomorrow to take the prisoner, probably to Indianapolis where he will be tried in the federal court.

FIGHT CHARGE

Martin Kiefer Declares He is Not Insane and Never Has Been and WANTS A RELEASE

Brings Habeas Corpus Proceedings Against T. J. Durkin.

Martin Kiefer, the well known Preble township farmer, who was declared insane Saturday and taken to jail until he is admitted to the insane asylum at Richmond, declares that he is not insane and will make a fight to prove it, asking that he be released.

Late this afternoon, Attorneys Peterson and Moran filed a habeas corpus proceedings in the circuit court, instituted by Martin Kiefer against Sheriff T. J. Durkin.

Kiefer sets out that he was not insane when the inquest was held, is not now and never has been, and that the finding and judgment declaring him so, following the inquest held before Justice J. H. Stone, were not supported by sufficient evidence. He states that he is held by Sheriff T. J. Durkin, on direction of the county clerk, based on the findings of the said inquest, and asks that he be given his release.

COURT HOUSE NEWS.

It is understood that he took a horse and buggy at one time and was considered one of the bad actors in the home. It is their opinion that his will is not strong enough to refrain from wrong-doing.

What effect the evidence of these two men will have upon the case is unknown at this time. The depositions were taken by Attorney L. C. DeVoss for the defendant, and by Prosecutor R. C. Parrish, who were at Columbus last week.

The current report of William F. Frazier, guardian of Opal Leah Porter, was allowed. Additional bond was ordered in the sum of $3500.

All depositions on file in the case of the State vs. Alpha Wagoner, grand larceny, were ordered published.

The time for the paying of the fall installment of taxes will close a month from today.

Real estate transfers: Elijah Martz et al. to Walter Johnson, lot 4, Rivarve Reserve, $2100; Cora Milligan to John O. Kraner, lot 64, Geneva, $500.
