REAL OPERA AND OPERA STARS

Of World Wide Fame Coming to Opera House, Tuesday, March 3.

A company of stars which embraces such notables as Joseph P. Siroch, America's greatest tenor, Madame Annette LeBrun, celebrated prima donna, Lydia Sturtevant from the Paris Opera company, whose reputation extends throughout Europe and America. Harold J. Gels, one of the foremost baritone of the day, etc. In an event at any time, in even the larger cities. When these stars instead of presenting one opera, take three of such famous operas as "Il Trovatore," "Bohemian Girl," and "Martha," and select the best there is in all three of the operas and put it into one performance, we have a combination such as one has an opportunity of hearing but once in a lifetime.

The "Il Trovatore" part of the program consists of the Tower Scene with its world renowned Miserere, as well as the entire dungeon scene, said to be the most beautiful of the opera. From "The Bohemian Girl" it includes practically everything that is worth while. "Then You'll Remember Me," "I Dreamt in Marble Halls," "Bills For over Past," etc. The entire second act of "Martha" is given, including "The Last Rose of Summer," "The Spinning Wheel" quartet, "The Goodnight" quartet, etc., making a performance which will long be remembered as one of the finest ever heard in this city, as well as one of the most interesting performances of opera ever given anywhere.
