COMMITTEE CALL.

The members of the Democratic Central committee of Adams county are hereby notified to meet at the democratic headquarters in the city of Decatur, Indiana, at 10 o'clock, a. m., on Saturday, February 14, 1914, at which time, pursuant to a call from the state central committee delegates will be selected to the democratic state convention to be held at Indianapolis March 19, and to the congressional convention to be held at Bluffton March 23. Other business will also be attended to. Under the apportionment Adams county is entitled to nineteen delegates and nineteen alternates for each convention. All democrats and all who wish to co-operate with the party are invited to attend the meeting.

J. W. BOSSE,
Chairman.

Democrats and those who care to affiliate with them are invited and urged to attend the convention Saturday, when delegates to the state and congressional convention will be chosen. If you are interested in this important part of the campaign, you should be there and express your views.

Deputy Secretary of State Herman L. Conter is here today greeting old friends. Herman has made good and has gained a reputation for ability and courteousness among those who transact business at that important office. His Adams county supporters are proud of him and glad of his success.

The republicans are in session in Indianapolis today and an almost heroic effort to secure a crowd and some show of enthusiasm has been made. They will try to re-establish themselves as the second party of Indiana this year, regaining if possible what the progressives took away from them two years ago.

The plea of all standpoint papers is for the progressives to abandon their party and principles and join with the republican party to the end that republicans can be placed in office. The plan is put forth by the standpatters that the progressive principles will be carried forward. "We want office," says the republican, "and we cannot get office without the aid of the progressives." The progressive replies: "Oust your standpoint leaders, cast away your reactionary and discredited platform and adopt in its place progressive principles and we will then meet with you." The republicans refuse to reform their platform, neither will they oust their machine leaders. Even the love feast for which invitations have been sent out by Chairman Sims will not be attended by any but known reactionaries. The love feast is for the purpose of booming James Eli Watson for United States senator—the James Eli of National Association of Manufacturers fame. The republican party, the minority party, wants to swallow the progressive party, the second party in the nation.—Huntington Press.

The home was beautifully decorated throughout with valentines and other symbols in honor of St. Valentine. Contests were greatly enjoyed, in the first Mrs. B. J. Terveer and Mrs. Mary Ehinger winning the prizes. Mrs. Mike Meibers and Mrs. Elizabeth Ehinger won the honors in the heart-hunting contest, which consisted in finding the largest number of little red hearts that were hid in every nook and corner of the home. MRS. WILLIAMS' LONG SICKNESS

Yields To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elkhart, Ind.:—"I suffered for four-teen years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregulari-ties. The pains in my sides were in-creased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing down feelings, was de-pressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doc-tors from whom I received only tempo-rary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sanative Wash. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me.

"If these lines will be of any benefit you have my permission to publish them."—Mrs. SADIE WILLIAMS, 455 James Street, Elkhart, Indiana.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Com-pound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegeta-ble Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for ad-vice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.
